The Poetics Of Space Rar:

Poetics of Place Dermot McCarthy, 1991 Ralph Gustafson's personal growth as a poet during a career which spans more than half a century in many ways reflects the development of modern Canadian poetry as a whole. A Poetics of Place provides the only available examination of the career of this pre-eminent Canadian poet as well as insightful new readings of almost all his poems. Hydrolith 2: Surrealist Research & Investigations Oyster Moon Press, 2013-08-12 Magazine Poetry Fiction Literary Nonfiction Art Translation This second issue of HYDROLITH is a continuation of what the first volume started which was and is to assemble a stimulating selection of exclusively recent work by groups and individuals of the international Surrealist movement to facilitate intellectual exchange and collaboration enabling us to concentrate the echoes of our commonalities as well as the shadows of our differences. In so doing this volume aspires to reduce all manner of distances that exist between us. All works in this book are in English while many of them are translations from the Dutch French Greek Portuguese Romanian Spanish and Turkish languages from the Preface. Domestic Space Janet Floyd, Inga Bryden, 1999 This volume takes forward the debate about 19th century domestic space drawing on economic history and literary criticism. To date studies of 19th century domestic space have discussed a feminized middle class sphere often using domestic guides and fictional representations of domesticity to generate their arguments. The Poetics of Space Gaston Bachelard, 1964 The classic book on how we experience intimate spaces. A magical book. A prism through which all worlds from literary creation to housework to aesthetics to carpentry take on enhanced and enchanted significances. Every reader of it will never see ordinary spaces in ordinary ways. Instead the reader will see with the soul of the eye the glint of Gaston Bachelard from the foreword by John R Stilgoe. 6473 4 15 00tx paperback. English Journal, 1988. Walter Pater's European Imagination Lene Østermark-Johansen, 2022 This is the first monograph that explores the work and legacy of Walter Pater from a European perspective. It offers an in-depth analysis of Pater's fictional imaginary portraits which trace the development of the European self over an extensive period of some two thousand years. Conviviality at the Crossroads Oscar Hemer, Maja Povržanović Frykman, Per-Markku Ristilampi, 2019-11-25 Conviviality has lately become a catchword not only in academia but also among political activists. This open access book discusses conviviality in relation to the adjoining concepts cosmopolitanism and creolisation. The urgency of today's global predicament is not only an argument for the revival of all three concepts but also a reason to bring them into dialogue. Ivan Illich envisioned a post-industrial convivial society of autonomous individuals and primary groups. Illich 1973 which resembles present day manifestations of convivialism. Paul Gilroy refashioned conviviality as a substitute for cosmopolitanism denoting an ability to be at ease in contexts of diversity. Gilroy 2004. Rather than replacing one concept with the other the fourteen contributors to this book seek to explore the interconnections commonalities and differences between them suggesting that creolisation is a necessary complement to the already intertwined concepts of conviviality and cosmopolitanism. Although this volume takes northern Europe as its focus the contributors take care to put each situation in historical and global contexts in the interests of moving beyond the binary thinking that prevails in terms of methodologies analytical concepts and political implementations

American Homo Jeffrey Escoffier,2018-10-02 American Homo offers a sweeping interpretation of the political cultural and economic struggles of lesbian gay and bisexual people to reveal how sexual minorities have challenged and changed American society These provocative essays by long time activist writer and theorist Jeffrey Escoffier tracks the lesbian and gay movements across the contested terrain of American political life Starting from an urban subculture created by stigmatized and invisible men and women LGBT movements have had to negotiate the historical tension between the homoeroticism that courses through American culture and virulent outbreaks of homophobic populism Escoffier explores how every new success whether it s civil rights marriage or cultural recognition also enables new disciplinary and normalizing forms of domination and why only the active exercise of democratic rights and participation in radical coalitions allows LGBT people to sustain both the benefits of community and the freedom of sexual perversity Governing Children, Families and Education M. Bloch,Thomas S.

Galleria d'arte moderna, 2000 Is the spirit a mysterious internal force or a religious ideal Is it a tangible reality or a magical construct This text attempts to answer these questions by proposing a new interpretation of the work of modern and contemporary European artists Phenomenology, New Materialism, and Advances In the Pulsatile Imaginary Nicoletta Isar, 2024-03-12 Phenomenology New Materialism and Advances In the Pulsatile Imaginary Rites Of Disimagination brings together scholars from art history and image theory literary studies and philosophy Chapters of this volume engage with the overarching theme of imagination as a pulsatile force embedded in words images and all imaginative modes of instantiation of the work of art in their elemental aspects expressed in visual arts and literature as well as bodily schemata of choreographic and musical performances The papers employ contrasting and complementing methods from literary studies and image theory especially phenomenology and new materialism such as G Bachelard and M Merleau Ponty G Bataille J Kristeva P Lacoue Labarthe and J Sallis G Didi Huberman H Belting and A Warburg J Bennett and Jason M Wirth as well as performance studies Chapters in this volume inquire into the imaginative forces that disrupt and disinherit the traditional habits of imagination to create pulsatile imaginaries i e a dynamic process of emergence resurgence of image manifested in the act of creation and in perception This process does not properly imply a destruction of image but rather a withdrawal of image from the realm of representation to give way to new images and new imaginative experiences The newly coined term rite of disimagination points out to this operation consecutively implying imagining and disimagining that both denies as well as validates image it valorizes matter The affirmation of the materiality of image is the re incarnation of image Lex Populi William P. MacNeil, 2007 This is a book about jurisprudence or legal philosophy The legal philosophical texts under consideration are to say the least unorthodox Tolkien Buffy the Vampire Slayer Harry Potter Million Dollar Baby and other cultural products are all referenced as exemplary instances of what the author calls lex populi people s or pop law There more than anywhere else will one find the leading issues of legal philosophy These issues however are heavily coded for few of these pop cultural texts announce themselves as expressly legal Nonetheless Lex Populi reads these texts jurisprudentially that is with an eye to their hidden legal philosophical meanings enabling connections such as Tolkien s Ring as Kelsen s grundnorm vampire slaying as legal language s semiosis Hogwarts as substantively unjust and a seriously injured young woman as termination s rights bearer In so doing Lex Populi attempts not only a jurisprudential reading of popular culture but a popular rereading of jurisprudence removing it from the legal experts in order to restore it to the public at large a lex populi by and for the people Empty Houses David Kurnick, 2011-12-05 According to the dominant tradition of literary criticism the novel is the form par excellence of the private individual Empty Houses challenges this consensus by reexamining the genre s development from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century and exploring what has until now seemed an anomaly the frustrated theatrical ambitions of major novelists Offering new interpretations of the careers of William Makepeace Thackeray George Eliot Henry James James Joyce and James Baldwin writers known for mapping ever narrower interior geographies this book argues that the genre's inward looking tendency has been misunderstood Delving into the critical role of the theater in the origins of the novel of interiority David Kurnick reinterprets the novel as a record of dissatisfaction with inwardness and an injunction to rethink human identity in radically collective and social terms Exploring neglected texts in order to reread canonical ones Kurnick shows that the theatrical ambitions of major novelists had crucial formal and ideological effects on their masterworks Investigating a key stretch of each of these novelistic careers he establishes the theatrical genealogy of some of the signal techniques of narrative interiority In the process he illustrates how the novel is marked by a hunger for palpable collectivity and argues that the genre's discontents have been a shaping force in its evolution A groundbreaking rereading of the novel Empty Houses provides new ways to consider the novelistic imagination     Pensamento em Forma

Juhani Pallasmaa, 2012-05-21 A collection of essays on the phenomenology of architecture by Juhani Pallasmaa This edition is bilingual in portuguese and english
