The essays are organized into Writing Working Class Women Dialogueunder Pressure Men at War The Talking Cure and Regenerating the Wasteland The Ghost Road Pat Barker,2012-08-09 The Booker Prize winning final novel in Pat Barker s classic Regeneration trilogy from the acclaimed author of The Silence of the Girls An extraordinary tour de force One of the few real masterpieces of late twentieth century British fiction Jonathan Coe Powerful deeply moving A triumph Sunday Times Harrowing original unforgettable Independent 1918 the closing months of the war Army psychiatrist William Rivers is increasingly concerned for the men who have been in his care particularly Billy Prior who is about to return to combat in France with young poet Wilfred Owen As Rivers tries to make sense of what if anything he has done to help these injured men Prior and Owen await the final battles in a war that has decimated a generation The Ghost Road is a vivid and unforgettable account of the devastating final months of the First World War The Regeneration Trilogy Regeneration The Eye in the Door The Ghost Road Collective Traumas Conny Mithander,2007 Collective Traumas is about the traumatic European history of the 20th century war genocide dictatorship ethnic cleansing and how individuals communities and nations have dealt with their dark past through remembrance historiography and legal settlements Memories and especially collective memories serve as foundations for national identities and are politically charged Regardless whether memory is used to support or to challenge established ideologies it is inevitably subject to political tensions Consequently memory history and amnesia tend to be used and abused for different political and ideological purposes From the perspectives of historical literary and visual studies the essays focus on how the experiences of war and profound conflict have been represented and remembered in different national cultures and communities This volume is a vital contribution to memory studies and trauma theory Collective Traumas is a result of the multidisciplinary research project on Memory Culture that was initiated in 2002 at Karlstad University Sweden A previous publication with Peter Lang is Memory Work The Theory and Practice of Memory 2005 Noonday Pat Barker,2015-08-27 From the Booker Prize winning and Women s Prize shortlisted author of The Silence of the Girls The final novel in Pat Barker s acclaimed Life Class trilogy an unforgettable story of art and war from one of our greatest writers on war and the human heart Bold hard hitting unforgettable with luminous and unsparing insight Independent on Sunday Barker s command of detail and gift for metaphor are as sharp as ever Noonday is in the first rank Mail on Sunday There is no end to her talent in describing how conflicts rupture the soul Arifa Akbar Independent London the Blitz autumn 1940 As the bombs fall on the blacked out city ambulance driver Elinor Brooke races

from bomb sites to hospitals trying to save the lives of injured survivors working alongside former friend Kit Neville while her husband Paul works as an air raid warden As the bombing intensifies the constant risk of death makes all three of them reach out for quick consolation Old loves and obsessions re surface until Elinor is brought face to face with an almost impossible choice Writing about the Second World War for the first time Pat Barker brings the besieged and haunted city of London into electrifying life The Life Class trilogy Life Class Toby s Room Noonday

Pat Barker and the Mediation of Social Reality David F. Waterman, 2009 Pat Barker is one of the most compelling of the current generation of British novelists especially in her use of the novel as an instrument of social critique fashioning a literature which does not shy away from asking thorny questions refusing the doctrinaire of what goes without saying suspicious of simple answers In this critical study David Waterman examines questions of social representation in all of Pat Barker s novels published over the last twenty five years from Union Street 1982 to the recent Life Class 2007 especially the ways in which Barker encourages us to interrogate the reality created by such conventionalizing prescriptive representations in favor of a reality more accurately represented through a critical assessment of the uses and abuses of collective representations Book Jacket Wonder Tales in the Fiction of A. S. Byatt Alexandra Cheira, 2023-01-19 This volume provides sustained critical attention on Byatt s wonder tales both the stand alone tales and those which are embedded in the wider frame of a novel or novella In this light it examines Byatt s claim that her wonder tales are modern literary stories and they do play quite consciously with a postmodern creation and recreation of old forms through a revisitation of the wonder tale in a productive dialogue with tradition as an expanded recognition of this fertile creative critical dialogue with regards to the significance of the wonder tale in Byatt s fictional work The book evinces a fresh variety of conceptions and approaches to Byatt s wonder tales some spanning several tales and others focussing on a specific wonder tale all thoroughly observant of the nature and workings of the relationship between story or novel and genre or tale and theoretically informed by innovative critical approaches Two Against the Tide Ann Lazarsfeld-Jensen, 2024-07-01

When Charles Seligman invited his wife Brenda to share his tent in 1907 he sanctioned a professional place for female fieldworkers in anthropology Seligman was a groundbreaking pioneer of ethnographic work in Oceania and Africa He treated shellshocked soldiers he amassed museum collections and he fathered a generation of exceptional students Brenda his first student became a scholar in her own right Eighty years after his death the Seligman legacy was deleted from the institution he began Two Against the Tide explores how as wealthy Anglo Jews Charles and Brenda Seligman built a shared career through secret benevolence and silent endurance of hardship Re-reading Pat Barker Pat Wheeler, 2020-05-15

Re-reading Pat Barker brings together a number of scholars from across the world who explore in detail the work of one of Britain's most notable contemporary novelists The essays both acknowledge and engage with previous scholarship re-establishing Barker's eminence as a writer and adding to existing critical perspectives In the collection established Barker scholars return to her work re-reading her novels to offer fresh and innovative readings and other critics who have not previously published on Barker offer new insights into her body of work The contributors examine a number of thematic concerns including matrilineal heritage masculinity the body ways of seeing institutional and personal violence psychoanalysis and gender and class The essays in the collection explore the broader social and historical aspects of Barker's novels and the aesthetics and ethical issues in her work drawing our attention to the ways that she engages with the world gesturing towards new ways of seeing and to the possibilities of personal and political regeneration The collection shows there is still much to say about the novels and the ways in which we choose to read them The Popular & the Canonical David Johnson, 2005

This volume ranges from the Second World War to the postmodern considering issues of the popular and the competing criteria by which literature has been judged in the later twentieth century As well as tracing the transition from modernism to postmodernism the authors guide students through debates around the pleasures of the popular and the question of inter relations between mass and high cultures Drawing further upon issues of value and function raised in Aestheticism and Modernism Debating Twentieth Century Literature 1900-1960 they examine contemporary literary prizes and the activity of judgement involved in English Studies This text can be used alongside the other books in the series for a complete course on twentieth century literature or on its own as essential reading for students of mid to late twentieth century writing Texts examined in detail include du Maurier's Rebecca poetry by Ginsburg and O'Hara Dick's Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep Puig's Kiss of the Spiderwoman Beckett's Waiting for Godot Heaney's New Selected Poems 1966-1987 Gurnah's Paradise Barker's The Ghost Road
