The Inconvenient Process of Falling Katie Neipris,2015-04-03 Seven childhood friends go camping together for the second summer in a row Last summer they had just graduated high school and believed in their ability to remain so tightly knit even when separated by several months and thousands of miles Last summer they d been so confident that nothing would change They could not have been more wrong Their first year of college did not go as expected Everything that they took for granted fell apart in ways they never could have foreseen This weekend is their last chance to put themselves back together The Inconvenient Process of Falling describes the real struggle of growing up and accepting the unpleasant realization that life is not going to turn out exactly how you planned It depicts the real coming of age experience of returning home and seeing how much you ve changed Ultimately it s a novel about realizing that friends are the family you get to choose These seven friends undergo the same experience endured by all nineteen year olds It s a time of transition and trying to stay afloat in this strange state of quasi adulthood Growing up is a strange process and this novel shows that no one is exempt from it No matter where you live where you go to school or what aspirations you use to define yourself nineteen is a hell of a year The hardships endured at this age the money troubles and family struggles and broken hearts that are an inevitable part of growing up are their own brand of battle When you emerge scarred and battered and kind of an adult you probably still don't know what you want to do with your life or how you're going to become a full person but you know who your friends really are and that's all you can ask for

'Salt of the Earth' Salena Zito, 2024-12-04 Despite the wealth of information at our fingertips in the information age there is a glaring emptiness that plagues us in our storytelling We remove nuance and replace it with sensationalism We shun original stories because they stray too far from the pack In the process we miss the beauty pain and magic the simplicity and grace of simple real life stories about the ordinary lives of people who work the soil to make America possible The result is that we lose touch with who we are as a nation In this collection of syndicated columns from 2023 and 2024 Zito pays attention to those stories From talking with workers in small towns to covering the biggest political figures of our time Zito paints a picture of where the country is after the midterm elections all the way through the final summer of presidential campaigning She approaches each subject with compassion and curiosity and strives to ensure that no everyman is forgotten or ignored
