Seedless in Seattle Ross O'Carroll-Kelly, 2015-09-15 Like the great Jesus Christ himself I had a lot of shit on my mind when I hit 33 I had three new born future Ireland internationals to feed a daughter in need of psychiatric evaluation and a teenage son obsessed with uncovering the shameful secrets of our family's 1916 past Throw into the mix a sister missing in Argentina a wife struggling to lose the weight from her orse and an interfering father in law living under my roof You can see why like the Son of God my life had become a major hassle And just when I thought it couldn't get any more difficult a moment of madness involving what else the opposite sex persuaded Sorchá that I needed to have the unkindest cut of all Seedless in Seattle is the fifteenth novel in Paul Howard's Ross O'Carroll Kelly series Ross books annual No 1 best sellers have sold over half a million copies are annually nominated for the Popular Fiction prize at the Irish Book Awards where they have won the prize an unprecedented three times and are also critically acclaimed as satirical masterpieces Reading

Paul Howard Eugene O'Brien, 2023-12-22 Reading Paul Howard The Art of Ross O'Carroll Kelly offers a thorough examination of narrative devices satirical modes cultural context and humour in Howard's texts The volume argues that his academic critical neglect is due to a classic bifurcation in Irish Studies between high and popular culture and it will use the thought of Pierre Bourdieu Sigmund Freud Mikhail Bakhtin and Jacques Derrida to critique this division building a theoretical platform from which to examine the significance of Howard's work as an Irish comic and satirical writer Addressing both the style and the substance of his work this text locates him in a tradition of Irish satirical writing that dates back to the Gaelic bards and it includes writers like Swift Wilde Flann O'Brien and Joyce Through textual and contextual analysis this book makes the case for Howard as a significant and original voice in Irish writing whose fusion of the three traditional types of satire Horatian Juvenalian and Menippean has created a parallel Ireland that shines a satirical light on its real counterpart As Freud suggests humour is a way of accessing aspects of the psyche that normative discourses cannot enunciate and Howard through the confessional voice of Ross offers a fictive truth on 20 years of Irish society a truth that is not accessed by discourse in the public sphere or by what could be termed literary or high cultural fiction North
