Social, Educational, and Cultural Perspectives of Disabilities in the Global South Ndlovu, Sibonokuhle, Nyoni, Phefumula, 2021-01-15 Technology and research for disabilities and disability support are largely produced by the Global North even though it is utilized globally including in the Global South For this reason the encouragement of greater research efforts and technological creation are essential for advanced disability support in the Global South Social Educational and Cultural Perspectives of Disabilities in the Global South is an essential scholarly publication that examines scholarship and academics with disabilities with an emphasis on the disruption of stereotypes as well as lived experience Featuring a wide range of topics such as feminist theory student motivation and artificial intelligence this book is ideal for academicians academic professionals researchers policymakers and students Zambezia, 1993 Secondary Predication and Adverbial Modification Nikolaus Himmelmann, Eva Schultze-Berndt, 2005 This book approaches depictive secondary predication from a crosslinguistic perspective It maps out all the phenomena and brings together critical surveys and new contributions on their morphosyntactic and semantic properties Provided by publisher Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists The Five-Factor Model of Personality Across Cultures Robert R. McCrae, Juri Allik, 2012-12-06 ROBERT R MCCRAE it is simply personality research conducted in different countries The implicit assumption behind this practice is that personality processes are universal and where they are studied is thus of no consequence An insensitivity to cultural context once imputed mostly to Americans now appears to characterize the field worldwide Fortunately recent years have also seen a rise of interest in studies of personality and culture Church 2001 Church Lee McCauley McCrae 2000 What do these new studies show Are personality processes indeed universal or are there significant variations across cultures that necessitate a more nuanced approach to research There is as yet no definitive answer to that question In some respects human personality does seem to transcend the boundaries of language and culture in other respects it is profoundly influenced by social and historical forces Sorting these issues out must be a priority for our field if we are to understand the current personality literature

Vowel Epenthesis in Loanword Adaptation Christian Uffmann, 2012-02-14 While it is commonly assumed that languages epenthesize context free default vowels this book shows that in loanword adaptation several strategies are found which interact intricately Large loanword corpora in Shona Sranan Samoan and Kinyarwanda are analyzed statistically and the patterns are modeled in a version of Optimality Theory which introduces constraints on autosegmental representations The focus of this book is on English loans in Shona providing an in depth empirical and formal analysis of epenthesis in this language The analysis of additional languages allows for solid typological generalizations In addition a diachronic study of epenthesis in Sranan provides insight into how insertion patterns develop historically In all languages analyzed default epenthesis exists alongside vowel harmony and spreading from adjacent consonants While different languages prefer different strategies these strategies are subject to the same set of constraints however In spreading feature markedness plays an important role alongside sonority We suggest universal markedness scales which combine with constraints on autosegmental configurations to model the patterns found in individual languages and at the same time to constrain the range of possible crosslinguistic variation Cultures, Chess & Art Ned Munger, 1996

Religion, Women's Health Rights, and Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: Volume 2 Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, 2022-08-26 This volume brings to the fore the interface of religion women s sexual reproductive health and rights SRHR and the sustainable development goals SDGs in Zimbabwe It emphasizes that empowering African women is a pivotal pillar for attaining sustainable development Contributors discuss the need for implementing structural changes as a prerequisite for social progress and development to occur in Southern Africa They interrogate the extent to which religious beliefs and practices either promote or impede women s SRHR The contributors also proffer several ways in which addressing the themes of health for all and equality for all women and girls can make a meaningful contribution towards the fulfillment of the goals set for Agenda 2030

Proclaiming the Scandal of the Cross Mark D. Baker, 2006-12-01 Because many modern Christians can offer a reasonable explanation of the meaning of Jesus death on the cross they find it hard to understand the confusion displayed by the disciples after the events in the last pages of the Gospels But if Paul were alive today he would find it inexplicable that we modern believers are not scandalized by the cross Proclaiming the Scandal of the Cross introduces pastors church leaders students and lay readers to the need for contextualized atonement theology offering creative examples of how the cross can be proclaimed today in culturally relevant and transformative ways It makes helpful suggestions on how this vision for a culturally relevant message might be developed The impressive list of contributors includes writings from C S Lewis Rowan Williams Frederica Mathewes Green Brian McLaren and many more who are actively working out just how to make this life transforming proclamation

Ubuntu, Migration and Ministry Elina Hankela,2014-05-28 Ubuntu Migration and Ministry invites the reader to rethink ubuntu Nguni humanness humanity as a moral notion in the context of local communities The socio moral patterns that emerge at the crossroads between ethnography and social ethics offer a fresh perspective to what it means to be human in contemporary Johannesburg The Central Methodist Mission is known for sheltering thousands of migrants and homeless people in the inner city Based on ethnographic fieldwork primarily conducted in 2009 Elina Hankela unpacks the church leader s liberationist vision of humanity and analyses the tension between the congregation and the migrants linked to the refugee ministry While relational virtues mark the community s moral code various regulating rules and structures shape the actual relationships at the church Here ubuntu challenges and is challenged Winner of the 2014 Donner Institute Prize for Outstanding Research into Religion

Speaking Subjects in Multilingualism Research Judith Purkarthofer,Mi-Cha Flubacher,2022-07-22 This book discusses salient moments of multilingual encounters and brings together contributions focused on the interplay between language use by individuals and societies and language related inequalities or opportunities for speakers The chapters demonstrate how biographical and speaker centred approaches can contribute to an understanding of linguistic diversity how researchers can empirically account for lived experiences of languages and how such accounts are embedded in a larger discussion on social inequality Together the chapters make a powerful case for the importance of speaker centred methodologies in multilingual and multilingualism research The book is a rich source of theoretical and methodological reflections and will thus be a valuable resource for both experienced researchers and students beginning to explore biographical research methods

The Spirit of Development Erica Bornstein, 2005 This book is an examination of the connections between modern economic practices globalization and contemporary Christian religious belief based on an ethnographic study of NGOs in Zimbabwe It addresses issues crucial for those interested in the strengths and weaknesses of development theory and practice as well as in Protestant Christianity as a transnational religion
