reaction and repression march through the 1930s A lively read Highly recommended CHOICE Magazine Florence Tamagne holds a PhD from the prestigious Institute of Political Studies in Paris France This is her second book tracing the evolution of homosexuality in Europe Lesbian Histories and Cultures Bonnie Zimmerman,2000 To reflect this crucial fact The Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures has been prepared in two separate volumes to assure that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered BOOK JACKET

Australasian Drama Studies ,1997 The Explicit Body in Performance Rebecca Schneider,2013-06-17 An in depth and accessible study of the controversial and often shocking issues which surround the use of the female body in performance art Bad Books Amy S. Wyngaard,2013 Bad Books reconstructs how the eighteenth century French author Nicolas Edme R tif de la Bretonne and his writings were at the forefront of the development of modern conceptions of sexuality and pornography Although certain details are well known for example that R tif s 1769 treatise on prostitution Le Pornographe is the work from which the term pornography is derived or that he was an avid foot and shoe fetishist much of this story has been obscured and even forgotten including how the author actively worked to define the category of obscenity and the modern pornographic genre and how he coined the psycho sexual term fetish and played a central role in the formation of theories of sexual fetishism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Thus this book is also about literary history and how it is written it explores how R tif perceived as a bad author in both senses of the term and his contributions were glossed over or condemned such that the originality of his texts has still not been fully established Placing R tif s novels and short stories in dialogue with his autobiographical writings as well as with contemporary and modern critical commentaries the various chapters of the book examine the author s repeated testing of the limits of censorship to define and redefine the boundaries of obscenity his advancement of the modern form and definition of pornography through a focus on intimacy and female pleasure his detailed narrative explorations of foot and shoe fetichisms that were later appropriated by the sexologists and his development of theories of eugenics and reproduction in his utopian science fiction The history of R tif s texts and their reception reveals an evolution in the criteria of what is considered to be good or worthy literature a category once defined purely on moral grounds that is increasingly seen in cultural terms Bad Books corroborates the recent resurgence of interest in the author by showing the import of his texts which not only designate a number of firsts in the histories of sexuality and pornography but which also illuminate some of the defining moments in the history of French literary studies Neo-Victorian Lesbians on Screen Sarah E. Maier,Rachel M. Friars,2025-09-09 In Neo Victorian Lesbians on Screen Maier and Friars argue that the on screen portrayal of lesbians situated in the long nineteenth century across various countries is at the very least a dual task the imperative project of revoicing lesbian silence and female companionship is complicated by the lack of and or complex representation of such women in the past The adaptations with varying degrees of success carefully manipulate the gaze of the viewer to illustrate both how crucial the act of looking proves to be for lesbian attachment in these films and how the viewer's own gaze changes the way the lesbian is represented Maier and Friars consider the adaptations awareness of the audience and the ways in which the films implicitly acknowledge the stakes behind bringing the lesbian to life as it were in visual media Because screen adaptations disrupt historical distance by literally picturing Victorian subjects via a medium they did not have film adaptations of novels and biofictions and original screenplays are challenged by the lesbian subject's vivid presence on screen The lesbian is no longer a contained neo Victorian presence in the othered nineteenth century but her very existence on screen signals her effervescent modernity which filmmakers alternately embrace or reject Gertrude, Mabel, May Gwendolyn

Leick, 2019-06-30 Gertrude Stein's first novel one that was never published during her lifetime was called Q E D She wrote it to exorcise the experience of her first passionate love affair with the New Yorker May Bookstaver the friend and lover of the Bostonian Mabel Haynes a fellow student of Gertrude Stein's at Johns Hopkins Medical School between 1898 and 1902 The impact of the complicated affair on Stein's writing has attracted considerable attention but the subsequent lives of her two intimate friends have not been covered so far in any detailed way Gwendolyn Leick is the granddaughter of Mabel Haynes who moved to Austria Hungary in 1905 She began writing this book after the chance discovery of her grandmother's part in Gertrude Stein's life some six years ago in order to do justice to these remarkable women The method of writing lays out the things the notions and ideas the people friends relatives lovers husbands in the form of associative entries woven around Gertrude Stein's texts as much as on private letters photographs and other found objects It is an encyclopaedic enterprise rather than a chronologically ordered biographical account The character and the lives of the three protagonists and the times they lived in emerge through the kaleidoscope of the accumulated vignettes The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women's writing The Ultimate Guide to Lesbian & Gay Film and Video Jenni Olson, 1996 Since 1977 the San Francisco International Lesbian Gay Film Festival has been at the forefront of lesbian and gay film culture THE ULTIMATE GUIDE draws on the expertise and resources of this festival the largest lesbian and gay media arts event in the world With more than 2000 catalog entries complemented with extensive film stills short essays and reflections on the most important gay and lesbian films ever made a

Feminist Views on the English Stage Elaine Aston, 2003-11-24 Feminist Views on the English Stage first published in 2003 is an exciting and insightful study on drama from a feminist perspective one that challenges an idea of the 1990s as a post feminist decade and pays attention to women's playwriting marginalized by a renaissance of angry young men Working through a generational mix of writers from Sarah Kane the iconoclastic bad girl of the stage to the canonical Caryl Churchill Elaine Aston charts the significant political and aesthetic changes in women's playwriting at the century's end Aston also explores writing for the 1990s in theatre by Sarah Daniels Bryony Lavery Phyllis Nagy Winsome Pinnock Rebecca Prichard Judy Upton and Timberlake Wertenbaker Knowing Women Serena Owusua Dankwa, 2021-01-21 A study of same sex passion desire and intimacy among working class women who love women in West Africa The Seduction Narrative in Britain, 1747-1800 Katherine Binhammer, 2009-09-24 Eighteenth century literature displays a fascination with the seduction of a virtuous young heroine most famously illustrated by Samuel Richardson's Clarissa and repeated in 1790s radical women's novels in the many memoirs by fictional or real penitent prostitutes and in street print Across fiction ballads essays and miscellanies stories were told of women's mistaken belief in their lovers' vows In this book Katherine Binhammer surveys seduction narratives from the late eighteenth century within the context of the new ideal of marriage for love and shows how these tales tell varying stories of women's emotional and sexual lives Drawing on new historicism feminism and narrative theory Binhammer argues that the seduction narrative allowed writers to explore different fates for the heroine than the domesticity that became the dominant form in later literature This study will appeal to scholars of eighteenth century literature social and cultural history and women's and gender studies The Queening of America David Van Leer, 2012-11-12 Since at least the end of the nineteenth century gay culture its humour its icons its desires has been alive and sometimes even visible in the midst of straight American society David Van Leer puts forward here a series of readings that aim to identify what he calls the queening of America a process by which rhetorics and situations specific to homosexual culture are presented to a general readership as if culturally neutral The Queening of America examines how the invisibility of gay male writing especially in the popular culture of the 1950s and 1960s facilitated the crossing of gay motifs in straight culture Van Leer then critiques some current models of making homosexuality visible the packaging of Joe Orton the theories of Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick the rise of gay studies before concluding more optimistically with the possible alliances between gay culture and other minority discourses
