Questions And Answers To Hotel Rwanda:

Inside the Hotel Rwanda Edouard Kayihura, Kerry Zukus, 2014-04-01 In 2004 the Academy Award nominated movie Hotel Rwanda lionized hotel manager Paul Rusesabagina for single handedly saving the lives of all who sought refuge in the Hotel des Milles Collines during Rwanda's genocide against the Tutsi in 1994. Because of the film the real life Rusesabagina has been compared to Oskar Schindler but unbeknownst to the public the hotel's refugees don't endorse Rusesabagina's version of the events. In the wake of Hotel Rwanda's international success Rusesabagina is one of the most well known Rwandans and now the smiling face of the very Hutu Power groups who drove the genocide. He is accused by the Rwandan prosecutor general of being a genocide negationist and funding the terrorist group Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Rwanda (FDLR). In Inside the Hotel Rwanda survivor Edouard Kayihura tells his own personal story of what life was really like during those harrowing 100 days within the walls of that infamous hotel and offers the testimonies of others who survived there from Hutu and Tutsi to UN peacekeepers. Kayihura tells of his life in a divided society and his journey to the place he believed would be safe from slaughter. Inside the Hotel Rwanda exposes Paul Rusesabagina as a profiteering politically ambitious Hutu Power sympathizer who extorted money from those who sought refuge threatening to send those who did not pay to the genocidaires despite pleas from the hotel's corporate ownership to stop. Inside the Hotel Rwanda is at once a memoir, a critical deconstruction of a heralded Hollywood movie alleged to be factual and a political analysis aimed at exposing a falsely created hero using his fame to be a political force spouting the same ethnic apartheid that caused the genocide two decades ago.

The Rwandan Genocide on Film Matthew Edwards, 2018-07-09 The Rwandan genocide was one of the most shameful events of the 20th century Many Westerners understanding of it is based upon the Oscar winning film Hotel Rwanda and the critically acclaimed Shooting Dogs Yet how accurately do these films depict events in Rwanda in 1994 Drawing on new scholarship this collection of essays explores a variety of feature films and documentaries about the genocide to understand its expression in both Western and Rwandan cinema Interviews with filmmakers are featured including journalist Steve Bradshaw BBC s Panorama director Nick Hughes 100 Days director Lee Isaac Chung Munyurangabo and Rwandan filmmakers Eric Kabera and Kivu Ruhorahoza

In the Jaws of the Leviathan Joya Uraizee, 2020-06-01 This book analyzes representations of mass violence in film and fiction about African South American and Asian genocides from the points of view of the bystander and the survivor It argues that in commercial film and fiction metaphors and looks represent the violence and trauma indirectly even when the representation is quite graphic whereas in experimental novels and films looks used to describe the violence are individualized or interactive Both Bapsi Sidhwa s novel Cracking India and Deepa Mehta s film Earth deal with the violence of the partition of India in 1947 While Cracking India educates us about the dangers of the beast the violence Earth shows us the impact the beast has on victims like the beautiful Ayah nanny Similarly both Buchi Emecheta s novel Destination Biafra and Charles Enonchong s videos The Nigerian Biafran War Parts I II III depict the Nigerian Civil War of 1966 69 Yet while Emecheta s metaphors of division and bestiality highlight the selfishness of politicians and the suffering of civilians like Debbie looks exchanged by the survivors and the military in Enonchong s videos highlight the tragic ways in which generals like Ojukwu betrayed and were betrayed Metaphors and looks in Isabel Allende's novel The House of the Spirits and Bille August's movie which is based on it depict the terror of Pinochet's 1973-89 dictatorship in Chile. Allende and August use metaphors and looks of sight and blindness to describe torture survivor Alba Blanca's trauma. Alba Blanca re-tells the events of the past in order to survive. Photo-journalist Alfredo Jaar's photos and notes Let There Be Light and Terry George's feature film Hotel Rwanda both depict the Rwandan genocide of 1994 but their emphasis is on inability of the Western bystander/reader to hear or see the pain of the survivors. Accordingly Jaar and George choose dark metaphors and looks to represent the violence using diffuse lighting, fades and absences to stand for the violence and trauma. Overall representations of genocide that involve individualized metaphors and interactive looks are vitally important if the complexities of that violence are to be appreciated in the West.

Hope for a Better World Monique Mitchell, 2012-09. The book is basically my memoir; however, there are some fictitious characters but all is based on real events. Flashback to my childhood in Madagascar, a country with a fascinating history and a unique population with ethnic characteristics in my own family. Recollecting past personal tragedies in childhood and situating myself in the present where loving people, my family and church friends are surrounding me, motivating me to be a good person and see life in a happy perspective. In particular, feeling as a great privilege to be part of the melting pot in the USA. Recollection of the life at the Faculty of Medicine, Angers, France and the following years in Paris, graduating in social studies. Identifying the influence of the French culture as a pivotal factor in my life and grateful to Bon Papa, grandfather, who by becoming a naturalized French citizen enabled his descendants to benefit from their French education while identifying their difference and/or alienation could also choose individually how to find a balance between a dual culture they were exposed to: their own native and the acquired one. An interesting trip to the Champagne region through the wine road and to the east of France, Alsace, rich in war (WWI) memories. And there also exhilarating history about the Statue of Liberty designed and constructed before being brought to the USA by the French architect Frédéric August Bartholdi. Marriage to an American business man and birth of son in 1965 but early on had to raise her child as a single mother due to unsurmountable challenges in the marriage. Worked for 20 years for the UN in 9 countries in Africa and Asia, all called hardship posts including those for keeping peace missions located in politically challenged and/or war-torn countries. For each country there is a description besides my administrative work of history, culture, population, etc. Farewell trip to Madagascar, visiting the tomb of my grandparents with great sadness, fond memories and gratefulness for having raised me as a Christian child with the moral values I still carry with me at this day. Joining my American family on a permanent basis to be with my beloved son. Birth of granddaughter Jade who is now a teenager and praying for all members of my family to be blessed by God in the country where I am now conveying my message for love and tolerance in my book Hope For a Better Work.

Human Rights Discourse in a Global Network Lena Khor,2016-05-13 In her innovative study of human rights discourse Lena Khor takes up the prevailing concern by scholars who charge that the globalization of human rights discourse is becoming yet another form of cultural legal and political imperialism imposed from above by an international human rights regime based in the Global North To counter these charges she argues for a paradigmatic shift away from human rights as a hegemonic immutable and ill defined entity toward one that recognizes human rights as a social construct comprised of language and of language use She proposes a new theoretical framework based on a global discourse network of human rights supporting her model with case studies that examine the words and actions of witnesses to genocide Paul Rusesabagina and humanitarian organizations Doctors Without Borders She also analyzes the language of texts such as Michael Ondaatje s Anil s Ghost Khor s idea of a globally networked structure of human rights discourse enables actors textual and human who tap into or are linked into this rapidly globalizing system of networks to increase their power as speaking subjects and in so doing to influence the range of acceptable meanings and practices of human rights in the cultural sphere Khor s book is a unique and important contribution to the study of human rights in the humanities that revitalizes viable notions of agency and liberatory network power in fields that have been dominated by negative visions of human capacity and moral action

Hollywood's Africa after 1994 MaryEllen Higgins, 2012-11-01 Hollywood's Africa after 1994 investigates Hollywood's colonial film legacy in the postapartheid era and contemplates what has changed in the West's representations of Africa. How do we read twenty-first century projections of human rights issues: child soldiers, genocide, the exploitation of the poor by multinational corporations, dictatorial rule, truth and reconciliation within the contexts of celebrity humanitarianism, new military humanitarianism, and Western support for regime change in Africa and beyond? A number of films after 1994 such as Black Hawk Down, Hotel Rwanda, Blood Diamond, The Last King of Scotland, The Constant Gardener, Shake Hands with the Devil, Tears of the Sun, and District 9 construct explicit and implicit arguments about the effects of Western intervention in Africa. Do the emphases on human rights in the films offer a poignant expression of our shared humanity? Do they echo the colonial tropes of former civilizing missions? Or do human rights violations operate as yet another mine of sensational images for Hollywood's spectacular storytelling? The volume provides analyses by academics and activists in the fields of African studies, English film and media studies, international relations, and sociology across continents. This thoughtful and highly engaging book is a valuable resource for those who seek new and varied approaches to films about Africa. Contributors: Harry Garuba and Natasha Himmelman, Margaret R. Higonnet with Ethel R. Higonnet, Joyce B. Ashuntantang, Kenneth W. Harrow, Christopher Odhiambo, Ricardo Guthrie, Clifford T. Manlove, Earl Conteh, Morgan Bennetta, Jules Rosette, J. R. The Devil You Dance With Audrey McCluskey, 2010-10-01 South African film culture like so much of its public life has undergone a tremendous transformation during its first decade of democracy. Filmmakers once in exile, banned, or severely restricted have returned home; subjects once outlawed by the apparatchiks of apartheid are now fair game, and a new crop of insurgent filmmakers are coming to the fore. This extraordinary volume presents twenty-five in-depth interviews with established and emerging South African filmmakers, collected and edited by Audrey Thomas McCluskey. The interviews capture the filmmakers' spirit, energy, and ambition as they attempt to give birth to a film culture that reflects the heart and aspirations of their diverse and emergent nation. The collection includes a biographical profile of each filmmaker as well as an introductory essay by McCluskey pointing to the themes as well as creative differences and similarities among the filmmakers.
