Writing and Seeing Rui Manuel G. de Carvalho Homem, Maria de Fátima Lambert, 2006 The essays in this volume are informed by a variety of theoretical assumptions and of critical methodologies but they all share an interest in the intersections of word and image in a variety of media This unifying rationale secures the present collection's central position in the current critical context defined as it predominantly is by ways of reading that are based on a relational nexus The intertextual the intermedial the intersemiotic are indeed foregrounded and combined in these essays conceptually as much as in the critical practices favoured by the various contributions Studies of literature in its relation to pictorial genres enjoy a relative prominence in the volume but the range of media and of approaches considered is broad enough to include photography film video television comic strips animated film public art material culture The backgrounds of contributors are likewise diverse culturally academically linguistically The volume combines contributions by prominent scholars and critics with essays by younger scholars from a variety of backgrounds The resulting plurality of perspective is indeed a source of new insights into the relations between writing and seeing and it contributes to making this collection an exciting new contribution to word and image studies

Figures of Authority in Nineteenth-Century Ireland Raphaël Ingelbien, Susan Galavan, 2020-11-25 This interdisciplinary collection investigates the forms that authority assumed in nineteenth century Ireland the relations they bore to international redefinitions of authority and Irish contributions to the reshaping of authority in the modern age At a time when age old sources of social political spiritual and cultural authority were eroded in the Western world Ireland witnessed both the restoration of older forms of authority and the rise of figures who defined new models of authority in a democratic age Using new comparative perspectives as well as archival resources in a wide range of fields the essays gathered here show how new authorities were embodied in emerging types of politicians clerics and professionals and in material extensions of their power in visual oral and print cultures These analyses often eerily echo twenty first century debates about populism suspicion of scholarly and intellectual expertise and the role of new technologies and forms of association in contesting and recreating authority Several contributions highlight the role of emotion in the way authority was deployed by figures ranging from Daniel O Connell to W B Yeats foreshadowing the perceived rise of emotional politics in our own age This volume demonstrates that many contested forms of authority that now look traditional emerged from nineteenth century crises and developments as did the challenges that undermine authority CONTRIBUTORS Marguerite Corporaal Patrick Geoghegan Patrick Maume Michelle McCann Caroline M McGee James H Murphy Shane Nagle Niamh NicGhabhann Richard Parfitt Colleen M Thomas Tom Walker The BCCI Affair: May 14, 1992 United States.
