Key Concepts

The American government is a system of checks and balances. The three branches of government are the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches. The Executive branch is headed by the President. The Legislative branch is headed by Congress. The Judicial branch is headed by the Supreme Court. The system of checks and balances ensures that no one branch of government becomes too powerful.

The Emancipation Proclamation was a presidential decree that freed the slaves in the Confederate States of America. It was issued by Abraham Lincoln on January 1, 1863.
