The Role Of The Artist In Contemporary Art:

The Role of the Artist in Contemporary Art Chad Dawkins, 2014-12-26 In this text Chad Dawkins examines the structure and armatures which define the contours of the contemporary art world its methodologies and practices and examines the assumptions and societal rationale behind what it means to perform the role of Artist publicly Relying on history self comparison and confusion contemporary artists find themselves looking farther out into an ever expanding field of art Seeking to redefine their role artists work via recontextualization to produce evidence of their existence What are the implications historically professionally and aesthetically of the trend to recontextualize every creative possibility The Road to Parnassus: Artist Strategies in Contemporary Art Diego Mantoan, 2020-10-06 How can one become a successful artist Where should one start a career in the art world What are useful strategies to achieve recognition in the art system Such questions hoard in students minds ever since entering art school and they probably chase every kind of art professional who is at an early career stage The Road to Parnassus tries to understand what makes a good start in today s art world who are influential players in the field and which strategies might apply The swift career ascension of Glasgow artist Douglas Gordon one of today s leading visual artists and of the broader YBA generation that rose into worldwide prominence in the 1990s Damien Hirst and Sarah Lucas among the best known serves as a convenient case to analyse contemporary artist strategies This book takes a multidisciplinary approach spanning from traditional art history to sociology and economics pursuing the reconstruction of the field of forces in art as intended by French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu Compared to previous publications on art system dynamics such as Thompson s The 12 Million Stuffed Shark this book offers an enhanced understanding of the factors that allow a young artist to enter the arena of contemporary art The present research should help uncover the art system logic which appears enigmatic to non experts revealing that artists are aware they need to consider global trends beat competitors and meet the demands of dealers collectors curators and museums This book furthers existing contributions on the YBAs for example Stallabrass High Art Lite offering innovative conclusions on recent British art such as on the duality between London and Glasgow the gender opposition among emerging artists and the predominance of resourceful authors Contemporary Art Alexander Dumbadze, Suzanne Hudson, 2012-12-06 An engaging account of today s contemporary art world that features original articles by leading international art historians critics curators and artists introducing varied perspectives on the most important debates and discussions happening around the world Features a collection of all new essays organized around fourteen specific themes chosen to reflect the latest debates in contemporary art since 1989 Each topic is prefaced by an introduction on current discussions in the field and investigated by three essays each shedding light on the subject in new and contrasting ways Topics include globalization formalism technology participation agency biennials activism fundamentalism judgment markets art schools and scholarship International in scope bringing together over forty of the most important voices in the field including Sof a Hernandez Chong

Cuy David Joselit Michelle Kuo Raqs Media Collective and Jan Verwoert A stimulating guide that will encourage polemical interventions and foster critical dialogue among both students and art aficionados Shifting Perspective in Contemporary Art Vera Catherine McEvoy, 2012-03 In an uncertain economic climate the figure of the artist is an important model for innovative and creative advancement Through art we are encouraged to question our expectations impressions and assumptions about art everyday objects and life itself Contemporary artists have the potential to hold a magnifying glass to the gaps in our community highlighting social economic and cultural discrepancies and in some cases offer creative alternative solutions Is it realistic for artists to think that they can help encourage or implement social change This work provides an analysis of some distinctly different culturally creative projects which involve specific sections of society in the creative process It explores how artists inventively create artworks or experiences that encourage engagement and dialogue that can subsequently challenge our current ways of thinking This study sheds light on creative exchange and its social impact It should be particularly useful to professionals and students interested in art s autonomy and its potential

Theories and Documents of Contemporary Art Kristine Stiles, Peter Selz, 2012-09-25 An essential text in the field of contemporary art history it has now been updated to represent 30 countries and over 100 new artists The internationalism evident in this revised edition reflects the growing interest in contemporary art throughout the world from the U S and Europe to the Middle East Asia Africa Latin America and Australia Convergence of Contemporary Art, Visual Culture, and Global Civic Engagement Shin, Ryan, 2016-11-29 Art is a multi faceted part of human society and often is used for more than purely aesthetic purposes When used as a narrative on modern society art can actively engage citizens in cultural and pedagogical discussions Convergence of Contemporary Art Visual Culture and Global Civic Engagement is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly material on the relationship between popular media art and visual culture analyzing how this intersection promotes global pedagogy and learning Highlighting relevant perspectives from both international and community levels this book is ideally designed for professionals upper level students researchers and academics interested in the role of art in global learning Decolonial Aesthetics of Blackness in Contemporary Art Nkosinkulu, Zingisa, 2024-09-13 Decolonial aesthetics of Blackness in contemporary art challenge and redefine traditional narratives offering a profound critique of historical and ongoing injustices This approach emphasizes the reclamation and celebration of Black cultural identities through innovative artistic expressions that resist colonialist frameworks and oppressive stereotypes By emphasizing the experiences and perspectives of Black artists decolonial aesthetics challenge the power structures presented in art history and highlight the significance of autonomy representation and authenticity To advance this dialogue it is crucial to support and engage with Black artists and their work ensuring that their voices are amplified and their contributions are recognized within art discourse Decolonial Aesthetics of Blackness in Contemporary Art focuses on the generative audio and visual inscription of blackness as an offering of life and beauty in contemporary art It discusses the concept of blackness related to modernity decolonial aesthetics and ontology of black life and beauty This book covers topics such as decolonization visual art and sociology and is a useful resource for art historians visual artists sociologists academicians scientists and researchers

The Museum Establishment and Contemporary Art Rebecca J. DeRoo, 2006-01-09 This book provides an in depth account of the protests that shook France in 1968 and which served as a catalyst to a radical reconsideration of artistic practice that has shaped both art and museum exhibitions up to the present Rebecca DeRoo examines how issues of historical and personal memory the separation of public and private domains and the ordinary objects of everyday life emerged as central concerns for museums and for artists as both struggled to respond to the protests She argues that the responses of the museums were only partially faithful to the aims of the activist movements Museums in fact often misunderstood and misrepresented the work of artists that was exhibited as a means of addressing these concerns Analyzing how museums and critics did and did not address the aims of the protests DeRoo highlights the issues relevant to the politics of the public display of art that have been central to artistic representation in France as well as in North America

The Key Issues Concerning Contemporary Art Gary Willis, 2010 This thesis argues that the contemporary artist's objective is the production of new social space and the institution of new cultural knowledge It does this by drawing an unexpected parallel between the social and political expectations facing the contemporary artist and the deepest philosophic conception of the artist's function It traces art's historical trajectory from 20th century modernism post modernism to post colonialism from a broad range of critical theoretical and curatorial perspectives

Contemporary Art in the Post-Yugoslav Space Jonathan Blackwood, Jasmina Tumbas, 2025-10-20 This edited volume is centered on the production discussion and consumption of contemporary art in the post Yugoslav space now Authors in this volume demonstrate how and why contemporary art discourses have continued to overcome chronic difficulties in local cultural economies since the dissolution of the common federal space of socialist Yugoslavia This book focuses on socialist Yugoslavia's prevailing cultural legacies of anti fascism non alignment queer and feminist movements and socially engaged art which inform and shape contemporary critiques of neoliberal capitalist conditions in the arts Chapters are rooted in ongoing global challenges in contemporary art a universal exhaustion through over work on the part of the artist art worker and over stimulation the audience the structural weakness of contemporary art as a set of institutional activities and the instrumentalization of art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history contemporary art gender studies Slavic studies politics and post conflict studies

Alchemy in Contemporary Art Urszula Szulakowska, 2017-07-05 Alchemy in Contemporary Art analyzes the manner in which twentieth century artists beginning with French Surrealists of the 1920s have appropriated concepts and imagery from the western alchemical tradition This study examines artistic production from c 1920 to the present with an emphasis on the 1970s to 2000 discussing familiar names such as Andre Breton Salvador Dali Yves Klein Joseph Beuys and Anselm Kiefer as well as many little known artists of the later twentieth century It provides a critical overview of the alchemical tradition in twentieth century art and of the use of occultist imagery as a code for political discourse and polemical engagement The study is the first to examine the influence of alchemy and the Surrealist tradition on Australian as well as on Eastern European and Mexican art In addition the text considers the manner in which women artists such as Leonora Carrington Remedios Varo and Rebecca Horn have critically revised the traditional sexist imagery of alchemy and occultism for their own feminist purposes
