Spss Practice W. B. the Practice of Social Research Earl R. Babbie, Wagonaar, 2006-03 This handy guide is coordinated with the text and SPSS CD ROM to help students learn basic navigation in SPSS including how to enter their own data create save and retrieve files produce and interpret data summaries and much more Also included are SPSS practice exercises correlated with each chapter The guide comes free when bundled with the text The Credibility of Sovereignty - The Political Fiction of a Concept Elia R.G. Pusterla, 2015-12-19 The book deeply analyses the bilateral relations between Switzerland and the European Union and their effect on the former's sovereignty in the context of Europeanisation This touches on philosophical debates on the complexity of sovereignty What sovereignty is at stake when talking about Swiss EU relations This issue not only faces the elusiveness of sovereignty as a concept but also the proliferation of hypocrisy on its presence within states The book encounters the deconstructionist hypothesis stating that there is nothing to worry about but the belief there is something to worry about Derrida's deconstruction of sovereignty allows indeed one to grasp the fictional essence of sovereignty based on the metaphysics of presence The presence of self positing sovereign ipseity is fictional since absent in the present but spectrally present in the belief of its presence to come Sovereignty is a matter of credibility or the credible promise of a normative statement to come Hence the book challenges the realist neorealist argument stating that states are credibly sovereign until proven otherwise and explains that the debate on state sovereignty calls for the unveiling of this hypocritical epistemology cunningly disguised as an objective presence Swiss EU relations thus become the cornerstone to not only theorise but also test sovereignty and deconstruct the two ontological and epistemological sides of the same coin or the modern hypocrisy of sovereignty This deconstruction constitutes the very problematic of any attempt to understand whether and how a state can be sovereign and solve the problem as to how to neutralise the difference and identify the difference between credible and incredible claims of sovereignty This problematic connects the theory and practice of sovereignty innovatively providing positivist evidence on the arguable credibility of the Swiss claim of sovereignty and confirming the presence of a theological dimension within politics Encyclopedia of Survey Research Methods Paul J. Lavrakas, 2008-09-12 In conjunction with top survey researchers around the world and with Nielsen Media Research serving as the corporate sponsor the Encyclopedia of Survey Research Methods presents state of the art information and methodological examples from the field of survey research Although there are other how to guides and references texts on survey research none is as comprehensive as this Encyclopedia and none presents the material in such a focused and approachable manner With more than 600 entries this resource uses a Total Survey Error perspective that considers all aspects of possible survey error from a cost benefit standpoint Communication Research Measures II, 2009 Expanding and building on the measures included in the original 1994 volume Communication Research Measures II A Sourcebook provides new measures in mass interpersonal instructional and group organizational communication areas and highlights work in newer subdisciplines in communication including intercultural family and health It also includes measures from outside the communication discipline that have been employed in communication research The measures profiled here are the best of the best from the early 1990s through today They are models for future scale development as well

Advertising and Public Relations Research Jugenheimer, This comprehensive volume concentrates on the uses and applications of research in advertising and public relations situations Although the authors cover the design and conduct of research in ample detail their goal is to provide the information needed by practitioners to commission and apply research to their work problems in advertising and PR Responding to Learner Diversity and Learning Difficulties Dennis

Conrad, Stacey Blackman, 2018-10-01 Caribbean Discourse in Inclusive Education Volume II Responding to Learner Diversity and Learner Difficulties shares selected critical reflections and recommendations on the way educational communities respond to student diversity and difficulties learning These contexts include the Caribbean the Diaspora and beyond Authors explore issues and strategies for realizing and sustaining the agenda of education for all within primarily but not limited to the Caribbean While the authors are aware of the ongoing debate between the terms education for all and inclusive education we use these terms interchangeably We hold the position that inclusive education is about commitment to removing barriers to optimum learning for all learners regardless of age ability ethnicity gender geography race religion sexual orientation or other differences Responding to Learner Diversity and Difficulties extend the discourse to include stakeholders committed to sharing their experiences and strategies for overcoming barriers to inclusive education This second volume presents research that examines how teachers can respond to students with disabilities and difficulties learning teach challenging curriculum content in mathematics and literacy build citizenship through student voice improve teacher practice via co teaching and critical reflection promote inclusive practice through leadership and advocacy It can be used as a core text or companion reader for students at the undergraduate and graduate levels lecturers practitioners researchers and policy makers

Working with Assumptions in International Development Program Evaluation Apollo M. Nkwake, 2019-11-27 This book discusses the crucial place that assumptions hold in conceptualizing implementing and evaluating development programs It suggests simple ways for stakeholders and evaluators to 1 examine their assumptions about program theory and environmental conditions and 2 develop and carry out effective program monitoring and evaluation in light of those assumptions A survey of evaluators from an international development agency reviewed the state of practice on assumptions aware evaluation This 2nd edition has been updated with further illustrations case studies and frameworks that have been researched and tested in the years since the first edition Regardless of geography or goal development programs and policies are fueled by a complex network of implicit ideas Stakeholders may hold assumptions about purposes outcomes methodology and the value of project evaluation and evaluators which may or may not be shared by the evaluators A major barrier to viable program evaluations is that development programs are based on assumptions that often are not well articulated In designing programs stakeholders often lack clear outlines for how implemented interventions will bring desired changes This lack of clarity masks critical risks to program success and makes it challenging to evaluate such programs Methods that have attempted to address this dilemma have been popularized as theory of change or other theory based approaches Often however theory based methods do not sufficiently clarify how program managers or evaluators should work with the assumptions inherent in the connections between the steps The critical examination of assumptions in evaluation is essential for effective evaluations and evaluative thinking How does one think evaluatively It all begins with assumptions Systematically articulating examining and testing assumptions is the foundation of evaluative thinking This book more than any other explains how to build a strong foundation for effective interventions and useful evaluation by rigorously working with assumptions Michael Quinn Patton PhD Author of Utilization Focused Evaluation and co editor of THOUGHTWORK Thinking Action and the Fate of the World USA This updated edition presents us with a new opportunity to delve into both the theoretical and practical aspects of paradigmatic prescriptive and causal assumptions We need to learn and apply these insights with the deep attention they deserve Zenda Ofir PhD Independent Evaluator Richard von Weizsäcker Fellow Robert Bosch Academy Berlin Germany Honorary Professor School of Public Leadership Stellenbosch University South Africa This thought provoking book explains why assumptions are an essential condition within the theories and methodologies of evaluation and how assumptions influence the ways that evaluators approach their work It will enrich the ways that evaluators develop their models devise their methodologies interpret their data and interact with their stakeholders Jonny Morell Ph D President 4 669 Evaluation and Planning Editor Emeritus Evaluation and Program Planning
