The Rebel Angels* Robertson Davies,1981 The Collar Sue Sorensen,2014-06-11 Combining thematic analysis and stimulating close readings The Collar is a wide ranging study of the many ways heroic or comic shrewd or dastardly Christian ministers have been represented in literature and film Since all Christians are expected to be involved in ministry of some type the assumptions of secular culture about ministers affect more than just clergy Ranging across several nations particularly the U S Britain and Canada denominations and centuries The Collar aims to encourage creative and faithful responses to the challenges of Christian leadership and to provoke awareness of the times when leadership expectations become too extreme Using the framework of novels plays TV and movies to make inquiries about pastoral passion frustration and fallibility Sue Sorensen s well informed sprightly and perceptive book will be helpful to pastors parishioners those interested in practical theology and anyone who enjoys evocative literature and film A Literary Cavalcade-II Robert A. enormous emotional elephants leaders must learn how to sing to elephants even as they speak to riders In The Irrational David The Power of Poetic Leadership Ken invites you to sing Through his work with poet David Whyte Ken explores poetic leadership in King David a fully human irrational leader who knew how to stir people with song In four sections The Irrational David observes King David the believer the beloved the beautiful mess and the broken hearted Offering his own poetry as a lens Ken enters into scripture and creates a conversation between the spoken word and sacred text Discover how irrationality and poetry can prepare us for the real conversations for which our communities are so hungry Find new layers of meaning in familiar Scriptures And welcome a fellow traveler into your life who has found strength through vulnerability and is willing to share his journey on the beautiful and messy road of faith with you      This is Our Writing T. F. Rigelhof, 2000 Punctuate his title as you like but T F Rigelhof considers This is Our Writing a declaration an enquiry and an exclamation As a writer of half a dozen a reviewer of dozens upon dozens and as a reader of a multitude more books Terry Rigelhof knows much about writing in Canada In these eleven essays he asks what is best in what has been written by Canadians in the twentieth century He examines selected works of some writers whose accomplishments need serious revaluation What are the real achievements of Robertson Davies Carole Corbeil Mavis Gallant Mordecai Richler Hugh Hood Leonard Cohen and George Grant Rigelhof comes up with a list that will surprise some and dismay others This is a book for readers who have always known in their heart of hearts that Robertson Davies was an egregious windbag and that underneath the inspired silliness of their carefully contrived and managed public images Mordecai Richler and Leonard Cohen have produced three of the most intelligent novels we have In a sequence of interlocking personal essays Rigelhof explores living a writerly life in Canada at the end of the twentieth century The text is fortified by a dozen photographs all but one previously unpublished by Gabor Szilasi one of Canada's greatest active documentary photographers      The Ph.D. Trap Revisited Wilfred Cude, 2000-10-01 When The Ph D Trap was first published in 1987 it hit academe like a bombshell Wilfred Cude dared to pull back the veil of graduate school life to expose the harsh realities of modern advanced study Using statistics academic history and diverse intellectual traditions Cude revealed the Ph D program in most disciplines to be savage mechanical and cruel an exploitative construct that often frustrates legitimate intellectual inquiry shatters viable career expectations and mangles personal and professional relations In the years since an outpouring of books articles and statistical data delineating serious weaknesses in contemporary higher education has provided a wealth of evidence supporting Cude's original thesis The Ph D Trap Revisited amplifies Cude's arguments with a synthesis and analysis of new data and information Topics examined include the grad school numbers game the rogue professor muddles in methodology the perils of apprenticeship ethics and economics existing alternatives and recommendations for change In an age of increasingly unchecked proliferation of the Ph D degree throughout academic institutions in the western world Cude's work is a tonic      Robertson Davies's Cornish Trilogy Victor J. Lams, 2008 Robertson Davies's Cornish Trilogy A Reader's Guide is the first book length study of Davies's best work The Rebel Angels What's Bred in the Bone and The Lyre of Orpheus In The Rebel Angels Maria and Darcourt alternate in narrating the novel's theme obsession before escaping from its grip by their mutual assistance while other characters are less fortunate What's Bred in the Bone narrates the artistic development of Canadian painter Francis Cornish which is crowned by his stunning Marriage at Cana an iconographic presentation of his personal myth a color reproduction of Bronzino's Allegory exemplifies their stylistic kinship While The Lyre of Orpheus is ostensibly focused on the completion and staging of an unfinished Hoffmann opera it narrates the ameliorative personal development of the characters who interact during that project

Patrick White and God Michael Giffin, 2017-05-11 The novels of Australia's Nobel Laureate Patrick White 1912-1990 are a persistent commentary on Nietzsche's proclamation of God's death As White knew the proclamation was not about God's existence but about classical views of God it presented him with the impossible task of using language to describe what language cannot describe This has always been one of the more misunderstood aspects of his literary vision Because the announcement is often interpreted in antithetical ways atheistic theistic secular religious humanistic and fatalistic critics should gain a better understanding of what White was trying to achieve by comparing him with his post war contemporaries from England Scotland and Canada Iris Murdoch William Golding Muriel Spark and Robertson Davies After and because of the war these authors all commented on the consequences of God's death Along with White they worked with a shared pattern of tropes to explore the light and dark aspects of western consciousness and the civilization it has produced Where did the pattern come from Was it metaphysical or metapsychological These questions are complex as the pattern came from many sources simultaneously and synergistically but this book tackles these questions by describing that pattern

Interpreting Literary Texts Michael Giffin, 2024-09-12 This book considers how textual interpretation has been influenced by post Kantian philosophy and aesthetics particularly the cultural transition from the correspondence theory of knowledge and truth to Nietzschean perspectivism and the canonical transition from Classicism to Romanticism to Modernism to Postmodernism It discusses the principles of interpretation the concept of reason logos and how the West's model of mind evolved The novels of Jane Austen introduce the concept of Classicism including her debt to Aristotle's thinking about Tragedy and Comedy in Poetics The two trajectories of Romanticism are discussed the philosophical trajectory through Berlin's idea of Counter Enlightenment the immanent critique of metaphysics and the aesthetic trajectory through Blake's vision of what is possible if the doors of perception can be cleansed The novels of Australia's Patrick White introduce the concept of Modernism and his attempt to imagine the real The novels of Margaret Atwood introduce the concept of Postmodernism tracing her literary evolution from an author focused on female identity to one concerned with the future of humanity The novels of Graham Greene and Muriel Spark are discussed as two different Catholic responses to Modernism The novels of Marilynne Robinson and Douglas Wilson are discussed as two different Protestant responses to Calvinism
