Camosy, 2012-04-12 This book explores a number of important issues to illuminate the common ground between Peter Singer and Christian ethics The Sense of Suffering: Constructions of Physical Pain in Early Modern Culture ,2009-01-31

The early modern period is a particularly relevant and fascinating chapter in the history of pain This volume investigates early modern constructions of physical pain from a variety of disciplines including religious legal and medical history literary criticism philosophy and art history. The contributors examine how early modern culture interpreted physical pain as it presented itself for instance during illness but also analyse the ways in which early moderns employed the idea of physical suffering as a powerful rhetorical tool in debates over other issues such as the nature of ritual notions of masculinity selfhood and community definitions of religious experience and the nature of political power Contributors include Emese B lint Maria Berbara Joseph Campana Andreas Dehmer Jan Frans van Dijkhuizen Karl A E Enenkel Lia van Gemert Frans Willem Korsten Mary Ann Lund Jenny Mayhew Stephen Pender Michael Schoenfeldt Kristine Steenbergh Anne Tilkorn Jetze Touber Anita Traninger and Patrick Vandermeersch Thomism and the Problem of Animal Suffering B. Kyle Keltz, 2020-06-12 The problem of animal suffering is the atheistic argument that an all knowing all powerful and all good God would not use millions of years of animal suffering disease and death to form a planet for human beings This argument has not received as much attention in the philosophical literature as other forms of the problem of evil yet it has been increasingly touted by atheists since Charles Darwin While several theists have attempted to provide answers to the problem they disagree with each other as to which answer is correct Also some of these theists have given in to the problem and believe it entails that God is limited in certain ways B Kyle Keltz seeks to provide a classical answer to the problem of animal suffering inspired by the medieval philosopher theologian Thomas Aguinas In doing so Keltz not only utilizes the wisdom of Aguinas but also contemporary insights into non human animal minds from contemporary philosophy and science Keltz provides a compelling neo Thomistic answer to the problem of animal suffering and explains why the classical God of theism would create a world that includes animal death Christian Apologetics Alister E.
