This volume presents the contributions of a wide range of scholars who exchanged their views on the topic at a conference in Freiburg, Germany, in November 2011. The authors address three leading questions: What are the local meanings of authenticity embedded in large cultural and social structures? What is the meaning of linguistic authenticity in delocalised and/or deterritorialised settings? How is authenticity indexed in other contexts of language expression e.g. in writing or in political discourse? These questions are tackled by recognised experts in the fields of sociolinguistics, linguistic anthropology, and contact linguistics. While by no means exhaustive, the volume offers a large array of case studies that contribute significantly to our understanding of the meaning of authenticity in language production and perception. A Linguistic History of English Poetry Richard Bradford, 2005-07-25 This introductory book takes the reader through literary history from the Renaissance to Postmodernism and considers individual texts as paradigms which can both reflect and unsettle their broader linguistic and cultural contexts. Richard Bradford provides detailed readings of individual texts which emphasize their relation to literary history and broader socio-cultural contexts and which take into account developments in structuralism and postmodernism. Texts include poems by Donne, Herbert, Marvell, Milton, Pope, Wordsworth, Coleridge, Blake, Keats, Hopkins, Browning, Pound, Eliot, Carlos Williams, Auden, Larkin, and Geoffrey Hill. Unreal Michael D. Halliday,2015-12-22 This book takes a critical but easy to read look at key subjects in the humanities including our human limitations and the weaknesses in philosophy itself It examines major areas such as religion where thinkers go beyond science in an attempt to find the ultimate realities it turns a sceptical eye on moral codes of social behaviour artistic beliefs and values and radically appraises just what we can come to know about our history A final chapter probes behind the often fond and fanciful notions of that which we find meaningful in culture and our lives more generally In short an engaging disturbing and thought provoking modern world view is on offer here along the paths for tracking truth A common theme that links the wide ranging subjects in the book is to question the coherence of their character in some cases their worth and desirability and even their own reality It poses a radical challenge to conventional ways of looking at matters across the humanities by combining the text with insights from contemporary continental thinkers In Unreal there is largely a chopping down yet the intention is not to be negative for the sake of it but to ensure that people are not duped by the manifold cases of intellectual charlatanism in the wider world That some of this erroneous thinking is extensive enough to encompass whole subjects is perhaps no surprise yet it is both a scandalous and dangerous reflection on human thought
