Daniel Birnbaum, Isabelle Graw

Neo Rauch At The Well:

Neo Rauch Norman Rosenthal, Jacob Grimm, Wilhelm Grimm, 2014 At the Well produced to coincide with an exhibition of Neo Rauch's new works at David Zwirner in New York brings together both small and large format paintings that expand the artist's unique iconography of eccentric figures, animals and hybrids within vaguely familiar but imaginary settings. This oversized catalogue designed in close collaboration with the artist is anchored by sixteen stunning plates and numerous details that bring to life and give viewers intimate access to these compelling compositions. Themes of rebirth and new beginnings abound. Rauch consistently creates characters who appear to be in the process of transformation, literally on the brink of renaissance. These figures, though squarely centred in his paintings, often have the appearance of being part of still lifes collaged with anachronistic elements belonging to different time zones and eras, offering a contemporary take on the storied tradition of visual and psychological pastiche. In addition, At the Well features an illuminating essay by art historian and curator Sir Norman Rosenthal who presents a careful reading of Rauch's new work, including its relationship to fairy tales, the influence of the German Democratic Republic on his development as an artist in the 1980s, and the overarching sense of alienation that is present within his narratives. The book also includes a reprint of the classic Brothers Grimm fairy tale The Young Giant, specifically chosen by Rosenthal to further expand his analysis.

Neo Rauch: PROPAGANDA, 2019-09-03 One of the most influential figurative painters of his generation, Neo Rauch presents bold new work in PROPAGANDA. Rauch is widely celebrated for his captivating compositions that bring together figurative painting and surrealism into an entirely new kind of visual encounter. They often hint at broader narratives and histories, seemingly reconnecting with artistic traditions of realism, but they remain dreamlike and impossible to reduce to a single story. Though his art is highly refined and executed with great technical skill, Rauch himself stresses the intuitive, deeply personal nature of how he works. As the artist notes, "My process is far less a reflection than it is drawing from the sediments of my past, which occurs in an almost trance-like state." Eight large-scale canvases and seven smaller, more intimately scaled works continue the artist's exploration of figuration and the ambiguous nature of meaning in visual art. In some of the larger works, the saturation of the canvas with characters, objects, and forms, all rendered at different scales and in conflicting arrangements, creates a collage-like quality, a figurative scrapbook of Rauch's personal iconography. The publication features a short story by acclaimed novelist and playwright Daniel Kehlmann, which was inspired by the paintings in this book. The fantastical text moves between present-day New York and an unknown time of enchanted forests, knights, and witches, exploring the many layers found in Rauch's canvases. Published on the occasion of the artist's solo exhibition at David Zwirner Hong Kong in 2019, Neo Rauch: PROPAGANDA is available in both English-only and bilingual English/Chinese editions.

Neo Rauch Neo Rauch, Gottfried Boehm, 2006 In a lakeside scene, a man leans on a graphic of an arrow as if it were a rake handle; in the garden, tentacles rise from the shoreline, and rectangular speech bubbles hang empty in the yellow sky. In a Dali-esque interior, the corner of a comforter drips off a bed This major new overview of the work of the Leipzig painter Neo Rauch makes once again the case that he is one of the most important artists of his generation He remains committed to putting brush on canvas in an age when digital media are gaining ground and among a crowd of similarly dedicated colleagues he stands out at the forefront While his work of the 1980s was influenced by Expressionism his more recent portfolio revels in a new take on Socialist Realism clearly shaped by the experience of growing up in the former East Germany Rauch riffs on the once mandated styles of his youth and on western abstraction from the second half of the twentieth century all in coloration and figuration that directly allude to the Socialist past Between cartoon styling and historic technique he has found a distinctive style palette and concept These dreamlike sequences feel both timeless and deeply rooted Rauch gathers figures from the past in surreal landscapes and interiors to tell enigmatic stories about the present

David Zwirner: 25 Years Richard Shiff, Robert Storr, 2018-10-23 Published on the occasion of the twenty five year anniversary of David Zwirner this book paints a picture of the gallery's growth and development through the lens of the artists that have shaped it Since its founding in 1993 David Zwirner has above all else been guided by its artist centric ethos Beginning with the gallery's early days on Greens Street in SoHo to its transition and expansion to Chelsea London the Upper East Side and Hong Kong this book captures David Zwirner's devotion to its inimitable roster of artists and estates The heart of the publication is a wide ranging dynamic selection of the gallery's standout exhibitions in many cases handpicked by David Zwirner himself Many of these exhibitions highlight the countless works that ended up in major museum and private collections around the world Also featured is an extensive gallery history that details all of the exhibitions by every artist and estate presented at David Zwirner accompanied by archival imagery With contributions by Richard Shiff and Robert Storr as well as a foreword by David Zwirner this publication offers rare insights into the growth of a commercial gallery through its long term commitment to artists

Made in Germany Martin

Engler, Kestner-Gesellschaft, Kunstverein Hannover, 2007 Made in Germany offers a comprehensive survey of contemporary art in Germany. At its core are fifty-two young artists living and working in Germany, about half of whom are from abroad and all of whom are among the promising newcomers of the international art scene. In looking at questions of artistic identity, Made in Germany no longer simply considers the birthplace and biography of the artists but also the context of where the work itself is produced. This is the first time that modern German art has been clearly examined to this great an extent as a weave of national particularities and cultural exchange. This volume provides concise insights into the complete oeuvres of all the artists as well as an informative comparison of the individual artists and each of their different regional and biographical contexts. BOOK JACKET

Barbarism and Its Discontents Maria Boletsi, 2013-01-30 Barbarism and civilization form one of the oldest and most rigid oppositions in Western history. According to this dichotomy, barbarism functions as the negative standard through which civilization fosters its self-definition and superiority by labeling others barbarians. Since the 1990s and especially since 9/11, these terms have become increasingly popular in Western political and cultural rhetoric, a rhetoric that divides the world into forces of good and evil. This study intervenes in this recent trend and interrogates contemporary and historical uses of barbarism, arguing that barbarism also has a disruptive insurgent potential. Boletsi recasts barbarism as a productive concept, finding that it is a common thread in works of literature, art, and theory. By dislodging barbarism from its conventional contexts, this book reclaims barbarism's edge and proposes it as a useful theoretical tool. Culture of Crisis and Extinction

Kim Thu Le, 2024-10-14 Culture of Crisis and Extinction: Idealism and Ideology Expressed in Arts and Architectural Forms explores the mythology of cultures in crisis, tracing the symptoms that lead to their destruction and eventual extinction. Through a comprehensive range of research methods and strategies tailored to each fieldwork project, this book investigates cultural phenomena across various environments. It uncovers significant historical meanings that are often hidden or absent from mainstream publications. By analyzing cultural transitions through economic, political, and ethnic lenses across Europe and Asia, the book provides an in-depth examination of collective action and the root causes of cultural crises. Spanning six chapters, it identifies the myths surrounding cultural conflicts and crises of extinction, challenging the assumption that poverty and suffering are definitive indicators of such crises. Instead, it presents cultural extinction as a gradual process stemming from a culture's failure to adapt to its changing environment. The book considers how injustice, economic misalignment, and systemic inequalities such as unnecessary poverty, illness, and religious discrimination contribute to cultural collapse. When these injustices become ingrained within a society's institutions, the eventual disappearance of the culture becomes inevitable unless transformative change is initiated. Echoes of Surrealism

Gerrit-Jan Berendse, 2021-05-14 For many artists and intellectuals in East Germany, daily life had an undeniably surreal aspect, from the numbing repetition of Communist Party jargon to the fear and paranoia engendered by the Stasi. Echoes of Surrealism surveys the ways in which a sense of the surreal infused literature and art across the lifespan of the GDR, focusing on individual authors visual artists directors musicians and other figures who have employed surrealist techniques in their work It provides a new framework for understanding East German culture exploring aesthetic practices that offered an alternative to rigid government policies and questioned and confronted the status quo Gerhard Richter Christine Mehring, Jeanne Anne Nugent, Jon L. Seydl, 2010 New scholarship explores Gerhard Richter's often overlooked early work Canvases and Careers Today Daniel Birnbaum, Isabelle Graw, 2008-04-04 Canvases and Careers Today brings together contributions from the eponymous conference organized by the Institut für Kunstkritik Frankfurt am Main Its goal is to provide deeper insights and more complexity to current debates on the relationship between criticism art and the market It was especially interesting for us to watch a kind of transatlantic divide happening While the US American participants mostly declared criticism as obsolete while hoping for turning its weakness into a strength most European participants departed from the opposite diagnosis that criticism has never been as strong as it is today since it is now part of a knowledge based economy Isabelle Graw Daniel Birnbaum Contributors George Baker Johanna Burton Merlin Carpenter Melanie Gilligan Isabelle Graw Tom Holert Branden W Joseph John Kelsey Andr Rottmann Julia Voss Institut für Kunstkritik Series
