Mick Abrahams, 2010-05-26 Mick Abrahams first rose to fame as a guitarist during the 1960s and was a founder member of Jethro Tull although his time with the band was to prove short lived owing to the vividly contrasting musical styles of himself and Ian Anderson In his autobiography What is a Wommett Mick finally puts the record straight about this parting of the ways and the events that have shaped the man and his music since that time up to the present day Perhaps best known for his time with Blodwyn Pig the band he formed after leaving Tull Abrahams has continued to delight fans with his own brand of blues jazz and rock on highly acclaimed albums spanning several decades With a fitting foreword by radio presenter and champion of great music Bob Harris this autobiography provides a fascinating insight into the character of an upbeat man who hasn't allowed anything to keep him down for long Packed with anecdotes and stories about Mick's life in and out of the spotlight this book is a must have for his fans and anyone who remembers the excitement of the emerging new musical talent of the sixties

What You Sow Is a Bare Seed Celeste Kennel-Shank, 2023-08-17 What You Sow Is a Bare Seed is a group biography that tells the stories of ordinary but extraordinary people who were engaged in movements for renewal in the church and justice in broader society People such as Dora Koundakjian Johnson an Armenian Lebanese linguistics scholar and activist and Doug Huron an attorney who won a landmark US Supreme Court civil rights case They were among those who came together as the ecumenical Community of Christ in Washington DC Planted in the inner city in 1965 when many churches were leaving the Community distinguished itself from the more organized church without rejecting it as one former member says They believed that helping each other identify their gifts was a compelling way to shape their collective ministry beyond themselves The Community initially intended not to own property but later bought a building and opened it up as a community center As a final act of ministry the Community gave its building away to a nonprofit partner when it closed in 2016 leaving a legacy that continues today
