Impact of Global University Ranking Systems on Developing Countries Onyancha, Omwoyo Bosire, Tella, Adeyinka, 2023-06-01 The emotive discourses on the subject of university rankings are directly linked to the effect of such rankings on the performance of universities throughout the world It has been observed that the top ranked universities attract major financial commitments from the industry the best students quality researchers and a wide range of other quality endowments such as equipment libraries and laboratories It is not surprising that the ranking of universities has gained popularity and become a significant factor shaping not only the reputation of universities but also the performance of said institutions around the world including the developing countries

Impact of Global University Ranking Systems on Developing Countries presents a collection of perspectives from scholars and other stakeholders on the impact of the global ranking systems on developing countries The book is an additional resource for discussion and discourse as far as the global university ranking systems are concerned and opens new frontiers for further research Covering key topics such as assessment ethics and academic freedom this premier reference source is ideal for administrators policymakers researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students Law, Religion, Health and Healing in Africa M. Christian Green, Faith Kabata, Fortune Sibanda, 2022-12-31 The Covid 19 pandemic was global in its spread and reach as well as in its medical social and economic effects In many respects the global effort to flatten the curve produced a flattening of experience around the world and a striking coincidence of similar experiences in countries the world over The identity simultaneity and uniformity of experience were also manifest in common concerns at the intersection of law and religion in many nations around the world including Africa The lockdowns and closure of religious worship centres churches mosques and religious organisations of all sorts raised questions of freedom of religion and the related concern for freedom of assembly along with concerns about the relation of religion to science and public health religious channels of communication and religious provision of social services After all health communications and social services are all areas in which African religious organisations play key roles Potential tensions around these issues raised further considerations about the nature of religion state relations the status of religious authority and whether religious and state actors would work together or at odds in addressing the Covid 19 pandemic Global Regulatory Outlook for CRISPRized Plants Kamel A Abd-Elsalam, Aftab Ahmad, 2023-11-17 Global Regulatory Outlook of CRISPRized Plants summarizes CRISPR Cas systems and applications for precise editing of plant genomes and discusses the global regulatory framework for CRISPR edited crops While CRISPR technology has become a routine cheap and an efficient method to generate edited crops with superior traits how these crops will be regulated will determine the future of this technology Understanding the current state of regulation the concerns issues and foundations for decisions will be key in determining how this technology is used going forward Global Regulatory Outlook of CRISPRized Plants highlights regulatory classification of CRISPR modifications such as SDN1 SDN2 and SDN3 and their global regulation and discusses the social ethical governance and policy issues related to CRISPR edited crops This important summary will be vital to the successful commercialization of CRISPR technology and biosafety concerns associated with this technology Presents regulatory frameworks for CRISPR edited crops in the USA Canada Australia and New Zealand Japan EU Africa and Asia Includes a specific chapter on global regulation of genetically engineered crops Addresses public perception social aspects and ethical concerns that are impacting the commercialization of CRISPR edited crops Marine Greens Sesan Abiodun Aransiola, Oluwafemi Adebayo Oyewole, Naga Raju Maddela, Udem Joshua Josiah Ijah, Bangeppagari Manjunatha, 2024-03-27 This book provides an in depth overview of marine greens and their environmental and biotechnological applications It addresses concepts such as the niche adaptation strategies of marine greens in their natural habitats as well as their global distribution and factors affecting their distribution and proliferation Marine greens are posited as an alternative to fossil fuels mitigating global climate change and thereby fostering future environmental sustainability In addition the book explains the remediation of xenobiotics wastewater microplastics marine debris and marine green contamination Expert authors from around the world explore the industrial and agricultural applications of marine greens in the production of enzymes and marine bioenergy and what is needed to improve its production potential This is important reading for government and non governmental organizations as well as industries and research institutions looking for ways to combat current industrial and environmental challenges

Conflict, Violent Extremism and Development Andrew Glazzard, Sasha Jespersen, Thomas Maguire, Emily Winterbotham, 2017-09-04 This edited volume examines the implications for international development actors of new kinds of terrorism taking place in civil conflicts The threat from terrorism and violent extremism has never been greater at least in the global South where the vast majority of violent extremist attacks take place Some of the most violent extremist groups are also parties to civil conflicts in regions such as the Middle East and the Horn of Africa But are these groups especially the violent Islamists which constitute the greatest current threat qualitatively different from other conflict actors If they are what are the implications for development practitioners working in war zones and fragile or poverty afflicted countries This study aims to answer these questions through a combination of theoretical enquiry and the investigation of three case studies Kenya Nigeria and Iraq Syria It aims to illuminate the differences between violent Islamists and other types of conflict actor to identify the challenges these groups pose to development practice and to propose a way forward for meeting these challenges

Deaf Education Beyond the Western World Harry Knoors, Maria Brons, Marc Marschark, 2019-01-16 If teachers want to educate deaf learners effectively they have to apply evidence informed methods and didactics with the needs of individual deaf students in mind Education in general and education for deaf learners in particular is situated in broader societal contexts where what works within the Western world may be quite different from what works beyond the Western world By exploring practice based and research based evidence about deaf education in countries that largely have been left out of the international discussion thus far this volume encourages more researchers in more countries to continue investigating the learning environment of deaf learners based on the premise of leaving no one behind Featuring chapters centering on 19 countries from Africa Asia Latin America and Central and Eastern Europe the volume offers a picture of deaf education from the perspectives of local scholars and teachers who demonstrate best practices and challenges within their respective regional contexts This volume addresses the notion of learning through the exchange of knowledge outlines the commonalities and differences between practices and policies in educating deaf and hard of hearing learners and looks ahead to the prospects for the future development of deaf education research in the context of recently adopted international legal frameworks Stimulating academic exchange regionally and globally among scholars and teachers who are fascinated by and invested in deaf education this volume strengthens the foundation for further improvement of education for deaf children all around the world

The Reception of the Printed Image in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries Grażyna Jurkowlaniec, Magdalena Herman, 2020-09-01 This book examines the early development of the graphic arts from the perspectives of material things human actors and immaterial representations while broadening the geographic field of inquiry to Central Europe and the British Isles and considering the reception of the prints on other continents The role of human actors proves particularly prominent i e the circumstances that informed creators producers owners and beholders motivations and responses Certainly such a complex relationship between things people and images is not an exclusive feature of the pre modern period s print cultures However the rise of printmaking challenged some established rules in the arts and visual realms and thus provides a fruitful point of departure for further study of the development of the various functions and responses to printed images in the sixteenth century The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history print history book history and European studies The introduction of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license at https://www.taylorfrancis.com/chapters/oa-edit/10.4324/9781003029199_1/introduction-grazyna-jurkowlaniec-magdalena-herman-context-ubx-refid-b6a86646-c9f3-490d-8a06-2946acd75fda

Ethnicity, Commodity, In/Corporation George Paul Meiu, Jean Comaroff, John L. Comaroff, 2020-08-04 In the economics of everyday life even ethnicity has become a potential resource to be tapped generating new sources of profit and power new ways of being social and new visions of the future Throughout Africa ethnic corporations have been repurposed to do business in mining or tourism in the USA Native American groupings have expanded their involvement in gaming design and other industries and all over the world the commodification of culture has sown itself deeply into the domains of everything from medicine to fashion Ethnic groups increasingly seek empowerment by formally incorporating themselves by deploying their sovereign status for material ends and by copyrighting their cultural practices as intellectual property Building on ethnographic case studies from Kenya Nepal Peru Russia and many other countries this collection poses the question Does the turn to the incorporation and commodification of ethnicity really herald a new historical moment in the global politics of identity
