Zimsec History Paper 2 2013

Tawodzera, Godfrey, Crush, Jonathan

Zimsec History Paper 2 2013:

Refugee Learner Experiences. A Case Study of Zimbabwean Refugee Children Lawrence Meda, 2017-09 This study is a presentation of Zimbabwean refugee learner experiences Children escaped political persecution and economic problems which affected Zimbabwe in the year 2008 Many of these children were abused and witnessed traumatic experiences their close relatives and neighbours being executed in cold blood This study was guided by three critical questions i who are the Zimbabwean refugee learners ii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners migration experiences and iii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners school experiences The study employed Bronfenbrenner's Social Ecological Model as its overarching theoretical framework Each stage of the refugee experience was described at each point in time The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Pedzisai Ruhanya, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe's ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics Oral history in South Africa Sekgothe Mokgoatšana, 2025-05-06 Colonial and apartheid era historical narratives in South Africa often disregard oral testimonies leaving significant gaps in understanding the country's rich and complex past This scholarly book explores the methodologies and ethics of oral history to address these omissions and to elevate oral testimonies as vital tools in historical scholarship This book brings together ten chapters authored by leading academics and researchers It critically examines how oral history methodologies can be contextualised within South Africa's diverse and multifaceted society Rather than focusing on Eurocentric approaches it emphasises the need to rethink the ethics and practices of oral history from an Afrocentric perspective Through its transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary lens spanning history indigenous knowledge studies museum and archival studies and folklore this book advocates for the recognition of interviewees as knowledge holders fostering meaningful exchanges rather than mere knowledge extraction The authors emphasise the need to protect and expand oral history archives ensuring the representation of marginalised voices and redressing past injustices With original research this volume sheds light on the transformative potential of oral history in South Africa offering new arguments and perspectives It aims to inspire scholars researchers and specialists to rethink conventional practices and to bridge the divide between written and oral histories This is essential literature for scholars and practitioners in history oral history theology museum studies and related fields as it reimagines the role of oral testimonies in producing inclusive and credible historical narratives

Remembering Colonialism in Zimbabwe Ivan Marowa, Usheh Wedu Kufakurinani, 2023-12-14 This book examines the various ways in which colonialism in Zimbabwe is remembered looking both at how people analyse perceive and interpret the past and how they rewrite that past elevating some players and their historical agency Inspired by the ongoing movement on decoloniality this book examines the ways in which generations of today question and challenge colonialism's legacies and their role in Zimbabwe's collective memories and history The book analyses the memorialising of both Mugabe and Mnangagwa in their speeches and during the political transition before going on to trace the continuing impact of colonialism across areas as diverse as dress code place naming agriculture religion gender and in marginalised communities such as the BaKalanga Drawing on the expertise of Zimbabwean scholars this book will appeal to researchers of decolonisation and of African history and memory

The Return of Food Tawodzera, Godfrey, Crush, Jonathan, 2016-06-14 The nadir of Zimbabwe's political and economic crisis in 2008 coincided with the implementation of a baseline household food security survey in Harare by AFSUN This survey found that households in low income urban areas in Zimbabwe's capital were far worse off in terms of all the food insecurity and poverty indicators than households in the other 10 Southern African cities surveyed by AFSUN The central question addressed in this report is whether food security in Zimbabwe's urban centres has improved AFSUN conducted a follow up survey in 2012 that allows for direct longitudinal comparisons of continuity and change The status of household food security in low income neighbourhoods in Harare was improved in 2012 relative to 2008 and yet persistently high rates of severe food insecurity demonstrate that the daily need to access adequate food continued to be a major challenge The key lesson for policymakers is that even in the context of overall economic improvement food insecurity remains endemic among the poorest segments of the urban population Households are already accustomed to drawing on resources outside of the formal economy and improvements in employment income have not reversed that trend These alternative livelihood strategies should therefore be considered as a normal part of urban life and supported with state resources that can improve access to food for the most marginalized groups

Fast Track Land Occupations in Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Sandra Bhatasara, Manase Kudzai Chiweshe, 2021-01-11 This book offers the first detailed scholarly examination of the nation wide land occupations which spread across the Zimbabwean countryside from the year 2000 and led to the state's fast track land reform programme In an innovative way it highlights the decentralized character of the occupations by recognizing significant spatial variation around a number of key themes including historical memory modes of mobilization and gender A case study of the land occupations in Mashonaland Central Province based on original research adds empirical weight to the argument In further identifying and understanding the specificities and complexities of the land occupations the book also frames them by way of a nuanced comparative historical analysis of the three zvimurenga It thus examines the land occupations referred to likely controversially as the third chimurenga with reference to the original anti colonial revolt from the 1890s the first chimurenga and the war of liberation in the 1970s the second chimurenga Further the book engages critically with the ruling party s chimurenga narrative and the hegemonic understanding of the land occupations within Zimbabwean studies This book is a crucial read for all scholars and students of post 2000 land and politics in Zimbabwe but also for those more broadly interested in historical comparative analyses of land struggles in Zimbabwe and beyond

Why History Education? Joanna Wojdon, 2023-03-15 The 2022 issue of JHEC is focused on the topic Why History Education addressing the sense of history education in contemporary world where it has to assert itself in the field of tension of power economy and society and to engage in the dialogue with the growing field of public history Perspectives from Austria Germany Israel Poland South Africa Ukraine and Zimbabwe are included The highlight of the Varia section is the article on Plannungsmatrix where Alois Ecker presents his innovative tool for designing teaching modules that skillfully combine first and second order historical concepts in the course of dialogical interaction between educator and students

Society, Power, and Land in Northeastern Zimbabwe, ca. 1560–1960 Admire Mseba, 2024-11-12 A little over two decades ago Zimbabwe undertook its Fast Track Land Reform Programme Critics saw it as nothing more than an assault on human and property rights for political expedience by a ruling elite that was fast losing its power In contrast those sympathetic to the land reform program saw it as fundamental to the righting of colonialism s historical wrongs Yet rural displacements at the hands of state actors or of those closely connected to them continue As in the past the continuing land conflicts are mostly understood as the result of the actions of an authoritarian state that exploits its control of land for the political and economic benefit of those who inhabit it These explanations share one thing in common each understands the country s perpetual land questions in terms of the actions or inactions of the colonial or the postcolonial state This book refocuses attention on how regimes of power rooted in kinship gender generation and status have individually and in combination informed access to land in precolonial northeastern Zimbabwe It then examines how these regimes of power interacted with colonial policies to inform the African experience in colonial Zimbabwe Further the book places land and the ability to ensure its fecundity at the center of the making and moderation of precolonial political power and how this power was impacted by the imposition of colonial rule Tracing the dynamics of land and power from precolonial times together with their entanglement with colonial policies is important for this relationship is almost always neglected by both scholars and policymakers drawn to the high drama of colonial and postcolonial politics of land This oversight has real consequences on our understandings of landed inequalities and how they are addressed When Zimbabwe s postcolonial state focused on colonially induced racialized land inequalities its land reform efforts left older forms of landed inequalities based on gender generation and ideas of belonging intact The book which details these inequalities reminds Zimbabweans and others that if the quest for equity espoused in postcolonial land reforms is to be meaningful it must be attentive to both colonially induced inequalities and those enduring disparities that predated were deepened by and outlived colonial rule At the same time Zimbabweans who now live with a postcolonial state that is increasingly centralizing power over land may well learn from past societies creative efforts to limit the authority of their leaders Tonga Livelihoods in Rural Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Joshua Matanzima, 2022-12-15 Based on extensive original fieldwork this book examines the complex and diverse livelihoods of Zimbabwe's Tonga people as they have developed over time including in the wake of the country's post 2000 political and economic crises Despite being endowed with natural resources the northwest region of Zimbabwe inhabited by the Tonga people is one of the most marginalised and underdeveloped parts of the country neglected by both colonial and postcolonial governments The Tonga speaking people are a minority ethnic group that settled on either side of the Zambezi River around 1100 AD and remain deeply dependent on the river for their socio economic livelihoods This book reflects on the challenges faced by the Tonga people from poor infrastructure health and education facilities to the issues caused by soil infertility and extremely low rainfall which have been exacerbated by climate change Many Tonga people were displaced by the construction of the Kariba Dam in the 1950s and their access to the region's natural resources has been restricted by successive governments Showcasing the research of Zimbabwean scholars in particular this book not only reflects on the vulnerabilities faced by the Tonga but it also looks beyond these to the livelihood practices that are thriving despite these challenges and the ways in which livelihoods intertwine with Tonga culture and society more broadly Overall this book highlights the resilience of the Tonga people in the face of years of politico economic crisis and will be an important contribution to research on livelihoods ethnic minorities and rural development in Africa Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation Struggle Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe's anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe's liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country's interpretation of their recent past Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers of African history politics and postcolonial studies Kanyenze: Zimbabwe: The Link Between Politics and , 2023-03-20 In this accessible and authoritative book Godfrey Kanyenze provides a comprehensive and far reaching analysis of the socio economic development in Zimbabwe in light of the expanding authoritarianism and the ongoing destruction of democratic institutions during the four decades after independence Kanyenze describes the various phases of the socio economic development starting with 1980 when the people of Zimbabwe saw their hard won independence and new democracy as a promise for a Integral Green

Schools, 2020-11-04 Emerging from the pioneering work of the African Association for History Education AHE Afrika Teaching African History in Schools offers an original Africa centred contribution to international history education research Edited by AHE Afrika's founders and directors the volume thus addresses a notable gap in this field by showcasing otherwise marginalised scholarship from and about Africa Teaching African History in Schools constitutes a unique collection of nine empirical studies interrogating curriculum and textbook contents and teachers and learners voices and experiences as they relate to teaching and learning African history across the continent and beyond Case studies include South Africa Kenya Rwanda Zimbabwe Malawi Cameroon and Tanzania as well as the UK and Canada Contributors are Denise Bantrot Carol Bertram Jean Leonard Buhigiro Annie Fatsereni Chiponda Raymond Nkwenti Fru Marshall Tamuka Maposa Abdul Mohamud Sabrina Moisan Reville Nussey Nancy Rushohora Johan Wassermann and Robin Whitburn Gender, Protests and Political Change in Africa Awino Okech, 2020-07-03 This book brings together conceptual debates on the impact of youth hood and gender on state building in Africa It offers contemporary and interdisciplinary analyses on the role of protests as an alternative route for citizens to challenge the ballot box as the only legitimate means of ensuring freedom Drawing on case studies from seven African countries the contributors focus on specific political moments in their respective countries to offer insights into how the state society social contract is contested through informal channels and how political power functions to counteract citizen's voices These contributions offer a different way of thinking about state building and structural change that goes beyond the system based approaches that dominate scholarship on democratization and political structures In effect it provides a basis for organizers and social movements to consider how to build solidarity beyond influencing government institutions Chapters 3 5 and 6 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0

International License via link springer.com Labour and Economic Change in Southern Africa c.1900-2000 Rory Pilosof, Andrew Cohen, 2021-06-03 This book explores the social and economic development of Zimbabwe Zambia and Malawi over the course of the twentieth century These three countries have long shared and interconnected pasts All three were drawn into the British Empire at a similar time and the formation of the ill fated Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland formally linked these countries together for a decade in the mid twentieth century This formal political relationship created dynamics that resulted in yet closer economic and social links After Federation the economic realities of industry transport and labour supplies meant that these three countries continued to be intricately interconnected Yet despite these connected pasts comparative work on the economic histories of Malawi Zambia and Zimbabwe and how these change over time is rare This book addresses the gap by providing the first comprehensive collection of labour and census data across the twentieth century for these three countries The different economic models and performances of these states offer good comparison allowing researchers to look at different models of development and how these played out over the long term The book provides data on population growth and change industrial and occupational structure and the various shifts in what the economically active population did It will be useful for historians economists development studies scholars and non governmental organisations working on twentieth century and contemporary southern Africa

The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington Mutanda, 2016-11-22 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War 1966 1980 Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower

Grid-locked African Economic Sovereignty Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, Nhemachena, Artwell, 2019-02-06 The emergent so called Fourth Industrial Revolution is regarded by some as a panacea for bringing about development to Africans This book dismisses this flawed reasoning Surfacing how investors are actually looting and plundering Africa how the industrial internet of things the gig economies digital economies and cryptocurrencies breach African political and economic sovereignty the book pioneers what can be called anticipatory economics which anticipate the future of economies It is argued that the future of Africans does not necessarily require degrowth postgrowth postdevelopment postcapitalism or sharing solidarity economies it requires attention to age old questions about African ownership and control of their resources Investors have to invest in ensuring that Africans own and control their resources Further it is pointed out that the historical imperial structural creation of forced labour is increasingly morphing into what we call the structural creation of forced leisure which is no less lethal for Africans Because both the structural creation of forced labour and the structural creation of forced leisure are undergirded by transnational neo imperial plunder theft robbery looting and dispossession of Africans this book goes beyond the simplistic arguments that Euro America developed due to the industrial revolutions
