Write like a Man Ronnie Grinberg, 2024-03-26 How virility and Jewishness became hallmarks of postwar New York's combative intellectual scene In the years following World War II the New York intellectuals became some of the most renowned critics and writers in the country Although mostly male and Jewish this prominent group also included women and non Jews Yet all of its members embraced a secular Jewish machismo that became a defining characteristic of the contemporary experience Write like a Man examines how the New York intellectuals shared a uniquely American conception of Jewish masculinity that prized verbal confrontation polemical aggression and an unflinching style of argumentation Ronnie Grinberg paints illuminating portraits of figures such as Norman Mailer Hannah Arendt Lionel and Diana Trilling Mary McCarthy Norman Podhoretz Midge Decter and Irving Howe She describes how their construction of Jewish masculinity helped to propel the American Jew from outsider to insider even as they clashed over its meaning in a deeply anxious project of self definition Along the way Grinberg sheds light on their fraught encounters with the most contentious issues and ideas of the day from student radicalism and the civil rights movement to feminism Freudianism and neoconservatism A spellbinding chronicle of mid century America Write like a Man shows how a combative and intellectually grounded vision of Jewish manhood contributed to the masculinization of intellectual life and shaped some of the most important political and cultural debates of the postwar era

The American Stationer ,1896      Demorests' Monthly Magazine ,1882      A Genealogy of the Gentleman Mary Beth Harris,2024-03-15 A Genealogy of the Gentleman argues that eighteenth century women writers made key interventions in modern ideals of masculinity and authorship through their narrative constructions of the gentleman It challenges two latent critical assumptions first that the gentleman s masculinity is normative private and therefore oppositional to concepts of performance and second that women writers from their disadvantaged position within a patriarchal society had no real means of influencing dominant structures of masculinity By placing writers such as Mary Davys Eliza Haywood Charlotte Lennox Elizabeth Inchbald and Mary Robinson in dialogue with canonical representatives of the gentleman author Joseph Addison and Richard Steele David Hume Samuel Johnson and Samuel Richardson Mary Beth Harris shows how these women carved out a space for their literary authority not by overtly opposing their male critics and society s patriarchal structure but by rewriting the persona of the gentleman as a figure whose very desirability and appeal were dependent on women s influence Ultimately this project considers the import of these women writers legacy both progressive and conservative on hegemonic standards of masculinity that persist to this day      Harper's New Monthly Magazine ,1883 Harper s Magazine made its debut in June 1850 the brainchild of the prominent New York book publishing firm Harper Brothers Harper s Magazine the oldest general interest monthly in America explores the issues that drive our national conversation through long form narrative journalism and essays and such celebrated features as the iconic Harper s Index With its emphasis on fine writing and original thought Harper s provides readers with a unique perspective on politics society the environment and culture      Our Women are Free Wynne Maggi,2001 An exploration of the lives of women among the Kalasha a tiny vibrant community in Pakistan s North West Frontier Province      Creative Writing Jane Yeh,2013-12-19 Creative Writing is a
