The Removers A Memoir:

The Removers Andrew Meredith, 2015-07-14 A literature professor Andrew Meredith's father was fired after unspecified allegations of sexual misconduct. It's a transgression he cannot forgive for it brought about long lasting familial despair. He treads water stuck in a kind of suspended adolescence falling in and out of school moving blindly from one half hearted relationship to the next. Broke Andrew moves back home to his childhood neighborhood and takes a job alongside his father as a remover, the name for those unseen, unsung workers who take away the bodies of those who die at home and begins to see his father not through the lens of a wronged and resentful child but as a sympathetic imperfect man who loves his family despite his flaws. South African Autobiography as Subjective History Lena Englund, 2021-09-14 This book examines 21st century South African autobiographical writing that addresses the nation's socio-political realities both past and present. The texts in focus represent and depict a South Africa caught in the midst of contradictory and competing images of the Rainbow Nation. Arguing that recent memoirs question and criticize the illusion of a united nation, the study shows how these texts reveal the flaws and shortcomings not only of the apartheid past but of contemporary South Africa. It encompasses a broad range of autobiographical works largely published since 2009 that engage with South Africa's past, present and future. At its centre is the quest for space and belonging and this book investigates who can comfortably belong in South Africa in its post-apartheid, post-Truth and Reconciliation, post-Mbeki and post-Zuma state.

Memoir of Shadows Solace Darren Hollinshead, 2011-03-14 The final entry in the series covered by Jason Sacis. His attempts to end the Lotarian war had cost him more than he would've liked. His final entry covers his time in the Expanse. The space between our galaxies which had never been explored by any human. His only problem is lacking the ability to return home. The Dauntarians who are his allies are their only hope. In the time that passes the crew of the station and Relay construction site start to act strange. Their attitudes worsen and Jason begins to see something familiar about it. He feels compelled to try and solve the mystery behind everyone's behaviour. In his attempts he faces mass hallucinations and chaos. In this madness now gripping his friends and loved ones he finds a signal in space. This leads him to the Dauntarian stronghold Achilles. Believing that the danger came from here he boards to end it. Little to his knowledge the greatest creation of those he calls allies lies in wait and also his greatest challenge.

Sex, Drugs and Rock 'n' Roll – Memoir of a Police Doctor Wesley Boff, 2022-11-30 I can claim to have enjoyed a satisfying and fulfilling medical career. British General Practice was the jewel in the NHS crown and I was a Family Doctor during its heyday before the Government decided to take control and tell the doctors how to do their job, demoralize the profession and seriously compromise patient care, destroying the respect between patients and their doctors and turning a vocation into a chore. I was fortunate that I began my career at the right time and got out at the right time. My almost thirty years working with the local police force was hard work but once I'd seen a few corpses and gained the respect of the local constabulary I enjoyed the work immensely even if I was so often denied a good night's sleep. The case load varied from the gruesome to the amusing but looking back it was never boring Sex Drugs and Rock n Roll Memoir of a Police Doctor is an account of my experience as a Forensic Physician a facet of the rich tapestry of medical practice that Joe Public never realized existed

Truths Helena de Bres, 2021-09-10 From social media to the return of the personal essay to the rise of autofiction it seems we inhabit an era of unprecedented self display But self display in its literary form the memoir has been around for ages always freighted with formal and philosophical complexity from Augustine's Confessions on In this book philosopher Helena de Bres tackles the philosophy of memoir What is memoir Is all memoir really fiction Should memoirists aim to tell the truth What do memoirists owe the people they write about And finally Why write a memoir at all

Where Two Worlds Touch

River Faire, 2023-12-04 2024 IBPA Benjamin Franklin Award winner Independent Book Publishers Association award of excellence Editor's Pick BookLife Reviews by Publishers Weekly Indie Books We Love selection LoveReading The UK's Leading Book Recommendation Website After the fairy tale of Happily Ever After ends in heartbreak what then From award winning author River Faire comes an inspiring account of second chances healing inexplicable magic and following the soul's compass River an alternative healer and Paris trained chef a decidedly reluctant mystic returns to England from America to help his ex partner back from the brink of death Stepping into a London life he left behind haunted by ghosts he finds himself on an unanticipated journey of the heart When the two men relocate to the English countryside he discovers more than a charming pastoral landscape he unexpectedly glimpses the fabric of life itself With disarming honesty and a searching lyrical voice Where Two Worlds Touch is a transcendent narrative about navigating the intricacies of the human heart no matter whom we love An invitation to say yes to uncertainty and vulnerability to trust the unknowable mystery while seeking the place we belong and what is uniquely ours to bring A genre defying memoir one part love story one part celebration of the Literature Criticism from 1400 to 1800, 2007 Eggs to Lay, Chickens to Hatch Chris van Wyk, 2010-07-01 Agnes the Van Wyks Zulu housekeeper had a special friendship with young Chris in the late sixties to early seventies He would defend her whenever she came to work with a hangover on a Monday morning and made a mess of the cleaning In turn Agnes never told on Chris when he played truant from school As the years passed the two grew closer swapping stories about coloureds and Zulus life in Riverlea and Soweto pass laws politics and falling in love She taught him to count in Zulu and he promised to teach her to read in English Whenever the clock ran against her Agnes would stop almost in mid sentence grab a broom or cloth and declare I have to rush I have eggs to lay chickens to hatch What an odd ungrammatical thing to say Chris often mused But many years later he played a CD by Louis Jordan a 1940s American jazz singer and it all became clear Eggs to lay chickens to hatch forthcoming end April 2010 is Chris van Wyk s second childhood memoir about growing up in Riverlea and his colourful interactions with the men and women who lived the African proverb that it takes a village to raise a child But mostly it is the story of a wonderful friendship between a young coloured boy and a Zulu woman Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c, 1858 The All-American Industrial Motel Doug Crandell, 2007-03 This volatile memoir from Doug Crandell weaves a darkly comic and thoroughly heartbreaking coming of age tale set in 1990 as the author is about to graduate from college With very few job prospects and in need of tuition money he joins his father working at a ceiling tile factory in tiny Lagro Indiana As his father moves headlong into a midlife crisis complete with a bad toupee and a penchant for drinking on the job Crandell s mother struggles with depression and talks in the third person as she manages a fast food joint where she compels her crew to dress in homemade costumes As the author struggles to finish his degree he also fights the urge to stay where he is and end up a lifer like his father But before long the monotonous work takes its toll on Crandell making him realize just how similar he and his dad are From their joint substance abuse to their feelings about the coworkers they watch buried from asbestosis the Crandell men struggle to find a way to communicate This powerful book explores themes of modern manhood hope and the power of labor to bring together workers families and even macho men The Writers Directory, 1990 Hindu Tribes and Castes Matthew A. Sherring, 1881 Unbecoming a Priest Anthony Bartlett, 2023-06-02 Tony Bartlett s story is thrillingly upside down Rather than the classic conversion narrative of escaping the world to dedicate your life to God it is about escaping a collapsing institutional order to discover a different self and learning to be in the world An extraordinary account with pivotal themes of sexuality trauma revolution and relationship Unbecoming a Priest spans eras classes continents cities wars iconic figures spiritualities and above all divergent modes of Christian being in the world From London to Rome from Europe to Latin America journeying with exceptional fellow pilgrims like Mother Teresa Pedro Casaldaliga Carlo Carretto it is a story of pain and messiness becoming ultimately one of joy life and meaning Subtly but surely the journey is also gospel inspired where the figure of Jesus takes on a provocative anarchic role helping in the overturning of sacrificial clichés and systems Inevitably at stake is the meaning of priesthood itself either propping up an eternal order amidst history's escalating crisis or seeking with others the germ of authentic new human becoming and hope Here is the inescapable drama and contemporary truth of unbecoming a priest
