Haus Chie Kawahara, 2017-11-18 Managing a major remodel of your home involves learning various aspects of a construction project: permitting, hiring contractors, clarifying what you really mean and want, managing a budget, overseeing quality, avoiding regrets, doing what's right for yourself and standing up for yourself. It's a big job. The learning curve is high and often we homeowners don't get to apply the skills we learned again. In this book, the stories of a couple going through this learning curve are told through the lens of a novice, just like a conversation with a homeowner over a cup of tea. What they thought they wanted: a brand new house in modern minimalist style with solar panels and recycled materials. Very different than what they ended up with: a remodel of a 90-year-old house in the classic Arts and Crafts style to meet the stringent international building standard called Passive House. What caused this shift? How did they choose the contractor? How did they navigate out of the overwhelm of green building choices? How did they manage the relationships? What would they do differently? Was it worth it? This book chronicles the journey by a couple from choosing the location through living in the house after the renovation completion. It wasn't all about finding smart people and following expert guidance. When expert opinions diverged and they got stuck in analysis paralysis, they had to trust their judgment and chose what they felt was right for them. After all, they'll be living in the house for years after the experts are gone.

Reviews for MIDORI HAUS: Chie Kawahara is a storyteller. Her book Midori Haus tells a compelling story in a conversational style about a couple who wanted to remodel an older home that would use as little energy as possible and was comfortable and healthy to live in. Anyone who has an interest in green building, doing right for oneself and the planet will find a friend in this book. Jim Gunshinan, Editor, Home Energy Magazine. Midori Haus serves as a journey of adapting, learning, greening, nurturing and caring for an old house by renewing the house to address current and future environmental challenges. The narrative is delightfully educational; the design process of achieving the passive house standard will be better understood through these stories and conversations. Alison G. Kwok, Ph.D., AIA, CPHC, University of Oregon. The international Passive House standard has gained a deserved reputation as the fastest growing building energy efficiency standard in the world. Unsurprisingly, publications about it have mostly been by and for industry professionals. Midori Haus represents an alternative, introducing readers to Passive House through the eyes of a homeowner undertaking a remodeling project. Chie Kawahara takes readers along on her journey of discovery and remodeling triumph She makes the process understandable and accessible and readers are given practical tools they can use on their own Passive House projects There s nothing like a good case study told by the people involved to bring abstract concepts to life Midori Haus doesn t disappoint Elrond Burrell Architect CPHD blogger In this delightful book Chie Kawahara describes the process she and her husband went through to purchase a 1920s bungalow and turn it into a state of the art healthy green Passive House This account of their experiences is highly instructional for anyone considering buying and renovating a house and it s a wonderful read Alex Wilson Founder BuildingGreen Inc Sustainable Residential Interiors Annette Stelmack,Associates III,Kari Foster,Debbie Hindman,2014-09-15 The Second Edition of Sustainable Residential Interiors addresses cutting edge processes strategies and principles as well as details for in depth product vetting criteria Award winning leading interior designer Annette Stelmack shares her expertise from the perspective of LEED Building Design reduce Co2 emissions and waste improve indoor air quality free of toxins and are responsive to environmental impacts Encourages forward thinking by featuring inspirational statements from mentors peers and industry leaders Urges interior designers to commit to designing safe healthy environments that are integral to a professional code of ethics which ensure the delivery of positive outcomes for the client and any building s future occupants New Physical Ideas Are Here Needed: Revolutionizing Education Art Bardige,2007-04-23 How can we meet the increasing demands on American education for more content greater complexity and much higher levels of student success How can we make every student a more effective learner How can we help every teacher support learning more productively How can we create schools that enable each and every child to achieve the education to which he or she aspires We can with a new technology of education a technology focused on student practice and conceptual visualization Fortunately this new technology is now at hand and it can enable us to revolutionize education Please join me in an exploration of these new physical ideas that are here so desperately needed Art Bardige Investing in Rent-to-Own Property Mark Loeffler,2010-07-15 Investing in Rent to Own Property is the distillation of years of investment experience in real estate It is a both strategy and a system which provides stable proven returns for the investor On the flip side of the coin the homebuyer is provided a house that fits their needs and budget Why should an investor have rent to own as part of his or her investment portfolio This book lays out in clear detail the benefits of rent to own and how to get started with a rent to own strategy Loaded with tips and case studies here are the core components of the system How to identify properties How to carry out due diligence Smart financing strategies How to market your system and attract interested tenants homebuyers How to identify and choose tenants homebuyers The rent to own contract Obligations of the investor to the tenant homebuyer Obligations of the tenant homebuyer to the investor The team of experts agent lawyer lender home inspector accountant Exit strategies There are many singles and couples who for a variety of reasons opt for a rent to own opportunity For some it s an opportunity to check out a location for a couple of years so that they re certain it s the house and neighborhood they want for the long term for others it s the desire to own a home
