Authenticity, Language and Interaction in Second Language Contexts Rémi A. van Compernelle, Janice McGregor, 2016-04-20 This collection addresses issues of authenticity in second language contexts from a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches along three principal themes What is authentic language Who is an authentic speaker How is authenticity achieved The volume responds to these questions by bringing together scholars working in a range of contexts including with language learners in the classroom and in residence or study abroad with a variety of second or additional languages Chinese English French German Japanese and Spanish

Contributions focus on authenticity as it relates to patterns of language and meaning and to agency identity and culture and serve as an opening to an extended conversation about the nature of authenticity and its development in L2 contexts This volume is relevant for students and scholars interested in learning about or investigating questions of authenticity and interaction in a wide range of language learning contexts

Experimental Psychology: Quantitative experiments: pt.

1. Students' manual. pt. 2. Instructor's manual Edward Bradford Titchener, 1905 The general purpose with which this book has been written is sufficiently indicated by its title I have selected a number of the classical experiments of Experimental Psychology and have tried to present them in such a way that their performance shall have a real disciplinary value for the undergraduate student Within this general purpose my aim has been two fold I have sought to show in the first place that psychology is above the laboratory that we employ our instruments of precision not for their own sake but solely because they help us to a refined and more accurate introspection And secondly just as in my Outline of Psychology and Primer of Psychology I gave the results of experimentation a prominent place in the psychological system so here I have treated the selected experiments not as separate exercises but as points of departure for systematic discussion PsycINFO Database Record c 2005 APA all rights reserved
