

Lesson 2: Storytelling in Musicals

OBJECTIVE: Students will learn about the “emotional staircase” and how it’s the basis of storytelling in musical theatre.

MATERIALS:

- Handheld Mirror
- Newsies YouTube Clip (https://youtu.be/GmKUI_RxfB8)
 - Clip Title: Newsies - Tony Awards 2012
- Large writing surface

GREETING:

- Ask the class to recall what 3 things are used to tell stories in musicals (dialogue, song, dance).
- Ask a few students to share their drama journal “Show Card” assignments from the last class.
- Does anyone know what we call someone who can sing, act and dance? A triple threat.
- Our goal is for everyone in this class to become a triple-threat. That’s why as we continue to explore and learn about musical theatre, we’ll begin every class with a movement and voice warm-up.

MOVEMENT WARM-UP: Confidence & Relaxation

- Gather the class into a standing circle.
- Take out a pocket mirror.
- Tell the class you will be passing around the mirror. When they receive it, they must strike a strong pose, look into the mirror, say 2 factual things they notice about themselves, and end with “...and that is good!”. The whole class will then repeat “That is good!”.
- Give a demonstration: (looking into the mirror) I have short brown hair, and green eyes... and that is good! Class repeats: That is good!
- Pass the mirror around the circle.
- Tell the class you will give them 1-minute to turn to their neighbors and say 2 things they like about him/her...go! (i.e. I like your shoes, I like that you’re funny, etc.)
- To be great musical actors, we must be confident in ourselves. We must not worry what other people think because we will often be doing things that seem silly! Musical theatre is an exaggerated art form, so we must feel strong and safe and always be willing to take big risks.
- Lead the class through a series of stretching/relaxation exercises:
 - Quietly take a strong breath in, and then slowly let it out in 5 seconds. Repeat 2x.

Theatre Lesson Plans Middle School:

Drama and Education Manon van de Water, Mary McAvoy, Kristin Hunt, 2015-02-20 Drama and Education provides a practical comprehensive guide to drama as a tool for teaching and learning. It is among the first practical drama and performance textbooks that address brain based neuroscientific research making the argument that creativity is necessary in our lives that embodied learning is natural and essential and that contextual learning helps us find our place in society in relationship to other peoples and cultures. As well as a historical and theoretical overview of the field it provides rationale and techniques for several specific methodologies: linear drama, process oriented drama, drama for social justice and performance art. Each approach is supplemented with sample lesson plans, activities, ideas for differentiation and extensive bibliographies. The topics are discussed from five key angles: Historical and theoretical foundations, Curricular applications, Practical toolkits for a range of classrooms and learning environments, Different strategies for lesson plans, Extension options for longer workshops. Alongside these core methods the integration of other innovative forms from performance art to Theatre of the Oppressed into drama based learning is explored as well as the pragmatic concerns such as assessment planning and advocacy for arts learning and arts education partnerships. Drama and Education is the comprehensive textbook for teachers and students on Applied Theatre and Theatre and Education courses. Theatre in the Classroom, Grades 6-12 Jim Patterson, 2016-07-14 This latest edition Theatre in the Classroom Grades 6-12 equips prospective theatre teachers with key instructional methods and proven strategies for student learning. Building on the previous edition's strengths Patterson extensively modified and updated the entire text incorporating the most recent theatre standards by the National Coalition for Core Arts Standards. This indispensable guide whose theoretical and philosophical underpinnings and practical classroom applications endow it with a lifetime of use includes ideas for resource portfolios, checklists, rubrics and other assessment tools. Of additional value are discussions concerning managing the classroom, linking school play production with classroom learning and recognizing and responding to classroom diversity. Patterson details important considerations and resources for planning productions ranging from those available from professional organizations to those found within the community to those generated by students. He believes theatre learning must go beyond the study and performance of established play scripts and stresses the importance of productions written, directed, designed and managed by students. End of chapter sections include Extension Activities, ways to help prospective teachers further explore the subject in the college level methods course. Toney, 2008 Middle level theatre educators, those teaching grades six through eight, often have difficulty finding resources that connect to adolescent interests and needs that are age and ability appropriate and that align with state educational goals and standards. This thesis explores the writing and designing of age appropriate middle level theatre lesson plans a proposed middle level theatre curriculum aligned with the Missouri Show Me Standards and the analysis of available theatre education resources I developed a survey for middle school speech theatre teachers that included questions concerning course offerings curriculum development and student productions Using the results of this survey I compared the North Kansas City School District s middle school theatre program to programs across the state I discovered that while the North Kansas City School District already had a strong middle school theatre program in the areas of teacher certification course offerings and play productions it lacked a strong Missouri Show Me Standards based written curriculum Based on these survey findings I was able to justify my goal of writing a standards based middle school theatre curriculum for the North Kansas City School District Another goal of my research was to analyze theatre textbooks and select one that was most appropriate for middle school theatre I analyzed four textbooks with two textbook review tools These textbook review tools included items such as readability alignment with the speech theatre curriculum graphics and tie into the Missouri Assessment Program test After evaluating each text I ranked the textbooks and choose one to recommend to my district This research project incited a much needed change in the teaching practices and instructional content in the speech theatre program of the North Kansas City School District Further research could be done to encourage reform at the state level to provide stronger support for arts education
