The Law Journal Reports ,1872 Unfitness to plead Great Britain: Law Commission, 2010-10-27 This paper discusses the law on unfitness to plead or to be tried in criminal proceedings The law on unfitness to plead is concerned with whether or not an accused is able to stand trial and if not the procedure that should be used to deal with that accused Where there is an issue of unfitness to plead it is not the accused's guilt that is considered but whether they are under a disability and if so the jury must determine whether or not the accused did the act or made the omission charged In this paper the analysis of the modern law on unfitness to plead is set within the broader context of the law relating to vulnerable defendants the Mental Health Act 1983 as amended by the Mental Health Act 2007 and the Mental Capacity Act 2005 A number of proposals are put forward primarily that there should be a new revised single legal test which assesses whether the accused has decision making capacity for trial The test should not require that any decision the accused makes must be rational or wise
