Klosa-Kückelhaus,Martina Nied Curcio,2024-10-07 Foreign language learners often use electronic dictionaries or other information from the Internet to solve language problems However they seem to have great difficulty using dictionaries and online resources appropriately profitably and successfully Their teachers also seem unfamiliar with the current dictionary landscape and sometimes insist on using a single monolingual print dictionary in class As a result dictionaries are often banned from the classroom altogether However in today s digital global and multilingual world appropriate competence in the use of dictionaries is an essential communicative strategy Dictionary didactics should thus be integrated into foreign language teaching Against this background the contributions in this volume discuss how dictionary use can be promoted and integrated into the classroom They also consider how modern lexical resources and dictionaries should be designed to support learners Last but not least they present ideas for educational policies that could promote the use of dictionaries and lexicographic online resources This volume offers important insights to language teachers authors of language teaching materials practical lexicographers and other applied linguists South African Journal of Science ,2007 22nd

European Conference on e-Learning Shawren Singh,Sarah Jane Johnston,2023-10-26 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 22nd European Conference on e Learning ECEL 2023 hosted by University of South Africa Pretoria South Africa on 26 27 October 2023 The Conference Co Chairs Associate Professor Sarah Jane Johnston and Associate Professor Shawren Singh both from University of South Africa Pretoria South Africa ECEL is now a well established event on the academic research calendar and now in its 22nd year the key aim remains the opportunity for participants to share ideas and meet the people who hold them The scope of papers will ensure an interesting two days The subjects covered illustrate the wide range of topics that fall into this important and ever growing area of research It is especially relevant that the conference is being hosted by UNISA this year as the university celebrates its 150th anniversary UNISA has been a pioneer in first distance and now e Learning The conference will also host the final round of the 9th e Learning Excellence Awards where innovate case histories will be presented The opening keynote presentation is given by Professor Thenjiwe Meyiwa Vice Principal for the Research Postgraduate Studies Innovation and Commercialisation at University of South Africa who will speak on The Role of African Feminisms in Shaping a Sustainable Future of Being and Learning An afternoon keynote on Thursday will be made by Dr Zolile Martin Mguda University of South Africa on the topic of ChatGPT The first year The second day of the conference will open with an address by Dr Isabel Tarling MD Limina South Africa with the title Developing Digital Standards for Learning and Teaching in South Africa s Schools With an initial submission of 100 abstracts after the double blind peer review process there are 45 Academic research papers 3 PhD research papers and 1 Masters Research paper published in these Conference Proceedings These papers represent research from Belgium Canada Chile Czech Republic France Germany Ghana Greece Hong Kong Ireland Japan Malaysia Mozambique Norway Oman Per Poland Portugal Romania Singapore South Africa Sri Lanka Sweden Switzerland Turkey and the United Kingdom Effectiveness of teachers' guides in the Global South Benjamin Piper,Yasmin Sitabkhan,Jessica Mejia,Kellie Betts,2018-05-10 This report presents the results of RTI International Education s study on teachers guides across 13 countries and 19 projects Using quantitative and qualitative methods we examine how teachers guides across the projects differ and find substantial variation in the design and structure of the documents We develop a scripting index so that the scripting levels of the guides can be compared across projects The impact results of the programs that use teachers guides show significant impacts on learning outcomes associated with approximately an additional half year of learning showing that structured teachers guides contribute to improved learning outcomes During observations we find that teachers make a variety of changes in their classroom instruction from how the guides are written showing that the utilization of structured teachers guides do not create robotic teachers unable to use their own professional skills to teach children Unfortunately many changes that teachers make reduce the amount of group work and interactivity that was described in the guides suggesting that programs should encourage teachers to more heavily utilize the instructional routines designed in the guide The report includes a set of research based guidelines that material developers can use to develop teachers guides that will support effective instructional practices and help improve learning outcomes The key takeaway from the report is that structured teachers guides improve learning outcomes but that overly scripted teachers guides are somewhat less effective than simplified teachers guides that give specific guidance to the teacher but are not written word for word for each lesson in the guide

Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa (LOITASA) Birgit Brock-Utne,Zubeida Desai,Martha Qorro,2003 This book covers research findings on the language and education situations in Tanzania and South Africa It outlines the policies governing language of instruction for education in the two countries and assesses the extent to which existing policies are being implemented It presents the history of the development of language policies in the two countries and considers how they are actually working in practice at classroom level The contributors further consider the economic viabilities of language policies and the necessity to rationalise languages and dialects for education purposes African Books in Print ,1978 African Drum ,2005 South African Journal of Linguistics ,1996 The Christian Union ,1888
