Raleigh's Reynolds

Coliseum Craig Chappelow,2002-08-13 Take the best seat in the house for this thrilling history that s so much more than the story of a building discover the triumphs the tears and the tenacity of North Carolina sports and its legends For more than half a century William Neal Reynolds Coliseum was at the forefront of college basketball When filled to capacity 12 000 fans joined together to create the noise and heat that defined game night Indeed Reynolds Coliseum brought big time basketball to the South Most area residents know Reynolds as home to the popular Dixie Classic basketball tournament and the North Carolina State University's Wolfpack championship sports teams Surprisingly this building was not constructed specifically for basketball Like the state of North Carolina the coliseum's origins grew from agriculture and it was significantly shaped by the impact of World War II As home to the long standing Friends of the College series the coliseum helped extend cultural events to the general public by promoting seven shows for seven dollars It has hosted presidents and protesters circuses and symphonies tractor demonstrations and rock concerts And yes for one ten year stretch more people watched college basketball games in Reynolds Coliseum than in any other campus arena in America This volume captures more than 50 years of North Carolina history from the best seat in the house highlighting the people and events that shaped the building as much as any architect's pencil
