Storytelling Problems Ks1:

Narrative Matters Dr Grant Bage, Grant Bage, 2012-10-02 In recent years there has been a massive revival of interest internationally in what story can offer to education This book covers a range of issues at the heart of teaching history such as the use of talk the pitfalls of narrative as a pedagogical tool translating curriculum content into lessons story telling and story making It also questions what it means to teach the difficulties for teachers of remaining constructively critical of policy and their own practice during periods of national legislation and change Writing Under Control Judith Graham, Alison Kelly, 2013-01-11 Now in its third edition and reflecting changes in the Primary National Strategy this best selling textbook introduces primary teachers to key issues in the teaching of writing Strongly rooted in classroom practice the book includes the history theory and practice of teaching writing children writing in and out of school EAL and gender issues in writing the development of writing across the years of the primary school planning classroom routines and organising resources balancing the composition and transcription elements in writing monitoring and assessing writing meeting individual needs managing specific learning difficulties in writing such as dyslexia With its companion Reading under Control also in its third edition this book provides undergraduate and postgraduate teachers with comprehensive guidance for the teaching of Creative Teaching: English in the Early Years and Primary Classroom Chris Horner, Victoria Ryf, 2007-06-11 Presenting a range of exciting activities that support the development of creative English lessons within the existing structures of the Foundation Curriculum and the National Curriculum this book is packed full of interactive and creative teaching strategies provides guidance on assessing creative work highlights opportunities for creative literacy activities across the curriculum covers ages 3 11 The Art of Storytelling for Teachers and Pupils Elizabeth Grugeon, Paul Garder, 2013-12-19 First Published in 2000 At the start of the new millennium the definition of literacy has taken on multiple electronic possibilities But this is a book about the foundations of literacy in orality in the words stories and culture of every individual This book explores the relation of storytelling to literacy and the role of story in human life

Practical Ideas, Games and Activities for the Primary Classroom Paul Barron, 2013-12-18 A collection of 150 unique games and activities to help support teaching of maths in the primary classroom Designed with busy teachers in mind the Classroom Gems series draws together an extensive selection of practical tried and tested off the shelf ideas games and activities guaranteed to transform any lesson or classroom in an instant Easily navigable allowing you to choose the right activity quickly and easily these invaluable resources are guaranteed to save you time and are a must have tool to plan prepare and deliver first rate lessons Primary History, 2005 Inclusive Educational Practice Teresa Grainger, Janet Tod, 2013-10-28 First Published in 2001 An inclusive education is one which seeks to respond to individual differences through an entitlement of all learners to common curricula Armstrong and Barton 2000 This book attempts to respond to this definition of inclusion by examining the principles of the literacy curriculum and a range of pedagogic practices The complex relationships between inclusion literacy and learning are acknowledged and it is argued that quality learning in language and literacy can work towards increased equity and involvement within the classroom community Thinking History 4-14 Dr Grant Bage, Grant Bage, 2014-01-21 In this book the author looks at the past present and the future of history teaching in primary schools in an attempt to provide a practical framework for teachers Section one reviews relevant literature with an aim to clarify the dilemmas and advance present thinking and practice in history teaching in primary schools Section two offers case studies curriculum materials and designs teaching ideas and methods teacher development and curriculum development materials at the same time as tying it in to the existing knowledge base Section three considers the perennial dilemmas for school history in the 21st century including how can history survive in an increasingly over crowded and competitive school curriculum How can history be harnessed to improvements in literacy and numeracy What should the primary history curriculum contain How can IT secure easier access to historical information and evidence Shakespeare and Classic Works in the Classroom Dennis Carter, 2013-10-23 With supportive guidelines for Key Stages 2 and 3 this book offers active approaches for teaching pre twentieth century literature with confidence Key texts including The Odyssey Hamlet and The Rime of the Ancient Mariner are explained in a very practical and accessible way This text allows for creativity amongst pupils at the same time as improving their reading and writing abilities within the literacy strategy objectives and KS3 English framework guidelines The author looks to develop an active pedagogy that encompasses the literacy strategy the KS3 English framework and the creative arts Using case studies from primary and secondary school projects a series of lessons are proposed for each year group from Year 4 though to Year 8 The lessons cover poetry drama story and the novel Teaching Assistant's Handbook Janet Kay, 2002-01-01 Teaching assistants have a valuable responsible and professional role to play in developing children's education Learning how to fulfil that role effectively is not easy Here Janet Kay provides a practical and reliable guide to the job Covering all aspects of the work from understanding children s learning and the curriculum through to assessment and management this book provides accessible support and guidance for in service and trainee teaching assistants Complete with case studies self assessment and suggestions on how to explore issues further Teaching Assistant's Handbook provides an authoritative one stop resource for all in the profession Making Progress in Writing Eve Bearne, 2003-08-29 Children's achievements in writing lag behind their achievements in reading speaking and listening National tests are beginning to expose this gap and inevitably it is raising concerns The issue is not without controversy but regardless of the politics of the situation national progress in children's writing is both needed and possible This new book from Eve Bearne makes a valuable contribution towards helping teachers close this gap Uniquely it follows the structure of the National Literacy Strategy whilst examining key areas such as bridging KS2 and KS3 writing and writing skills beyond the Literacy Hour Such a structure makes the book incredibly practical and easy to use providing essential information for both practitioners and academics Learning through Adventurous Activities Steve
