The Yellow Wallpaper And Other Stories:

The Yellow Wall-paper and Other Stories Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 1998 Charlotte Perkins Gilman was America's leading feminist intellectual of the early twentieth century. The Yellow Wall Paper and Other Stories makes available the fullest selection of her short fiction ever printed. In addition to her pioneering masterpiece The Yellow Wall Paper 1890 which draws on her own experience of depression and insanity, this edition features her Impress story studies works in the manner of writers such as James Twain and Kipling. These stories together with other fiction from her neglected California period 1890-5 throw new light on Gilman as a practitioner of the art of fiction. In her Forerunner stories she repeatedly explores the situation of the woman of fifty and inspires reform by imagining workable solutions to a range of personal and social problems.

The Yellow Wallpaper and Other Stories Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2017 Best known for the 1892 title story of this collection, a harrowing tale of a woman's descent into madness, Charlotte Perkins Gilman wrote more than 200 other short stories. Seven of her finest are reprinted here. Written from a feminist perspective, often focusing on the inferior status accorded to women by society, the tales include 'Turned', an ironic story with a startling twist in which a husband seduces and impregnates a naïve servant; 'Cottagette', concerning the romance of a young artist and a man who's apparently too good to be true; 'Mr Peebles Heart', a liberating tale of a fiftyish shopkeeper whose sister-in-law, a doctor, persuades him to take a solo trip to Europe with revivifying results. The Yellow Wallpaper and three other outstanding stories. These charming tales are not only highly readable and full of humor and invention but also offer ample food for thought about the social, economic and personal relationship of men and women and how they might be improved.

Published in 1892, The Yellow Wallpaper became a classic whenever we talk about feminist literature. The story, told in the format of a diary, tells the story of a woman confined to a room in a country house under the pretext of treating a condition of depression and hysteria. Lonely and having her life closely controlled by her husband, she begins to obsess over the wallpaper in her room. Charlotte Perkins Gilman is regarded as a pioneer in American feminism. Also known for the utopian feminist novel Herland and its sequel With Her in Our Land, this book includes 10 short stories by the author, including The Yellow Wallpaper, and an essay by the author about her creative process called 'Why I Wrote The Yellow Wallpaper'. We hope you'll love this book as much we do, and don't forget to check the rest of the collection for more beloved classics.

The Yellow Wallpaper (Illustrated) Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2022-03-25 The Yellow Wallpaper original title The Yellow Wall paper A Story is a short story by American writer

Charlotte Perkins Gilman first published in January 1892 in The New England Magazine. It is regarded as an important early work of American feminist literature for its illustration of the attitudes towards mental and physical health of women in the 19th century. Narrated in the first person, the story is a collection of journal entries written by a woman whose physician husband John has rented an old mansion for the summer. Forgoing other rooms in the house, the couple moves into the upstairs nursery. As a form of treatment, the husband forbids the unnamed woman from working or writing and encourages her to eat well and get plenty of air so that she can recuperate from what he calls a temporary nervous depression, a slight hysterical tendency, a diagnosis common to women during that period.

The Poetics and Politics of the American Gothic Professor Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet, 2013-04-28 Taking as its point of departure recent insights about the performative nature of genre The Poetics and Politics of the American Gothic challenges the critical tendency to accept at face value that gothic literature is mainly about fear Instead Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet argues that the American Gothic and gothic literature in general is also about judgment how to judge and what happens when judgment is confronted with situations that defy its limits Poe Hawthorne Melville Gilman and James all shared a concern with the political and ideological debates of their time but tended to approach these debates indirectly Thus Monnet suggests while slavery and race are not the explicit subject matter of antebellum works by Poe and Hawthorne they nevertheless permeate it through suggestive analogies and tacit references Similarly Melville Gilman and James use the gothic to explore the categories of gender and sexuality that were being renegotiated during the latter half of the century Focusing on The Fall of the House of Usher The Marble Faun Pierre The Turn of the Screw and The Yellow Wallpaper Monnet brings to bear minor texts by the same authors that further enrich her innovative readings of these canonical works At the same time her study persuasively argues that the Gothic's endurance and ubiquity are in large part related to its being uniquely adapted to rehearse questions about judgment and justice that continue to fascinate and disturb
