applied in higher education institutions These institutions are challenged to carry out management research and teaching and to create settings that allow developing new competencies to address the complex global environmental social cultural and economic pressures with which current and future generations are confronted The first chapters discuss issues of sustainability in higher education namely the role of universities in promoting sustainability and the emergent fields of sustainability science and education for sustainable development and how to integrate and motivate sustainability into the university Subsequent chapters present examples of sustainability assessment tools specifically developed for higher education institutions such as the AISHE Auditing Instrument for Sustainability in Higher Education the GASU Graphical Assessment of Sustainability in Universities too the STAUNCH Sustainability tool for Auditing Universities Curricula in Higher Education The use of other integrated tools are also presented The papers have adopted a pragmatic approach characterized by conceptual descriptions including sustainability assessment and reorienting the curricula on the one hand and practical experiences on the other with good practices from different edges of the world Sustainability Assessment Tools in Higher Education Institutions will be of interest to graduate student lecturers researchers and those setting university policy

African Sexualities Sylvia Tamale, 2011-06-23 A groundbreaking book accessible but scholarly by African activists It uses research life stories and artistic expression including essays case studies poetry news clips songs fiction memoirs letters interviews short film scripts and photographs to examine dominant and deviant sexualities and investigate the intersections between sex power masculinities and femininities It also opens a space particularly for young people to think about African sexualities in different ways

The Agrarian Question in Southern Africa and "accumulation from Below" M. Neocosmos, 1993 Report of the Consultancy and Training Centre Needs Assessment Study, 2001 Report of the Vice Chancellor for the Academic Year ... University of Swaziland, 2006 Swaziland: Contemporary Social and Economic Issues Peter G. Forster, Bongani J. Nsibande, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2000 Up to date information on socio economic issues in contemporary Swaziland is not always readily accessible This work fills that gap by including contributions by Swazi scholars based on recent research Swaziland is of particular interest because of its culture and development the special characteristics of small states and regional development in Southern Africa Swaziland faces some problems found generally in developing areas but others are distinctive The cultural dimension to development is paid close attention throughout

Contributions to Library Science, 1990 An Introduction to the Literature of eSwatini Kerry Vincent, 2020-10-21 This book is the first comprehensive introduction to the literature of eSwatini It details a literary trajectory that begins with renditions of the country by early travelers and settlers and follows with the emergence of a national literature that is marked by early oral influences and molded by unique sociopolitical interests Along the way the author considers how contemporary writing by visitors expatriates and journalists have salvaged and recycled earlier images and attitudes through a series of representational and rhetorical practices In particular the lingering influence of colonial discourse is explored in the context of the nation's pivotal incwala ritual. A chapter on Hilda Kuper that situates her fiction and drama between outsider and insider accounts is followed by the final two chapters that trace the development of anglophone and siSwati writing and identify themes arising from the major literary genres produced by local authors. The concluding section features a comprehensive registry of writers with brief summaries of their works. Draft Swaziland.
