The Rothko Chapel Paintings Origins Structure Meaning:

The Rothko Chapel Paintings Sheldon Nodelman, 1997 The paintings executed in 1964 1967 by American artist Mark Rothko for the Rothko Chapel in Houston represent the fulfillment of the artist's lifelong ambition and a breakthrough in twentieth century art Unlike previous sets of paintings commissioned for the Seagram Building and Harvard University the Chapel commission allowed Rothko to determine the architectural setting and lighting in which the paintings would appear This proved to be the catalyst for a new mode of pictorial dynamics based on a kind of interaction of paintings architecture and light previously unknown No painting in the set could be understood in isolation from the rest or apart from its place in the architectural setting The Rothko Chapel Paintings explores this interdependence of paintings and place As viewers move about the Chapel's octagonal enclosure over whose walls the fourteen panels are continuously distributed they discover systems of pictorial interactions which become the terms or characters of a cosmological drama in which the viewer is a necessary participant In the act of vision the embodied viewer is prompted not merely to witness but also to reenact that questioning of human destiny which has preoccupied the Western spiritual tradition The Rothko Chapel Paintings

Sheldon Nodelman, 1996 Mark Rothko Christopher Rothko, 2015-11-24 Mark Rothko 1903 1970 world renowned icon of Abstract Expressionism is rediscovered in this wholly original examination of his art and life written by his son Synthesizing rigorous critique with personal anecdotes Christopher the younger of the artist's two children offers a unique perspective on this modern master Christopher Rothko draws on an intimate knowledge of the artworks to present eighteen essays that look closely at the paintings and explore the ways in which they foster a profound connection between viewer and artist through form color and scale The prominent commissions for the Rothko Chapel in Houston and the Seagram Building murals in New York receive extended treatment as do many of the lesser known and underappreciated aspects of Rothko's oeuvre including reassessments of his late dark canvases and his formidable body of works on paper The author also discusses the artist's writings of the 1930s and 1940s the significance of music to the artist and our enduring struggles with visual abstraction in the contemporary era Finally Christopher Rothko writes movingly about his role as the artist's son his commonalities with his father and the terms of the relationship they forged during the writer's childhood Mark Rothko From the Inside Out is a thoughtful reexamination of the legendary artist serving as a passionate introduction for readers new to his work and offering a fresh perspective to those who know it well Mark Rothko David Anfam, 1998-09-10 This is the first volume of the catalogue raisonne of the work of Mark Rothko the abstract artist It documents Rothko's entire output of paintings on canvas and panel reproducing all the works in colour An introductory text investigates the essential features of Rothko's art

Canons and Values Larry Silver, Kevin Terraciano, 2019-08-27 A critical rethinking of the way canons are defined constructed dismantled and revised A century ago all art was evaluated through the lens of European classicism and its tradition This volume explores and questions the foundations of the European canon offers a critical rethinking of ancient and classical art and interrogates the canons of cultures and regions that have often been left at the margins of art history It underscores the historical and geographical diversity of canons and the local values underlying them Twelve international scholars consider how canons are constructed and contested focusing on the relationship between canonical objects and the value systems that shape their hierarchies Deploying an array of methodologies including archaeological investigations visual analysis and literary critique the authors examine canon formation throughout the world including Africa India East Asia Mesoamerica South America ancient Egypt classical Greece and Europe Global studies of art which are dismantling the traditionally Eurocentric canon promise to make art history more inclusive But enduring canons cannot be dismissed This volume raises new questions about the importance of canons including those from outside Europe for the wider discipline of art history

Where Heaven and Earth Meet W. Stoker, 2012-01-01 Art has always been important for religion or spirituality Secular art displayed in museums can also be spiritual and it is this art that is the subject of this book Many of the works of art produced by Wassily Kandinsky Mark Rothko Andy Warhol and Anselm Kiefer are spiritual in nature These works reveal their own spirituality which often has no connection to official religions Wessel Stoker demonstrates that these artists communicate religious insights through images and shows how they depict the relationship between heaven and earth between this world and a transcendent reality thus clearly drawing the contours of the spirituality these works evince Orphic Bend Robert L. Zamsky, 2021-08-10 Opera poetics and the fate of humanism Ezra Pound and Charles Bernstein Measure then is my testament Robert Creeley and the poet's music Orpheus in the garden John Taggart Eurydice takes the mic improvisation and ensemble in the work of Tracie Morris Orphic bend music and meaning in the work of Nathaniel Mackey The Oxford History of Christian Worship Geoffrey Wainwright, 2006 The Oxford History of Christian Worship is a comprehensive and authoritative history lavishly illustrated of the origins and development of Christian worship up to the present day Following contemporary methods in scholarship it attends to social and cultural contexts and examines the worship traditions from both Eastern and Western Christianity ancient and modern It offers a chronological account while encompassing spatial and confessional variations from Baptists in Britain to Roman Catholics in Mexico from Orthodox in Ethiopia to Pentecostals in the United States from Lutheran and Reformed in Europe to united churches in India and Australia The material details of Christian worship such as music architecture and the visual arts are considered within specific cultural contexts throughout the volume as well as studied thematically in individual chapters BOOK JACKET Making Houston Modern Barrie Scardino Bradley, Stephen Fox, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2023-11-15 Complex controversial and prolific Howard Barnstone was a central figure in the world of twentieth century modern architecture Recognized as Houston's foremost modern architect in the 1950s Barnstone came to prominence for his designs with partner Preston M Bolton which transposed the rigorous and austere architectural practices of Ludwig Mies van der Rohe to the hot steamy coastal plain of Texas Barnstone was a man of contradictions charming and witty but also self centered caustic and abusive who shaped new settings that were imbued at once with spatial calm and emotional intensity Making Houston Modern explores the provocative architect's life and work not only through the lens of his architectural practice but also by delving into his personal life class identity and connections to the artists critics collectors and museum directors who forged Houston's distinctive culture in the postwar era Edited by three renowned voices in the architecture world this volume situates Barnstone within the contexts of American architecture modernism and Jewish culture to unravel the legacy of a charismatic personality whose imaginative work as an architect author teacher and civic commentator helped redefine architecture in Texas God in the Gallery (Cultural Exegesis) Daniel A. Siedell, 2008-10-01 Is contemporary art a friend or foe of Christianity Art historian critic and curator Daniel Siedell addresses this question and presents a framework for interpreting art from a Christian worldview in God in the Gallery A Christian Embrace of Modern Art As such it is an excellent companion to Francis Schaeffer's classic Art and the Bible Divided into three parts Theology History and Practice God in the Gallery demonstrates that art is in conversation with and not opposed to the Christian faith In addition this book is beautifully enhanced with images from such artists as Andy Warhol Jackson Pollock Enrique Mart nez Celaya and others Readers of this book will include professors students artists and anyone interested in Christianity and culture Defining Neomedievalism(s) Karl Fugelso,2010 The focus on neomedievalism at the 2007 International Conference on Medievalism in ever more sessions at the annual International Congress on Medieval Studies and by many recent or forthcoming publications has left little doubt that this important new area of study is here to stay and that medievalism must come to terms with it In response to an essay in Studies in Medievalism XVIII defining medievalism in relationship to neomedievalism this volume therefore begins with seven essays defining neomedievalism in relationship to medievalism Eucharist as Meaning Joseph C. Mudd,2014-06-26 This study moves beyond postmodern trends in Catholic eucharistic theology by exploring the works of Bernard Lonergan and Louis Marie Chauvet Having learned from both Chauvet s critique of metaphysics and Lonergan s development of a critical metaphysics we hope to offer a fruitful understanding of traditional eucharistic doctrines that is able to respond to some contemporary problems and shed some light on the great mystery that stands at the center of Christian worship from the introduction Postmodern theologians have been critical of using metaphysics to interpret the presence of Christ in the Eucharist liturgical sacrifice and sacramental causality preferring instead a symbolic approach Lonergan s critical metaphysics however offers an account of knowing and being that resists attempts to pit metaphysics against the symbolic and moves sacramental theology into the real world of meaning The result is a theology of the Eucharist grounded in tradition that speaks to today s believers Makers of Jewish Modernity Jacques Picard,Jacques M. Revel,Michael P. Steinberg,Idith Zertal,2016-08-09 A unique reference to leading Jewish figures who helped shape the modern world This superb collection presents more than forty incisive portraits of leading Jewish thinkers artists scientists and other public figures of the last hundred years who in their own unique ways engaged with and helped shape the modern world Makers of Jewish Modernity features entries on political figures such as Walther Rathenau Rosa Luxemburg and David Ben Gurion philosophers and critics such as Walter Benjamin Hannah Arendt Isaiah Berlin Jacques Derrida and Judith Butler and artists such as Mark Rothko The book provides fresh insights into the lives and careers of novelists like Franz Kafka Saul Bellow and Philip Roth the filmmakers Joel and Ethan Coen social scientists such as Sigmund Freud religious leaders and thinkers such as Avraham Kook and Martin Buber and many others Written by a diverse group of leading contemporary scholars from around the world these vibrant and frequently surprising portraits offer a global perspective that highlights the multiplicity of Jewish experience and thought A reference book like no other Makers of Jewish Modernity includes an informative general introduction that situates its subjects within the broader context of Jewish modernity as well as a rich selection of photos Representation in Religion Jan Assmann,Albert I. Baumgartner,2018-08-14 The role of representation in religion is complex While often perceived as essential it is also associated in many traditions with the liability of idolatry and provokes iconoclasm The essays in this volume examine the nuances of representation in religion and the debate concerning its place across a variety of traditions from the three Abrahamic faiths to those of antiquity and the East This volume consists of presentations made at an international conference held in honor of Moshe Barasch art historian and cultural critic who has done much to elucidate the light which representation and religion shed on each other It pays tribute to Barasch by expanding the base of understanding and insight he has erected It should be of interest to students of religion and of art history Seeing Silence Mark C.

Taylor,2022-02-18 Finding silence amidst restlessness is what makes creative life possible and death comprehensible But how do we find more importantly how do we understand silence while immersed in the chattering of the digital age Have we forgotten how to listen Are we less prepared than ever for the ultimate silence that awaits us all Mark C Taylor s new book is a philosophy of silence for our nervous buzzing present a timely work for a world where noise is a means of distraction domination and control Here Taylor asks the reader to pause long enough to hear what is not said and to attend to what remains unsayable But in his account our way to hearing silence is to see it Taylor explores variations of silence by considering the work of leading modern and postmodern visual artists from Barnett Newman and Ad Reinhardt to James Turrell and Anish Kapoor Drawing also on the insights of philosophers theologians writers and composers he weaves a rich narrative modeled on the Stations of the Cross We come from and return to silence in between silence is the gap hesitation interval that allows thoughts to form and words to emerge he writes His chapter titles suggest our positions toward silence or rather our pre positions Without Before From Beyond Against Within Around Between Toward With In Recasting Hegel s phenomenology of spirit and Kierkegaard s stages on life s way Taylor translates the traditional Via Dolorosa into a Nietzschean Via Jubilosa that affirms silence in the midst of noise light in the midst of darkness The Differentiation of

Modernism Larson Powell,2013 The Differentiation of Modernism analyzes the phenomenon of intermediality in German radio plays film music and electronic music of the late modernist period 1945 1980 After 1945 the purist medium specificity of high modernism increasingly yielded to the mixed forms of intermediality Theodor Adorno dubbed this development a Verfransung or fraying of boundaries between the arts The Differentiation of Modernism analyzes this phenomenon in German electronic media arts of the late modernist period 1945 80 in radio plays film music and electronic music The first part of the book begins with a chapter on Adorno s theory of radio as an instrument of democratization going on to analyze the relationship of the Hörspiel or radio play to electronic music In the second part on film music a chapter on Adorno and Eisler s Composing for the Film sets the parameters for chapters on the film Das Mädchen Rosemarie 1957 and on the music films of Jean Marie Straub and Danièle Huillet The third part examines the music of Karlheinz Stockhausen and its relationship to radio abstract painting recording technology and theatrical happenings The book s central notion of the differentiation of culture suggests that late modernism unlike high modernism accepted the contingency of modern mass media driven society and sought to find new forms for it Larson Powell is Curator s Professor of Film Studies at University of Missouri Kansas City He is the author of The Technological Unconscious in German Modernist Literature Camden House 2008
