Zimbabwe Press Mirror , 1999 Zimbabwe@40 Lloyd Sachikonye, David Kailemu, 2021-05-17 Zimbabwe 40 is a celebration of the country s four decades of independence and statehood Forty years is a relatively short period in a nation s life but it is a formative period what lessons can be learnt from the successes and failures challenges and opportunities of the last 40 years What should be avoided in the next 40 Lloyd Sachikonye and David Kailemu have assembled a distinguished team of scholars to address these questions and the book focuses on issues that characterise the country s development trajectory the linkage between values and institutions defects in its democracy the curse of mineral and agricultural endowment the impact of migration and the social exclusion of women and young people The book is written from a depth of commitment to a just peaceful and prosperous Zimbabwe and represents a work in progress reflecting the continuing research evaluation and dialogue that each of the authors is engaged in and signalling the nature and direction of future such work As the editors conclude None of the chapters are pessimistic nor are they negative about the country They are realistic about the gravity of the historical moment the nation faces and the high moral political and economic mountains we must climb before we can see the Promised Land Yet they are full of hope they are convinced that we have not come to the end of
