The Pre-Raphaelite Language of Flowers Debra N. Mancoff, 2019-02-12 Containing a stunning array of romantic paintings this book brings together two important aspects of Victorian culture the Pre Raphaelite movement and the meaning of flowers Few artistic movements capture classic notions of beauty as romantically as the Pre Raphaelites a group of nineteenth century painters and poets who aimed to revive the purer art of the late medieval period In this beautiful volume Debra N Mancoff an expert on Pre Raphaelite art and the floral lexicon presents forty breathtaking works which illuminate the meaning of flowers in all aspects of Victorian culture She offers brief commentaries on individual paintings as well as biographies of the period s leading artists and their models This book is both a romantic keepsake as well as a captivating introduction to an artistic movement

Christina Rossetti Emma Mason, 2018 Christina Rossetti 1830 94 is regarded as one of the greatest Christian poets to write in English While Rossetti has firmly secured her place in the canon her religious poetry was for a long time either overlooked or considered evidence of a melancholic disposition burdened by faith Recent scholarship has redressed reductive readings of Christian theology as repressive by rethinking it as a form of compassionate politics This shift has enabled new readings of Rossetti s work not simply as a body of significant nineteenth century devotional literature but also as a marker of religion s relevance to modern concerns through its reflections on science and materialism as well as spirituality and mysticism Emma Mason offers a compelling study of Christina Rossetti arguing that her poetry diaries letters and devotional commentaries are engaged with both contemporary theological debate and an emergent ecological agenda In chapters on the Catholic Revival Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood contemporary debates on plant and animal being and the relationship between grace and apocalypse Mason reads Rossetti s theology as an argument for spiritual materialism and ecological transformation She ultimately suggests that Rossetti s life and work captures the experience of faith as one of loving intimacy with the minutiae of creation a divine body in which all things material and immaterial human and nonhuman divine and embodied are interconnected
