version of the original book On Intimacy which has been created for younger and more susceptible readers who are interested in delving into the heart and mind of intimacy It has been beautifully sensitively modified to whirl into the depths swirling within more delicate inferences while still maintaining the the integrity of the original text On Intimacy is a book that has changed people s lives It s raw honesty helps us feel we are not so alone while going straight into places we are often too afraid to look at by ourselves It is a brave book to have written it is a brave book to read Written in bubbling streams of real life tales the words come from so deep within it feels they have been specifically written for you It is the vulnerability soft and trembling that allows such deep connection Real life stories surrounding intimacy are shared and themes connect or not so that you the reader can find your own path through to what it is to be more you to be more you with others and to feel deep down when the personal dissolves into the bliss of the universal And yes this book walks the muddy path of grabbling with what it is to be and become a simple human being On Intimacy will take you into yourself and move you where it matters What people have said about the book Your words are in the same category as Tove Jasson and Ali Smith I save their words and yours to read gently and be able to savour them in unpressured time Her wicked humour and stunning presence is spellbinding A massive gossip The chat that we all wish we could have with our girlfriends every single day because we d all be much healthier for it but time and space just sort of get in the way so it s really nice just to read it I felt that I was in a different dimension a parallel universe nding new meanings and universes which didn t necessarily have anything to do with the original words Quite delightful It feels so very similar to worlds I felt that opened to me in books like Women Who Run With The Wolves I don t know that world that is so hard to define with words and yet somehow these women have used words to conjure up what I feel but could not place
