God's Quest Lyman C.D. Kulathungam, 2019-12-09 Why bother with God when he is viewed as a sacred superstition a discarded non entity or a pretext for religious wars Jews and Christians have doubted and discarded God at many times throughout the ages and have also justified countless conflicts in his name Their history however tells a different story Here we observe the historical reality of God's relentless quest to relate with people whether Jew or gentile Despite significant differences between these communities this is the DNA that binds them and places them in a paradigm different from the one articulated in The Quest Christ Amidst the Quest where people are seeking to be freed from their predicament The Judeo Christian narrative shows God's incessant quest orchestrated through various channels such as scriptural revelation miraculous interventions covenantal commitments divine presence in the tabernacle or the temple God's sacrificial incarnation in Christ and the advent of the anticipated Jewish Messiah The narrative climaxes in a grand finale when humans and their habitat will be ushered into an age of peace and harmony Journeying through such a narrative will provide assurance that God is walking with you amidst life's turmoil and that the best is yet to be

Human Freedom, Divine Knowledge, and Mere Molinism Timothy A. Stratton, 2020-10-02 Does humanity possess the freedom to think and act or are we always caused and determined to think and act exactly how we think and act by things outside of our control If we are always causally determined to think and act by things outside of our control then how can humans be genuinely responsible for any of our thoughts or following actions However if humanity is genuinely free and responsible for at least some of our thoughts and actions then how can the Christian rationally affirm the doctrine that God is totally sovereign and predestines all things In Human Freedom Divine Knowledge and Mere Molinism Timothy A Stratton surveys the history of theological thought from Augustine to Edwards and reaches surprising historical conclusions supporting what he refers to as limited libertarian freedom Stratton goes further to offer multiple arguments appealing to Scripture theology and philosophy that each conclude humanity does in fact possess libertarian freedom He then appeals to the work of Luis de Molina and offers unique arguments concluding that God possesses middle knowledge If this is the case then God can be completely sovereign and predestine all things without violating human freedom and responsibility
