The Institute continues to administer Certified Communications (CCC) and video certification throughout your organization. The Program's Non-Certification member services include: Program member support, access to quality, state-of-the-art equipment, free field reports, and referrals to technical support. By completing our program of certification, you allow participants to focus on their training, the Program Board will then submit your scores and recommend an achievement level and award certificate when eligible. Your organization may choose to participate.
