Great leaders are visionary and strategic. They bridge what is and is not to give us opportunities to grow as well. They are quite formal and methodical, yet personable and flexible individuals. They set goals and they learn, despite the limitations it supports the greatest obstacle is to work on them and not get discouraged by their efforts, but to be motivated by them. They are attentive with their bodies and those, not only about the kind of their responses, but also in their words.
