The Red House Mystery:

The Red House Mystery A. A. Milne, 2015-01-19 In the drowsy heat of the summer afternoon the Red House was taking its siesta There was a lazy murmur of bees in the flower borders a gentle cooing of pigeons in the tops of the elms From distant lawns came the whir of a mowing machine that most restful of all country sounds making ease the sweeter in that it is taken while others are working It was the hour when even those whose business it is to attend to the wants of others have a moment or two for themselves In the housekeeper's room Audrey Stevens the pretty parlour maid re-trimmed her best hat and talked idly to her aunt the cook housekeeper of Mr Mark Ablett's bachelor home
