International Business, International Adaptation Shad Morris, James Oldroyd, 2023 With the incisive and comprehensive exploration of international business in the modern world in this edition of International Business an accomplished team of educators and business practitioners delivers a revitalized approach to the discipline that brings international business to life This edition of the book includes one of a kind chapters on sustainability poverty and innovation as well as explorations of the COVID 19 pandemic and its effects on commerce the business implications of social and civic justice race and inequality debates and new case studies including one on equity diversity and inclusion at Microsoft The book efficiently prepares students for the global economy and transforms the authors' impressive international experience at multinational corporations into an indispensable pedagogical resource This international adaptation further strengthens the bond between the readers and the contemporary world of international business through the introduction of new case studies caselets illustrations and exhibits related to India Australia bilateral trade association solar mamas of Sudan evolution of Islamic banking in Tanzania McDonald's kosher menu in Israel and so on It takes us through the emerging factors affecting the international business such as digital transformation and global supply chain strategies post COVID 19 Critical thinking questions added at the end of each chapter will encourage the students to think analytically and delve deeper into the topic

Financial Inclusion and Digital Transformation Regulatory Practices in Selected SADC Countries Howard Chitimira, Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa, 2023-03-28 This book investigates the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion and provides a comparative analysis of the regulation promotion and enforcement of the relevant laws in the SADC in particular South Africa Namibia Botswana and Zimbabwe as well as the challenges of financial inclusion In turn it evaluates financial inclusion in the context of specific challenges faced by unbanked and underbanked customers who are easy targets for cyber criminals because they tend to have lower levels of digital literacy The book presents novel discussions that identify the challenges and flaws associated with the enforcement of financial inclusion laws and related measures intended to promote financial inclusion in the SADC region This is primarily done in order to reveal the current strengths and weaknesses of financial inclusion laws in relation to certain aspects of the companies securities and financial markets in the region For example there is no common financial inclusion instrument law that is effectively and uniformly applied throughout the SADC This has impeded the enforcement authorities efforts to effectively combat financial exclusion across the region The book is likely the most comprehensive study to date on the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the SADC region and fills a major gap in SADC and African legal jurisprudence As such it offers a valuable asset for policymakers attorneys bankers securities share holders and other market participants who deal with financial inclusion as well as undergraduate and graduate students interested in the topic Zimbabwe National Bibliography ,1981 Public-Private Partnerships in Africa

Thekiso Molokwane,Muhiya Tshombe Lukamba,Alex Nduhura,Innocent Nuwagaba,2023-12-06 In the twenty first century governments around the world began to engage the private sector with the objective of achieving public service delivery targets and the African continent has as such been experiencing transformation particularly since the introduction of public private partnerships PPP as a measure of reform and method of procurement Unfortunately there is a mixed bag of successes and challenges through this implementation of PPPs causing a gap in infrastructure leaving more than 640 million Africans without access to energy Muhiya Tshombe Lukamba Thekiso Molokwane Alex Nduhura and Innocent Nuwagaba in Public Private Partnerships in Africa Exploring Africa s Growth Potential explore ways in which the government can collaborate with the private sector in order to close these gaps The chapters analyze the implementation of PPPs and provide case studies on the use of PPPs in different African countries and industry sectors This book unearths new findings on PPPs within Africa and provides solutions that are beneficial to scholars the government and the PPP industry through the theoretical underpinning of various contemporary issues African Contributions in Shaping the Worldwide Intellectual Property System

Tshimanga Kongolo,2016-03-23 Africa is playing an increasingly more significant role in the domain of international intellectual property law and this book underlines the contributions made by African countries as a group to the development of the current international IP system It examines in detail their breakthrough proposals and initiatives at the WTO WIPO and WHO with regard to IP and public health IP and traditional knowledge traditional cultural expressions and genetic resources IP and biodiversity and exceptions and limitations to copyright Using Botswana Burundi Egypt Ghana Kenya Mauritius Morocco South Africa and Tunisia as examples it examines the systems under which these IP subject matters are protected From a regional perspective the book also analyses some initiatives taken by ARIPO OAPI and the African Union to protect traditional knowledge and traditional cultural expressions especially in relation to protection of the rights of local farming communities and breeders regulation of access to biological resources genetically modified organisms and the proposed establishment of the new Pan African Intellectual Property Organization PAIPO Demonstrating how Africa is now an active player on the international IP scene this book will be invaluable to those interested in intellectual property law business and commercial law and African and international law International Business Shad Morris,James Oldroyd,2020-07-21
