The 1840 translation of the Gospel of Luke as a technology of power Itumeleng D. Mothoagae ,2024-07-26 In this book the author aims to explore the impact of 19th century translations of the Bible into indigenous languages with a specific focus on the Setswana translation The translations have had a profound effect on the religious cultural practices of the indigenous people leading to erosion and alteration of their traditions and identities I argue that it is crucial to consider the translator s intentions and the associated literature such as journals and letters to understand the translation process comprehensively The Setswana Bible was the first to be translated in Africa and tracing the intentions of Robert Moffat the first translator is imperative to understanding the impact of the translation on the receptor culture The methodology adopted is interdisciplinary drawing from linguistics African languages history English literature cultural studies black studies and theology I analyse the impact of the 1840 Gospel of Luke in the context of Setswana culture in South Africa and my findings demonstrate that translations cannot be distinct from the translator To gain a deep understanding of the implications of such texts I adopt a methodology that analyses significant historical literature and primary sources including the records and works of The British and Foreign Bible Society The History of the London Missionary Society and the journals letters and writings of missionaries such as Robert Moffat and John Campbell

Temple ,Nelia Steyn,2016-03-31 Nutrition textbooks used by universities and colleges in developing countries have very often been written by scholars who live and work in North America or the United Kingdom And while the research and information they present is sound the nutrition related health challenges with which developing countries must grapple differ considerably from those found in highly industrialized Western nations The primary aim of Community Nutrition for Developing Countries is to provide a book that meets the needs of nutritionists and other health professionals living and working in developing countries Written by both scholars and practitioners the volume draws on their wealth of knowledge experience and understanding of nutrition in developing countries to provide nutrition professionals with all the information they require Each chapter addresses a specific nutrition challenge currently faced by developing countries such as food security food safety disease prevention maternal health and effective nutrition policy In addition the volume serves as an invaluable resource for those developing and implementing nutrition education programmes With an emphasis on nutritional education as a means to prevent disease and effectively manage health disorders it is the hope of the nearly three dozen contributors to this work that it will enhance the health and well being of low income populations throughout the world

African Data Privacy Laws Alex B. Makulilo, 2016-11-30 This volume presents analyses of data protection systems and of 26 jurisdictions with data protection legislation in Africa as well as additional selected countries without comprehensive data protection laws In addition it covers all sub regional and regional data privacy policies in Africa Apart from analysing data protection law the book focuses on the socio economic contexts political settings and legal culture in which such laws developed and operate It bases its analyses on the African legal culture and comparative international data privacy law In Africa protection of personal data the central preoccupation of data privacy laws is on the policy agenda The recently adopted African Union Cyber Security and Data Protection Convention 2014 which is the first and currently the only single treaty across the globe to address data protection outside Europe serves as an illustration of such interest In addition there are data protection frameworks at sub regional levels for West Africa East Africa and Southern Africa Similarly laws on protection of personal data are increasingly being adopted at national plane Yet despite these data privacy law reforms there is very little literature about data privacy law in Africa and its recent developments This book fills that gap Gender Bias, Missing Girls and Population Imbalance Sneh Sangwan, Randhir Singh Sangwan, Mahima, 2015-01-01 Even in 21st century sex imbalance sex discrimination female foeticide and sexselective abortions continue unabated despite the efforts made by governments Union as well as State from time to time The book based on empirical research is intended to examine differentials in sex composition and to plead for balancing of population sex component with specific reference to the State of Haryana which always stood for adverse sex ratio indicating status of women in the society This volume raises the emotive issue of thousands of missing girls in a developed State of Haryana who fail to appear on the social scene even before their birth The girls are being aborted at a massive scale in recent decades simply for a strong desire to have a son This raises many questions Does the issue of son preference still dominate the scene in a patriarchal society despite the substantial progress in female literacy Does the gender bias still persists among the educated and betteroff sections of society Are the sex selective technologies helping the couples to achieve the desired family size and sex composition To answer these questions it is imperative to highlight the socio economic and cultural factors responsible for daughter discrimination and the resulting implications The present book very succinctly has intended to emphasize the importance of population sex balance in improvement of regional socio economic systems and to suggest strategies to achieve the same based on adequate comprehension of conceptual grasp and analytical discourse on socio economic and demographic characteristics of regional population perception and awareness among people issues and concerns of skewed child sex ratio American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 32:1 MD. Mahmudul Hasan, Ali Paya, Rebecca Masterton, Gubara Said Hassan and Jabal M. Buaben, Jibreel Delgado, Sajjad Rizvi, Mourad Laabdi, Sophia R. Arjana, Katherine Bullock, Maha Nassar, Megan Brankley Abbas, Emad Hamdeh, Francesco Chiabotti, Tammy Gaber, Samad Alavi, Muhammad Haron, Jay Willoughby, 2015-11-17 The American

Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Oral history in South Africa

Sekgothe Mokgoatšana, 2025-05-06 Colonial and apartheid era historical narratives in South Africa often disregard oral testimonies leaving significant gaps in understanding the country's rich and complex past This scholarly book explores the methodologies and ethics of oral history to address these omissions and to elevate oral testimonies as vital tools in historical scholarship This book brings together ten chapters authored by leading academics and researchers It critically examines how oral history methodologies can be contextualised within South Africa's diverse and multifaceted society Rather than focusing on Eurocentric approaches it emphasises the need to rethink the ethics and practices of oral history from an Afrocentric perspective Through its transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary lens spanning history indigenous knowledge studies museum and archival studies and folklore this book advocates for the recognition of interviewees as knowledge holders fostering meaningful exchanges rather than mere knowledge extraction The authors emphasise the need to protect and expand oral history archives ensuring the representation of marginalised voices and redressing past injustices With original research this volume sheds light on the transformative potential of oral history in South Africa offering new arguments and perspectives It aims to inspire scholars researchers and specialists to rethink conventional practices and to bridge the divide between written and oral histories This is essential literature for scholars and practitioners in history oral history theology museum studies and related fields as it reimagines the role of oral testimonies in producing inclusive and credible historical narratives

Redox and Nitrosative Signaling in Cardiovascular System: from Physiological Response to Disease

Mariarosaria Santillo, Pasquale Pagliaro, 2019-01-22 The role of ROS RNS signaling in cardiovascular functions and diseases is increasingly emerging in the last decades The involvement of ROS RNS in the control of a large number of cardiovascular functions like the regulation of the vascular tone the control of blood pressure or myocyte excitation contraction coupling and force development has been broadly investigated and in part clarified On the other hand many efforts have been focused in clarifying the redox mechanisms involved in cardiovascular diseases like ischemia reperfusion injury diabetes associated cardiovascular dysfunctions atherosclerosis or hypertension just to mention the major ones However in most cases the two levels of investigation remain separate and not interlaced failing in the attempt to provide a unified vision of the pathophysiologic mechanisms of cardiovascular diseases The major aim of the Research Topic has been to collect original papers and review articles dealing with the issue from basic to translation research point of views The topic includes contributions that highlight different interesting aspects of cardiovascular biology with an integrated approach useful for the development of new ideas and advancements in the field of redox signaling in the control of normal cardiovascular functions and their disruption in diseases
