Who Has Seen The Wind?
By Christina Rossetti

Who has seen the wind?
Neither I nor you,
But when the leaves hang trembling,
The wind is passing through.
Who has seen the wind?
Neither you nor I,
But when the trees bow down their heads,
The wind is passing by.

A., 2025-07-16 Poetry provides opportunities to explore the universal and common experiences that connect us as human beings When teachers infuse poetry into their classroom it can foster compassion develop interdisciplinary connections and support literacy instruction However not all teachers use poetry in their classroom either because they are not aware of the value of poetry or because they have not had positive experiences with poetry Given the importance of sharing poetry with today's youth educators must feel confident in evaluating well written poetry and how to weave poetry from award winning poets to support interdisciplinary connections Celebrating Poetry Across the K 12 Curriculum aims to ensure that poetry for children is not neglected as part of the curriculum and to help educators feel more confident in their understanding of children's poetry its relevance to children's lives and its importance to supporting pedagogical connections. Featuring interviews with well-known poets, this resource also showcases the latest pedagogical and scholarly research supporting the integration of poetry in the K-12 classroom. Covering topics such as science content, romanticism, and diversity recognition, this book is an excellent resource for educators, classroom teachers, literacy specialists, librarians, professionals, researchers, scholar-academics, and more.

The Joy of Children's Literature Denise Johnson, 2023-12-18. This book provides in-depth coverage of children's literature with integrated reading methods in a concise, accessible format. Johnson emphasizes that reading, writing, discussing, and finding pleasure in children's books are essential tools in being able to recognize and recommend literature and being able to share the joy of children's literature with children themselves. This fully updated third edition includes up-to-date research, new book titles within each chapter, a greater focus on diversity and inclusion, and new sections on Activities for Professional Development and Print and Online Resources.

Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms Donna Kalmbach Phillips, Mindy Legard Larson, 2015-12-22. Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms nurtures teachers' identities as writers, connects to the realities of writing instruction in real and diverse classrooms, and encourages critical and creative thinking. This text is about writing instruction as a journey teachers and students embark on together. The focus is on learning how to teach writing through specific teaching and learning structures found in the Writing Studio: mini-lessons, teacher and peer conferencing, guided writing, and sharing, celebrating, and broadcasting writing. Pedagogical features include teaching structures and strategies, Problematising Practice, classroom scenarios, assessment resources, and a Companion Website. Because a teacher who views him or herself as a writer is best positioned to implement the Writing Studio, a parallel text, Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms gives readers space to consider who they are as a writer, their personal process as a writer, and who they might become as a writer.
