The Pleasure Of Eliza Lynch:

The Pleasure of Eliza Lynch Anne Enright, 2010-12-23 Wonderfully written a fascinating episode which never loses its momentum or its sharpness of focus The Times Beautiful Irishwoman Eliza Lynch became briefly in the 1860s the richest woman in the world We first encounter her in Paris in bed with Francisco Solano Lopez heir to the untold wealth of Paraguay The fruit of their congress will be extraordinary and will send her across the Atlantic on a regal voyage to claim her glorious future in Asunci n The Pleasure of Eliza Lynch is a bold and brilliantly achieved novel about sex beauty and corruption at the end of the old world Irish Literature Patricia Coughlan, Tina O'Toole, 2008 Feminist perspectives on Irish literature

Pleasures of Eliza Lynch Proof Anne Enright, 2002-09-19 Local Natures, Global Responsibilities Laurenz Volkmann, 2010 Laurenz Volkmann is Professor of EFL Teaching at Friedrich Schiller University Jena where Nancy Grimm and Katrin Thomson also teach Ines Detmers is a lecturer in English literature at the Technical University of Chemnitz Book Jacket The Irish Expatriate Novel in Late Capitalist Globalization Joe Cleary, Joseph N. Cleary, 2021-11-11 The first monograph length study of Irish expatriate fiction in an era of transition from American to East Asian global hegemony

Irish Literature in the Celtic Tiger Years 1990 to 2008 Susan Cahill, 2011-06-09 When Irish culture and economics underwent rapid changes during the Celtic Tiger Years Anne Enright Colum McCann and il s N Dhuibhne began writing Now that period of Irish history has closed this study uncovers how their writing captured that unique historical moment By showing how N Dhuibhne s novels act as considered arguments against attempts to disavow the past how McCann s protagonists come to terms with their history and how Enright s fiction explores connections and relationships with the female body Susan Cahill s study pinpoints common concerns for contemporary Irish writers the relationship between the body memory and history between generations and between past and present Cahill is able to raise wider questions about Irish culture by looking specifically at how writers engage with the body In exploring the writers concern with embodied histories related questions concerning gender race and Irishness are brought to the fore Such interrogations of corporeality alongside history are imperative making this a significant contribution to ongoing debates of feminist theory in Irish Studies

Irish Women Writers Elke D'hoker, 2010 After a decade in which women writers have gradually been given more recognition in the study of Irish literature this collection proposes a reappraisal of Irish women s writing by inviting dialogues with new or hitherto marginalised critical frameworks as well as with foreign and transnational literary traditions Several essays explore how Irish women writers engaged with European themes and traditions through the genres of travel writing the historical novel the monologue and the fairy tale Other contributions are concerned with the British context in which some texts were published and argue for the existence of Irish inflections of phenomena such as the New Woman suffragism or vegetarianism Further chapters emphasise the transnational character of Irish women s writing by applying continental theory and French feminist thinking to various texts in other chapters new developments in theory are applied to

Irish texts for the first time Casting the efforts of Irish women in a new light the collection also includes explorations of the work of neglected or emerging authors who have remained comparatively ignored by Irish literary criticism Irish Feminist Futures Claire Bracken, 2016-02-12 This book is about the future Ireland's future and feminism's future approached from a moment that has recently passed The Celtic Tiger circa 1995-2008 was a time of extraordinary and radical change in which Ireland's economic demographic and social structures underwent significant alteration Conceptions of the future are powerfully prevalent in women's cultural production in the Tiger era where it surfaces as a form of temporality that is open to surprise change and the unknown Examining a range of literary and filmic texts Irish Feminist Futures analyzes how futurity structures representations of the feminine self in women's cultural practice Relationally connected and affectively open these representations of self enable sustained engagements with questions of gender race sexuality and class as they pertain to the material social and cultural realities of Celtic Tiger Ireland This book will appeal to students and scholars of Irish studies Irish feminist criticism sociology cultural studies literature women's studies gender studies neo-materialist and feminist theories The Routledge Companion to Biofiction Lucia Boldrini, Laura Cernat, Alexandre Gefen, Michael Lackey, 2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Biofiction provides readers with the history origins and evolution of this popular genre Featuring contributions from leading scholars in the field this authoritative collection foregrounds analyses of biofiction's core foundations through contemporary debates The volume is organized into seven sections Histories of biofiction Theoretical reflections on biofiction Biofiction national models and trans-national constructions Biofiction as political intervention Biofictional case studies Activating lives early modern women and Authorial reflections This groundbreaking collection features works that refine our understanding of the genesis and evolution of biofiction theorize its unique and distinctive modes of signifying reflect on its value for the future and social justice chart new approaches for doing biofictional analysis and offer insights from authors of biofiction into the creative process This is the first collection to bring together the two main schools of interpreting biofiction the Francophone and Anglophone while also shedding light on biofictions in many languages from or about many continents and offering a platform to established and new voices alike It will be essential reading for students as well as advanced scholars interested in biographical fiction Women and Exile in Contemporary Irish Fiction Ellen McWilliams, 2013-04-09 Women and Exile in Contemporary Irish Fiction examines how contemporary Irish authors have taken up the history of the Irish woman migrant It situates these writers' work in relation to larger discourses of exile in the Irish literary tradition and examines how they engage with the complex history of Irish emigration Understanding Anne Enright Ana-Karina Schneider, 2020-07-28 Addressed to both literary scholars and the general reader Understanding Anne Enright is an introduction to the novels and stories of one of the most original and engaging contemporary Irish writers It analyses developments in Enright's writing comparing the evolution of themes and forms from one book to another contextualising her fiction and interrogating the impact of concepts such as postmodernism post feminism and post nationalism on the writing and reading of her work It particularly follows the evolution of Enright's treatment of the corporeality of women's experiences and its correlation with the embodied language of her fiction Thus this book shows how Enright's writing participates in the latest thematic and formal trends not only of Irish or British but also of Western literature

The American Biographical Novel Michael Lackey, 2016-04-07 Before the 1970s there were only a few acclaimed biographical novels But starting in the 1980s there was a veritable explosion of this genre of fiction leading to the publication of spectacular biographical novels about figures as varied as Abraham Lincoln Ludwig Wittgenstein Friedrich Nietzsche Emily Dickinson Virginia Woolf Henry James and Marilyn Monroe just to mention a notable few This publication frenzy culminated in 1999 when two biographical novels Michael Cunningham's The Hours and Russell Banks' Cloudsplitter were nominated for the Pulitzer Prize and Cunningham's novel won the award In The American Biographical Novel Michael Lackey charts the shifts in intellectual history that made the biographical novel acceptable to the literary establishment and popular with the general reading public More specifically Lackey clarifies the origin and evolution of this genre of fiction specifies the kind of truth it communicates provides a framework for identifying how this genre uniquely engages the political and demonstrates how it gives readers new access to history

Food Cultures across Time Anca-Luminița Iancu, Alexandra Mitrea, 2021-08-23 This volume explores the intricacies and complexities of food and maps food cultures and food routes in fiction by analysing consumption related matters in the literary and cultural endeavours of authors from countries as diverse as Ireland Romania the UK and the USA The topics addressed in this vibrant inter disciplinary collection of essays open up questions for further studies and explorations on the interconnections between food fiction and culture

Eliza Lynch Michael Lillis, Ronan Fanning, 2009-09-11 Escaping a desperate marriage at the age of 20 Eliza Lynch fled Ireland to Paris where her extraordinary beauty and intelligence won the attention of the soon to be dictator of Paraguay Francisco Solano López Although the couple never married Eliza bore him seven children and was seen as the queen of Paraguay adored by the public and admired for her glamour and sophistication But Eliza and Francisco's love was damned with the outbreak of the infamous War of the Triple Alliance 1864-70 the bloodiest in South America's history This is a unique love story chronicling a romance that endured a desperate turn of fortunes taking them from a life of royalty to a life on the run and culminating with the now iconic image of Lynch burying both López and their eldest son in a shallow grave with her bare hands after they had been killed by Brazilian troops Dubbed The Irish Evita Eliza Lynch born in Charleville County Cork was the most famous woman in all of South America in the nineteenth century Her reputation was destroyed by the opposition in the wake of the War of the Triple Alliance but in this story of wealth war love loyalty loss and above all survival Eliza is revealed as a woman who showed extraordinary courage in the face a series of unspeakable horrors The authors have discovered the truth about Eliza's Irish origins and the cruel deception of her marriage at the age of sixteen to a duplicitous French Army officer They reconstruct the systematic invention of her image as a prostitute around her first meeting with

Solano Lopez in Paris in 1854 Eliza Lynch was a courageous woman who was adored by the ordinary women of Paraguay and who tried to help many victims of an appalling war The paranoid Lopez on discovering that his family and colleagues had been conspiring against him trusted only Eliza and their relationship became a love story of the damned The book reveals why the Emperor of Brazil against the advice of his generals pursued Lopez to his death in 1870 Eliza buried him and their eldest son in the jungle with her bare hands Eliza defied her enemies in a pamphlet she published in 1875 here translated for the first time when she returned to face her enemies in Paraguay The authors exclusive access to the unpublished journals of Eliza's daughter in law shows how scurrilous writers in South America Britain and the US finally broke her spirit and how she died a burnt out case in Paris in 1886 In 1961 a later dictator General Stroessner declared her the national heroine of Paraguay This book restores her to her rightful place among the most remarkable and brave women in modern history Now a subject of a new Irish documentary by Alan Gilson the film that helps rescue one of the great Irish lives of the 19th century from obscurity while opening a fascinating window onto what is perhaps South America's least known country and the apocalyptic conflagration that still haunts its society Books Ireland, 2002 Exoticizing the Past in Contemporary Neo-Historical Fiction E. Rousselot, 2014-11-13 This collection of essays is dedicated to examining the recent literary phenomenon of the neo historical novel a sub genre of contemporary historical fiction which critically re imagines specific periods of history Irish University Review, 2005 Narrative Strategies in the Reconstruction of History Ana Fernandes, 2018-12-14 This book enquires into the processes by which certain contemporary women pay testimony to history It examines the reasons why they recreate the past whether political social or artistic and the strategies employed to establish a comparison with the present The focus is on authors such as A S Byatt Pat Barker Anne Enright Tracy Chevalier and Ali Smith The volume demonstrates and discusses parallels shifts and transformations in the writing of these authors and in the rewriting of history in contemporary fiction by women authors Ireland, the Irish, and the Rise of Biofiction Michael Lackey, 2021-11-04 Biofiction is literature that names its protagonist after an actual historical figure and it has become a dominant literary form over the last 35 years What has not yet been scholarly acknowledged or documented is that the Irish played a crucial role in the origins evolution rise and now dominance of biofiction Michael Lackey first examines the groundbreaking biofictions that Oscar Wilde and George Moore authored in the late 19th and early 20th centuries as well as the best biographical novels about Wilde by Peter Ackroyd and Colm Tóibín He then focuses on contemporary authors of biofiction Sabina Murray Graham Shelby Anne Enright and Mario Vargas Llosa who Lackey has interviewed for this work who use the lives of prominent Irish figures Roger Casement and Eliza Lynch to explore the challenges of seizing and securing a life promoting form of agency within a colonial and patriarchal context In conclusion Lackey briefly analyzes biographical novels by Peter Carey and Mary Morrissy to illustrate why agency is of central importance for the Irish and why that focus mandated the rise of the biographical novel a literary form that mirrors the constructed Irish interior

Encyclopedia of British Writers, 1800 to the Present George Stade, Karen Karbiener, 2010-05-12 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide biographical and critical information on major and lesser known nineteenth and twentieth century British writers and includes articles on key schools of literature and genres
