The African Conundrum Mawere, Munyaradzi, Mubaya, Tapuwa R., 2017-05-22 The African conundrum is rooted out of the historical philosophical and cultural bastardisation imbalances and inequalities which many post colonial African governments have always sought to address though with varying degrees of success since the 1960s Lamentably this African conundrum is rarely examined in a systematic manner that takes into account the geopolitical milieu of the continent past and present This volume seeks to interrogate and examine the extent of the impact of the geopolitical seesaw which seems poised to tip in favour of the Global North The book grapples with the question on how Africa can wake up from its cavernous intellectual slumber to break away from both material and psychological dependency and achieve a transformative political and socio economic self reinvention and self assertion While the African conundrum is largely a result of historic oppression and a resilient colonial legacy this book urges Africans to rethink their condition in a manner that makes Africa responsible and accountable for its own destiny The book argues that it is through this rethinking that Africa can successfully transcend the logic of post imperial dependency

Modern Education in Africa Vol. 2 Woube Kassaye, 2024-12-31 This book the second of two volumes focuses on the conceptualization of Indigenous Knowledge and Curriculum Ethiopian African Philosophy and the possibilities of Indigenization Africanization of African Education Its main purpose is to overview African Education and its curriculum development with particular emphasis on Indigenization and Knowledge Production in Ethiopia and come up with curriculum model that fits for Africa

Agriculture, Autonomous Development, and Prospects for Industrialization in Africa
Emmanuel Ndhlovu, 2025-03-06 The book investigates the intersection of agriculture and development in Africa and how it impacts rural industrialisation prospects It provides a comprehensive view of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities and the agricultural sector s potential as the source for continental development and industrialisation prospects Significant research has been done on African development with a focus placed on the problematic role played by slavery colonialism and later by incompetent African leaders who failed to steer development of the type that delivers a progressive sustained and sustainable transformation of lives and societies There is limited focus on the possibility of agriculture being the potential basis of African development and the chance for industrialisation This is a matter of concern considering the dominance of agriculture as a livelihood and income source for many people on the continent In contributing to the debate on development in Africa this book aims to show how agriculture can serve as the basis for African development and industrialisation This will be achieved by i providing a detailed historical description of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities ii outlining the trajectory of African development with a focus on agriculture innovation and mechanisation iii identifying challenges to the development of African agriculture iv exploring the opportunities for agricultural development in Africa and v providing practical and policy recommendations to improve African agriculture and make it the engine for development and industrialisation Utilising a multidisciplinary approach which combines political economy social policy financial inclusion and empowerment approaches the book also shows how engagement of youth and women digitalisation and the provision of support by public and private actors can jump start agriculture as the engine of African development and industrialisation Taken together with this conscious effort to promote a multi disciplinary discussion the book is valuable reading for students policymakers and activists interested in emerging new directions in African development thinking and research

A History of West Africa Toyin Falola, 2023-12-29 This book introduces readers to the rich and fascinating history of West Africa stretching all the way back to the stone age and right up to the modern day Over the course of twenty seven short and engaging chapters the book delves into the social cultural economic and political history of West Africa through prehistory revolutions ancient empires thriving trade networks religious traditions and then the devastating impact of the Trans Atlantic slave trade and subsequent colonial rule The book reflects on the struggle for independence and investigates how politics and economics developed in the post colonial period By the end of the book readers will have a detailed understanding of the fascinating and diverse range of cultures to be found in West Africa and of how the region relates to the rest of the world Drawing on decades of teaching and research experience this book will serve as an excellent textbook for entry level History and African Studies courses as well as providing a perfect general introduction to anyone interested in finding out about West Africa Rural Criminology in Global Perspective Matt Bowden, Gorazd Meško, 2025-01-30 This timely collection crosses international boundaries to highlight criminological issues with a rural focus Using a variety of different perspectives the contributors offer lessons from research on rural crime justice and security from the seven continents with a macroscopic perspective on issues of international concern The book identifies the global context in which rural crime takes place presenting insights on crime prevention safety and security to students researchers policymakers and practitioners Colonial Legacies and Regime Hegemony in Uganda Joshua B.

Rubongoya, 2025-05-13 This book explains the prevalence of electoral authoritarianism or multi party autocracy in the politics of sub Saharan Africa and examines why repeated elections have not deepened democracy Using Uganda as a case study the book examines the hegemonic regimes that underpin electoral authoritarian regimes in the context of a colonial legacy Employing a historical institutionalist approach the author considers independence struggles as formative moments and the nationalist period as a critical juncture in Uganda s historical experience The analysis posits that the structure and dynamic of political organization participation adopted in the run up to independence and the responses by the colonial state laid the ground for movement politics and a path toward post colonial autocratic rule Shedding light on how to deconstruct movement politics and consolidate democracy in Africa this book will be of interest to scholars of African politics and democratization Colonial Intervention and Destabilization of African Identities Obed Mfum-Mensah, 2025-02-01 External forces and African elites impose trusteeship practices on Africans to construct and consolidate hierarchical power relations in African societies that infantilize Africans They employ trusteeship and organized infantilism as two pronged colonial intervention tools to keep the masses of Africans in subordinated positions by accepting and internalizing those practices as part of the normal order of things This book takes an interdisciplinary approach for examining these different forms of power relations that exploit and dispossess African societies of their resources to accumulate their own wealth

Democratization of Africa and Its Impact on the Global Economy Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu, Tshabangu, Icarbord, 2024-01-16 Democratization of Africa and Its Impact on the Global Economy delves into the intricate relationship between democracy governance and development in Africa shedding light on the continent s progress and its implications for the global economy From its historical context rooted in colonialism and apartheid regimes to the present day challenges of weak governance and underdevelopment this book critically examines the factors that have shaped Africa s political and socioeconomic landscape This book offers a comprehensive exploration of democracy governance and development in Africa It delves into various topics such as models of democracy electoral systems political leadership state building democratic deficits political violence corruption and the challenges of democratic consolidation Additionally it examines the significance of democratic governance good governance principles civil society engagement and political accountability in shaping Africa

s political landscape Through a multi disciplinary lens encompassing political science development studies anthropology sociology international relations and public administration the book offers a platform for scholars practitioners policymakers and researchers to engage in critical dialogue and propose innovative strategies for Africa s renewal      Fourth
