If a particular "section" is not needed for a P&P, remove it. Recommendations about how to write P&Ps which may be helpful to you were provided at two HIPAA COW Conferences (September 2007 and April 2005). [Remove the brackets and italicized tips within them]. Include simple and short sentences in P&Ps. Use common words that everyone understands. It is recommended that you maintain a list of P&Ps with effective dates, previous version dates, and end dates for P&Ps no longer in place. Consider writing a "policy on P&Ps", describing the format to use, frequency to review and revise them, how to maintain them, etc.
