Marching as to War Elizabeth F. Desnoyers-Colas, 2014-05-22 Since the American Revolution African American women have served in every U S military conflict Despite this dedicated service to their country very little empirical research has been published regarding African American servicewomen including those who have served in the Gulf Wars Seen through the eyes of eleven African American servicewomen this book explores issues such as health care child care sexism sexual harassment racism religion military promotions career advancement and serving in combat zones Their stories illuminate the types of professional sociological and interpersonal experiences black servicewomen have encountered during their time in the Gulf Wars To learn more about Marching as to War check out Elizabeth Desnoyers Colas blog post at <http://rhetoricraceandreligion.blogspot.com/2014/05/stories-that-must-be-told-sharing.html>

FDR Goes to War Burton W. Folsom, Anita Folsom, 2011-10-11 From the acclaimed author of New Deal or Raw Deal called eye opening by the National Review comes a fascinating exposé of Franklin Delano Roosevelt's destructive wartime legacy and its adverse impact on America's economic and foreign policies today Did World War II really end the Great Depression or did President Franklin Roosevelt's poor judgment and confused management leave Congress with a devastating fiscal mess after the final bomb was dropped In this provocative new book historians Burton W Folsom Jr and Anita Folsom make a compelling case that FDR's presidency led to evasive and self-serving wartime policies At a time when most Americans held isolationist sentiments a backlash against the stunning carnage of World War I Roosevelt secretly favored an aggressive interventionist foreign policy Yet throughout the 1930s he spent lavishly on his disastrous New Deal programs and slashed defense spending leaving America vastly unprepared for Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor and the challenge of fighting World War II History books tell us the wartime economy was a boon thanks to massive government spending But the skyrocketing national debt food rations nonexistent luxuries crippling taxes labor strikes and dangerous work of the time tell a different story one that is hardly the stuff of recovery Instead the war ushered in a new era of imperialism for the executive branch Roosevelt seized private property conducted illegal wiretaps tried to silence domestic opposition and interned 110 000 Japanese Americans He set a dangerous precedent for entangling alliances in foreign affairs including his remarkable courtship of Russian dictator Joseph Stalin while millions of Americans showed the courage perseverance and fortitude to make the weapons and fight the war Was Roosevelt a great wartime leader as historians almost unanimously assert The Folsoms offer a thought provoking revision of his controversial legacy FDR Goes to War will make America take a second look at one of its most complicated presidents

The Eucharist as Oríkònsò Damian Onwuegbuchulam Eze, 2008 In this book the author relying on the research he carried out in Igboland Nigeria leads us to see the action of God's grace already active in the Igbo religious culture called Omenala Ndigbo before the coming of Christian missionaries and how these cultural values have prepared the people to receive the Gospel But as he points out these cultural values on which the Christian message ought to have been built from the beginning were grossly misunderstood and neglected The Igbo people are now mainly Christians But because the Gospel has not yet become their culture some of them have double allegiance to the doctrines of the Church and to the practices of Omenala Ndigbo The author opines that to build the Catholic Church in Igboland on a solid foundation the Eucharist must take the central place since the Eucharist makes the Church and is the source and summit of the life of the Church Thus the work which uses the analytical and hermeneutical method known as inculturation is on Eucharistic Ecclesiology from an Igbo perspective and will be useful for the Church both at the local and universal levels for self understanding and renewal ecumenism dialogue and mission
