Global Indian Diaspora Brinsley Samaroo, Primnath Gooptar, Kumar Mahabir, 2021-11-22 Indian Diaspora World Convention was held in Trinidad in 2017 to commemorate the 1917 decision of the Indian Legislature to end further recruitment of Indians for overseas indentured service This part is volume I of the two volume work Global Indian Diaspora It is a significant addition to current research on India's cultural expansion into the Atlantic and Pacific worlds In this volume the former indentured Empire speaks back giving its side of the narrative not in an apologetic accounting but rather on the positive side in diverse ways The Girmitiyas lit agreement signers maintained their core values using these to gain anchorage in the new places At the same time they prudently took advantage of agencies such as the Canadian Mission to gain admission to the wider westernized community They maintained ties with India through frequent visits of Indian scholars and missionaries They equally preserved their cultural observances derived from Indian antiquity adding diversity to the colonial society All of these elements combine to give a refreshing perspective on the globalization of the world which started long before all the time Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Diffractional Technospaces Federica Timeto, 2016-03-09 The entanglements of information and materiality in our media environment that new information and communication technologies make increasingly mobile and locative changes the mediations between space and society The fluidity and continual reworking of the boundaries of contemporary technospaces the sociotechnical environments in which humans and machines relate and intersect is key to the production and consumption of contemporary technologies Theoretical analyses of communication and space have tended to engage in the representation of such changes without interrogating the representational instruments used at a broader methodological level Articulating a non representational perspective on knowledge production and artistic practices combined with an analysis of space this book offers a new performative and relational return to representation in contemporary technospaces The radically materialist posthumanist and performative position from which this situated aesthetics of technospaces is elaborated aligns this book not only with non representational theory but also with the theories of material feminism feminist geography situated epistemologies science and technology studies actor network theory performance studies and new media studies

African Data Privacy Laws Alex B. Makulilo, 2016-11-30 This volume presents analyses of data protection systems and of 26 jurisdictions with data protection legislation in Africa as well as additional selected countries without comprehensive data protection laws In addition it covers all sub regional and regional data privacy policies in Africa Apart from analysing data protection law the book focuses on the socio economic contexts political settings and legal culture in which such laws developed and operate It bases its analyses on the African legal culture and comparative international data privacy law In Africa protection of personal data the central preoccupation of data privacy laws is on the policy agenda The recently adopted African Union Cyber Security and Data Protection Convention 2014 which is the first and currently the only single treaty across the globe to address data protection outside Europe serves as an illustration of such interest In addition there are data protection frameworks at sub regional levels for West Africa East Africa and Southern Africa Similarly laws on protection of personal data are increasingly being adopted at national plane Yet despite these data privacy law reforms there is very little literature about data privacy law in Africa and its recent developments This book fills that gap
