Section One Guided Imperialism Key:

A Guide to Marx's 'Capital' Vols I-III Kenneth Smith, 2012-11-15 This book provides a comprehensive guide to all three volumes of Karl Marx's Capital with advice on further reading and points for further discussion Recognizing the contemporary relevance of Capital in the midst of the current financial crisis Kenneth Smith has produced an essential guide to Marx's ideas particularly on the subject of the circulation of money capital This guide uniquely presents the three volumes of Capital in a different order of reading to that in which they were published placing them instead in the order that Marx himself sometimes recommended as a more user friendly way of reading Dr Smith also argues that for most of the twentieth century the full development of the capitalist mode of production CMP has been undermined by the existence of a non capitalist third world which has caused the CMP to take on the form of what Marx called a highly developed mercantile system rather than one characterized by an uninterrupted circuit of industrial capital of the kind he expected would develop While the guide can be read as a book in its own right it also contains detailed references to Volumes I III so that students seminars and discussion groups can easily make connections between Smith's explanations and the relevant parts of Capital

An Introduction to Political Geography Martin Jones, Rhys Jones, Michael Woods, Mark Whitehead, Deborah Dixon, Matthew Hannah, 2014-11-13 An Introduction to Political Geography continues to provide a broad based introduction to contemporary political geography for students following undergraduate degree courses in geography and related subjects The text explores the full breadth of contemporary political geography covering not only traditional concerns such as the state geopolitics electoral geography and nationalism but also increasing important areas at the cutting edge of political geography research including globalization the geographies of regulation and governance geographies of policy formulation and delivery and themes at the intersection of political and cultural geography including the politics of place consumption landscapes of power citizenship identity politics and geographies of mobilization and resistance This second edition builds on the strengths of the first The main changes and enhancements are four new chapters on political geographies of globalization geographies of empire political geography and the environment and geopolitics and critical geopolitics significant updating and revision of the existing chapters to discuss key developments drawing on recent academic contributions and political events new case studies drawing on an increasing number of international and global examples additional boxes for key concepts and an enlarged glossary As with the first edition extensive use is made of case study examples illustrations explanatory boxes guides to further reading and a glossary of key terms to present the material in an easily accessible manner Through employment of these techniques this book introduces students to contributions from a range of social and political theories in the context of empirical case study examples By providing a basic introduction to such concepts and pointing to pathways into more specialist material this book serves both as a core text for first and second year courses in political geography and as a resource alongside supplementary textbooks for more specialist third year courses Theory
