The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble, 2011-09-08 No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film     The English Short Story in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2017-04-11 In 2013 the Nobel Prize for Literature was for the first time awarded to a short story writer and to a Canadian Alice Munro The award focused international attention on a genre that had long been thriving in Canada particularly since the 1960s This book traces the development and highlights of the English language Canadian short story from the late 19th century up to the present The history as well as the theoretical approaches to the genre are covered with in depth examination of exemplary stories by prominent writers such as Margaret Atwood and Alice Munro     British Museum Catalogue of Printed Books, 1895     The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada s flagship genre It continues to attract the country s most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre s beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre s development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany     The Culture and Commerce of the American Short Story Andrew Levy, 1993-09-24 The Culture and Commerce of the Short Story is a cultural and historical account of the birth and development of the American short story from the time of Poe It describes how America through political movements changes in education magazine editorial policy and the work of certain individuals built the short story as an image of itself and continues to use the genre as a locale within the realm of art where American political ideals can be rehearsed debated and turned into literary forms While the focus of this book is cultural individual authors such as Edgar Allan Poe and Edith Wharton are examined as representative of the phenomenon As part of its project this book also contains a history of creative writing and the workshop dating back a century Andrew Levy makes a strong case for the centrality of the short story as a form of art in American life and provides an explanation for the genre s resurgence and ongoing success and the Writing of History, 1670-1820 Devoney Looser, 2000 Chosen by Choice Magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title Until recently history writing has been understood as a male enclave from which women were restricted particularly prior to the nineteenth century The first book to look at British women writers and their contributions to historiography during the long eighteenth century British Women Writers and the Writing of History 1670 1820 asks why rather than writing history that included their own sex some women of this period chose to write the same kind of history as men one that marginalized or excluded women altogether But as Devoney Looser demonstrates although British women s historically informed writings were not necessarily feminist or even female focused they were intimately involved in debates over and conversations about the genre of history Looser investigates the careers of Lucy Hutchinson Lady Mary Wortley Montagu Charlotte Lennox Catharine Macaulay Hester Lynch Piozzi and Jane Austen and shows how each of their contributions to historical discourse differed greatly as a result of political historical religious class and generic affiliations Adding their contributions to accounts of early modern writing refutes the assumption that historiography was an exclusive men s club and that fiction was the only prose genre open to women      An Anthology of Seventeenth-century Fiction Paul Salzman, 2001 Few readers today are aware of the vigorous prose experiments undertaken in the seventeenth century This anthology presents a representative selection of that work with examples from Aphra Benn John Bunyan William Congreve Percy Herbert and Thomas Dangerfield Also included are Mary Wroth s feminist romance Urania and Margaret Cavendish s female utopia The Blazing World in print here for the first time since their original publication      Gender in Modernism Bonnie Kime Scott, 2007 Grouped into 21 thematic sections this collection provides theoretical introductions to the primary texts provided by the scholars who have taken the lead in pushing both modernism and gender in different directions It provides an understanding of the complex intersections of gender with an array of social identifications      Encyclopedia of
