Good day, sir/ma'am.

It gives me great joy to speak to you. I am a (your name). I am basically from (city name). I've been in (city name) for (number of years/months). I'm staying with my family here. In addition to my parents, I have an elder brother. As I recently completed (degree name and University name), I am currently looking for work in the (mention the domain name).

I'm really interested in (mention the domain of your interest). That is why I opted to pursue my masters in (program name). Following that, my internship experience and other college practical projects piqued my interest in (field name) as a full-time career choice.

Not only am I enthusiastic about the subject in which I graduated, but I am also drawn to artistic pursuits such as dance, painting, acting, and so on. I've always been an engaged student in high school and college. Throughout my school and college years, I participated in several cultural events and received numerous honours. I'm excited to learn more about this opportunity and would gladly answer any more questions.

Thank You!

Technical Paper, 1974 Recent Developments in Recruitment and Selection Kristina Potočnik, Neil Anderson, Marise Ph. Born, Martin Kleinmann, Ioannis Nikolaou, 2024-10-04 This book brings together top recruitment and selection scholars to discuss recent challenges in employee recruitment and selection underpinned by research evidence from different European countries Broadly speaking recruitment and selection are concerned with attracting qualified candidates to apply for available jobs and selecting the best ones from the pool of available candidates As such they are critical to any business. Numerous toolkits and best practice guides exist to help recruiters navigate different stages of recruitment and selection. However, traditional recruitment and selection practices should be adjusted to respond to diverse challenges in the current and future world of work related with increased volatility, uncertainty, complexity, and ambiguity. Specific examples of these challenges are related with the accelerated use of technology and artificial intelligence as well as more flexible work practices such as hybrid and platform-based work. The chapters in this volume cover the use of technology and gamification, applicant discrimination and stigmatization, and applicant reactions to technology-mediated selection methods among others. This book is the ideal text for students, scholars, and researchers of HRM, Business and Management, and Organizational Psychology. It will also interest practitioners and professionals in the field. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of European Journal of Work and Organizational Psychology.

Career Resource Manual, 1997. What You Should Know When Looking for a Job in Today's Marketplace, 2nd Edition Richard A. Wittmeyer, 2011-01-20. The Hiring Process Yesterday versus Today. Years ago it was fairly easy to find a new position. Search firms would call you with a position opening and you could take your time selecting between job offerings. Or friends contacted you with tips that a company down the road was hiring and needed people with your skills. All that you needed to do was to update your resume from time to time and everything fell into place. Today we have a different situation: the marketplace is crawling with competition for those jobs. The time to sit back and think that a company will find you is no longer realistic. You need to put together a well-thought-out action plan to seek the job you want. This book will assist you in setting new goals and evaluating new career options. It will help you manage your job transition and employment campaign in a realistic, systematic, and organized way.

What You Should Know When Looking for a Job in Today's Marketplace, 2nd edition, shares effective job search methods and a plan of action that will assist those that are out of work and seeking employment. Those anticipating a reduction in the workforce at their company and are out looking for other opportunities. Military personnel returning to civilian life and are seeking employment. College students just graduating and ready to enter the world of work. People dissatisfied in their current positions and want to move on. More mature job candidates that are out of work and not ready for retirement. Those returning to the workplace after many years of absence. The book will assist you in setting employment goals and evaluating new career opportunities. It will help you manage your job transition and employment campaign in a systematic and organized way by providing you with the needed tools, skills, and knowledge that will ensure a successful outcome. Dr. Richard Wittmeyer relies on his thirty years of experience in talent acquisition, career and performance management, human resources, employment coaching, and strategic organizational development in order to help others productively manage a job.
