Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals Larry S. Miller, John T. Whitehead, 2010-11-24 So much of the process of criminal justice depends on good documentation and criminal justice professionals can spend as much as 50 75% of their time writing up administrative and research reports Much of the legal process depends on the careful documentation that records crucial information And yet most of these law enforcement security corrections and probation and parole officers have not had adequate training in how to provide a well written accurate brief and complete report Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals provides practical advice on report writing with specific writing samples and guidelines The authors go beyond the routine English grammar approach to deal with the difficult but often ignored problem of documentation that will hold up in court Important concepts are emphasized with related checklists forms and pull out chapter tests The material is organized into three sections The Nature of Report Writing The Mechanics of Report Writing and The Modernization of Report Writing NEW TO THIS EDITION Updated and revised with new material on forensics and scientific reports crime reporting common errors in forensic reports and automation of report writing Appendixes are thoroughly revised with new examples of reporting forms worksheets and reports including a sample forensic lab report and presentence investigation report Text complemented by numerous examples sample reports and tools Each chapter concludes with a sample test for the reader to self evaluate learning Appendices include model reports examples of agency instructions for completing report forms and selected readings

Report Writing for Police Officers (2nd ed.) Wayne L. Davis, Ph.D., 2013-11 This book is designed for criminal justice instructors It requires them to help students work through the various police reports The reports are intentionally left incomplete to require students to work through them Some reports may seem to ask confusing questions which may lead to unreliable responses This is to be used as a lesson unreliable responses create statistics that are not valid Managers need to improve the forms in order to obtain valid data This book first discusses communication theory and how it applies to police officers and prosecutors in the courtroom Information presented in the courtroom by police officers has a significant impact upon the jurors Indeed police officers communicate both verbally and nonverbally in the courtroom and this affects their credibility on the stand Furthermore by employing persuasion theories prosecutors can align the officers testimonies to the jurors particular communication preference Second this book discusses truth as it relates to probable cause and beyond reasonable doubt Finally because report writing is a significant part of police work this book presents a variety of police forms that will engage students in written communication
