When Dad Hurts Mom:

When Dad Hurts Mom Lundy Bancroft, 2004 Discusses the effects of spousal abuse on children explains how the abusive partner distorts familial relationships and offers advice for helping youngsters overcome the trauma of the abuse that they witnessed

Freeing the Oppressed Ron Clark, 2009-09-01 When Jesus spoke at his local synagogue he boldly proclaimed that he was the one sent to free those who were oppressed He came to provide hope peace and safety to those suffering in the world When he left this earth his followers were left with the task of continuing this ministry Statistics suggest that in America one in four women has experienced physical violence in an intimate relationship Dating violence intimate partner violence and child abuse rank as some of our nation's largest problems Men are also being abused by intimate partners parents or care providers at increasing rates The statistic is even more alarming worldwide Unfortunately these statistics represent only reported incidents The rates of verbal emotional and spiritual abuse are even higher In addition countless women are encouraged by clergy to return to their abusive spouses The faith community while called by God to free the oppressed has been slow to respond to this sin against humanity Few seminaries offer quality domestic violence prevention training for clergy However clergy still continue to be sought for help from the community and as advocates for victims of domestic violence A partnership between the church and community locally and abroad is necessary if we wish to transform humans caught in this form of oppression In Setting the Captives Free Ron Clark proposed a theology of addressing domestic violence and its application for clergy Freeing the Oppressed is a book that seeks to condense Clark's previous work into a readable form for those seeking spiritual answers concerning abuse and batterer intervention and for helpers of those caught in the cycle of family violence It is also designed as an outreach for those seeking help from the faith community

Domestic Violence Jean A. Dimock, 2024-04-09 In addressing men on women violence Domestic Violence Identification and Restoration provides a look into the lives of the men who are perpetrators as well as the women and children who experience domestic violence The resulting physical and mental health issues related to women and children are addressed as well as the personality characteristics of an abuser and the common behaviors oppressors use in the home and in public The behaviors they commonly exhibit after separation are exposed including the tactics generally used to sway the court their lawyer and their own family and friends in their favor Domestic Violence explores what happens to brain neurology in women and children when both witnessing abuse and also when directly experiencing abuse Included are steps to help women and children as well as scriptural encouragement for the victims and survivors at the end of each chapter Also viewed are the difficulties experienced by the connected parents of the victim partner subject matter hardly ever if ever addressed This book includes fundamental and indispensable information in one volume and is meant to not only help women and children in domestic violence situations but also to educate the professional and ignite further research

Witness to the Pain Ron Glassman, 2000-10 Children who grow up in homes characterized by parent on parent abuse don't suffer from domestic abuse they suffer because of it I refer to these children as domestic abuse survivors by proxy a term I coined to describe this specific population In short survivors by proxy experience abuse simply by virtue of being in and around abusive environments Their symptoms mimic those experienced by the primary survivor the spouse targeted by the abuser even though they were not the intended target of the abuser In addition survivors by proxy experience symptoms specific to their role as a witness to abuse

Why Don't You Just Talk to Him? Kathleen R. Arnold, 2015 Why Don't You Just Talk to Him looks at the broad political contexts in which violence specifically domestic violence occurs Kathleen Arnold argues that liberal and Enlightenment notions of the social contract rationality and egalitarianism the ideas that constitute norms of good citizenship have an inextricable relationship to violence According to this dynamic targets of abuse are not rational make bad choices are unable to negotiate with their abusers or otherwise violate norms of the social contract they are thus second class citizens In fact as Arnold shows drawing from Nietzsche and Foucault's theories of power and arguing against much of the standard policy literature on domestic violence the very mechanisms that purportedly help targets of domestic abuse actually work to compound the problem by exacerbating or ignoring the power differences between the abuser and the abused The book argues that a key to understanding how to prevent domestic violence is seeing it as a political rather than a personal issue with political consequences It seeks to challenge Enlightenment ideas about intimacy that conceive of personal relationships as mutual equal and contractual Put another way it challenges policy ideas that suggest that targets of abuse can simply choose to leave abusive relationships without other personal or economic consequences or that there is a clear and consistent level of help once they make the choice to leave Asking Why Don't You Just Talk to Him is in reality a suggestion riven with contradictions and false choices Arnold further explores these issues by looking at two key asylum cases that highlight contradictions within the government's treatment of foreigners and that of long term residents These cases expose problematic assumptions in the approach to domestic violence more generally Exposing major injustices from the point of view of domestic violence targets this book promises to generate further debate if not consensus

Story of a Girl Aparajita, Mai Minomoto knows it ain't easy being half Indian and half Japanese To make matters worse she doesn't get along with her family and she starting a new school She doesn't know how she's going to make friends and she doesn't if she'll be accepted Worst of all the demons of her past aren't ready to let her go so what's she to do

A Man Without Money Kevin Robinson, 2007-05 The life style of a man without money how this life style affects his marriage relationship and family Can a man love himself without money Can a woman love a man without money A man without God is a poor man a man with God is rich

Men's Violence Against Women Christopher Kilmartin, Julie A. Allison, 2007 Men's Violence Against Women offers a balance of clinical and social psychological theory and research as well as prevention and intervention techniques with the purpose of understanding and ultimately ending gender based violence The authors address several forms of violence including rape intimate partner violence stalking and sexual harassment in a contemporary linguistic style carefully crafted to avoid victim blaming Although most men do not perpetrate violence against women such violence is not a women s issue it will take the strength and courage of both women and men to solve this human issue This book moves full circle in its coverage of the topic as it explores the silent epidemic of men s violence against women the grave consequences of this violence on both individuals and society and the historical and current foundations that serve to both criminalize and tolerate men s violence against women The authors describe a variety of efforts to treat both offenders and victims highlighting both their vital importance and their insufficiency in preventing violence The final part of the book contains descriptions of model violence prevention approaches and techniques for implementing these programs Readers are empowered as they discover how they can be part of the solution Men s Violence Against Women is intended as a text for courses in gender based violence in a variety of disciplines including psychology sociology and women s men s and or gender studies The book is also a valuable resource for college and community gender based violence prevention and intervention program providers

The Church's Response to Domestic Violence Dr. Char M. Newbold, 2024-06-13 Abuse is hiding in our churches Our women and children are being wounded and even dying in their homes by those who have committed to love and protect them Domestic violence is present in families you would never suspect from the most respected to the least noticed even the family sitting near you in church Women are told God hates divorce learn to submit pray more turn the other cheek look at the plank in their own eye first forgive 70 times 7 By giving such advice to women living in abusive relationships well intentioned church leaders are sending women and children back into dangerous possibly deadly situations In The Church's Response to Domestic Violence a guide based on scriptural truth church leaders will learn the complexities of the dynamics of domestic violence who abuses and who is abused the effects of violence in the home the dangers of couples counseling how to respond to disclosures of abuse why she keeps going back why she doesn't just leave We need our clergy and church leaders to reject the false ideologies that put God's children at risk and equip the Church to be the clear voice of hope and healing for families

Setting the Captives Free Ron Clark,2005-11-01 Abuse is a problem that needs to be understood addressed and challenged The abused are humans in the image of God who need to be protected loved and empowered to stand with us and walk through life with respect and dignity When God brings a victim to us we have a responsibility to love them as we want to be loved and be faithful to that responsibility We must make sure that they and their children are safe protected and given the chance to live in peace and love Abusers are also humans who are in the image of God and they need to be taught how to live and respect all others They must be confronted and challenged to change or face prosecution by our legal system and our spiritual communities I believe that the faith community is in a great position to address this problem We have a God who grieves over the violence that occurs in families Yet we have a God who grieves even more over the fact that spiritual leaders have failed to act as servants of Yahweh in this respect The rest of this book is an appeal to you to gain an understanding of what it really means to face domestic violence and how to help bring peace and wholeness to victims and their children caught in the web of abuse It is an appeal to you to confront those who abuse others rather than shut your eyes from the
